

The Patriots' Truth

Flint Hills TEA Party News

See us at McALISTER'S DELI, EVERY WED after 5pm – *Join the Working Group. Monthly meetings are usually the 2nd or 3rd Saturday of each month. This month we are taking a break. Next meeting: Feb 18 – 9:30AM, Manhattan City Library Auditorium. Bring Your Important issues to be discussed – Let Chuck know if you have special issues to discuss or come prepared to introduce your concerns on schools, city, county, state, country. Regardless of what happens, and even more so when NOTHING HAPPENS, in DC. We MUST keep God in our Hearts!! Much is still to be accomplished in D.C., at the State Capital, county, Community & School Districts – may God guide them and all of us. We must work together for the good of all in the USA and the world. GOD BLESS!!

A NEW Year is here!! This is the year we MUST step up and make a difference. Our State Legislators are now in session. Kansas Legislators will be making many decisions that will affect our lives and our children's lives that will make huge differences for the rest of their lives. Common Core in Kansas Schools is one of those decisions. If our children are NOT TAUGHT the realistic way to do Math, just to mention one of the many problems, in their learning years they will be penalized/disabled the rest of their lives. They WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED INTO Colleges and Universities upon High School Graduation. Years and money will be wasted in Junior Colleges, learning what they should have been taught in Grade/High School, they will NOT be taught the History of our Country, or the World; they will have little if any knowledge of the U.S. Constitution or how our Founding Fathers intended our country to be governed. They will know little about the United States Armed Forces and the brave, committed men and women that gave their lives to make our USA what it was intended to be. Don't we want/owe our children better than that? Let ALL Legislators know that you want the very best for our children. COMMON CORE IS NOT ANYWHERE NEAR THE VERY BEST!! FACTUALLY – PRETTY MUCH THE OPPOSITE!!

Another problem raising its ugly head is the problem with the "Convention of States." They try to tell us it is different than a "Con-Con," but I see no difference. They want to rewrite the United States Constitution. Why? They say, "Because the Federal Government is NOT FOLLOWING IT ANYWAY." NOW ISN'T THAT DOWN RIGHT STUPID? CHANGE THE PEOPLE MAKING THE LAWS – ELECT PEOPLE WHO WILL FOLLOW THE CONSTITUTION!! THAT IS THE ANSWER NOT CHANGING THE CONSTITUTION!! There is NOTHING WRONG WITH THE CONSTITUTION of the USA. Inform those who are supposed to be representing YOU. If you don't TELL them what you want them to do they can claim ignorance of your wishes when they fail you. If they know what you want and they fail to represent you as you requested you can/should/MUST fight tooth and nail to replace them. This election could well be our LAST chance to VOTE our way out of the corrupt government now in force. Wouldn't voting, talking, working together be a better way than a Civil War? Why do you think ammunition is getting so hard to buy? .22-cal shells are very, very difficult to find and others soon will be also. Think about it!! Don't allow them to talk us into a "Con-Con" or "Convention of States" to change our constitution!! Instead we need to CHANGE who is making the laws!! Elect people who will follow the Constitution. Teach our children what our Constitution is, what it says, what it REALLY says. Look at how our country prospered when we followed, lived by the hard fought for, hard won words our fore Fathers struggled so hard to give us. Originally the Federal Government was put in place only to take care of foreign affairs and now they want to tell us how to live, work (not work), what we eat, what we teach and don't teach our children, manage and/or control our lives completely. Those in Federal Government have us working almost completely FOR them instead of them working FOR US. Do you know what that is called? AGENDA 21 and we are getting closer and closer every day. The United Nations have been pushing toward AGENDA 21 for many years and are succeeding – they must be stopped NOW. Our own Federal Government has joined them. You think I'm getting carried away? Do a bit of checking and thinking. Yes, they are sneaking up on us. Remember what it was like 50 years ago? Do something NOW or we are goners!!! GOD be with us!!

Dear Friends,

Failure after failure after failure. Every day the proof of ObamaCare failure continues to mount.

Try as he and his cronies might, Obama hasn't been able to change the subject from his ObamaCare nightmare.

The website is still a failure. Cancellation notices are still going out. People who "registered" on the ObamaCare website still don't know if they actually have coverage. Democrats are running scared as they see a potential tsunami hitting them on Election Day 2014.

ObamaCare's support nationwide is dwindling. Americans are overwhelmingly opposed to the law. Barack Obama is even losing support from one of his strongest groups of supporters. This week, Harvard University released a poll showing more than half of 18-29 year olds no longer support ObamaCare. They're coming to realize — finally — that their out-of-pocket costs are about to go up big time. They're slowly realizing it's a big scam to take money away from them and give it to others. Welcome to socialism.

What this all proves is something I've been saying for years — the "solutions" of the Left aren't about solving anything. They are about expanding government's reach over our lives and taking away our liberties.

Ever since the early last century, America has been in the middle of a political war where the Left seeks to change this country from a Republic where the people rule the government to a government that regulates and rules the people. Liberal "Progressives" have been fighting a war of attrition--slowly eating away at our liberties as they expand the reach of Big Government.

Back when ObamaCare was being forced through Congress by Obama, Pelosi and Reid, Barack Obama said over and over that the law would end "100 years of debate" over how to tackle healthcare in this country. It's really been 100 years (or more) of the Left eating away at our liberties.

The threat that we lose it all is very real. Our national debt is out of control. The IRS is out of control. NSA is stealing our information. And, most of all, ObamaCare is out of control. Obama himself is writing executive orders and regulations working around the law. Yet Congress — the leaders in both parties — sits back and takes little action to stop it all. Washington elites keep taking power away from us and ignoring what the American people want.

But, I still have hope. I believe the American people are ready to rise up again as they did in 2010. I hear it when I go to Town Hall meetings in my district. I see it in social media and on the news — the surge once again of Tea Party activists speaking out. The frustration level is rising every day as the truth about Obama's overreach becomes more clear.

The history of this country proves one important truth — when we trust the American people to solve the problems we face, they always come through. Every retreat from government leads to prosperity. It happened when we reformed welfare in the 1990's. It happened when Ronald Reagan cut taxes and massively reduced federal regulations. It happened when John F. Kennedy cut taxes. We won two world wars, and we won a nation with cries for freedom and a rag-tag army under George Washington.

That should be the message for the next year -- put the American people back in charge. Let them solve our problems. Pull back the Obama agenda and turn it over to the people. They know how to turn this around--not some pointy-headed intellectuals and politicians and bureaucrats in Washington.

Yours in Liberty,

Tim Huelskamp

Member of Congress

P.S. Pointy-headed elites in Washington really don't have the answers. You and I know that. But the way to take power away from them is to win it back at the ballot box. We made a good start in 2010. We can go farther in 2014. Please pray for our nation that the truth continues to come out that Obama is about control, not freedom.

"America is like a healthy body and its resistance is threefold: its patriotism, its morality and its spiritual life. If we can undermine these three areas, America will collapse from within" ~ Joseph Stalin

"Socialism is a philosophy of failure, the creed of ignorance, and the gospel of envy, its inherent virtue is the equal sharing of misery." ~ Winston Churchill

“I predict future happiness for Americans if they can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of taking care of them.” ~ Thomas Jefferson How did he know?

Common Core: Dangers And Threats To American Liberty And Education

Added by Frank Scarn on December 22, 2013 at 11:14pm

I am still stuck 'way back on the part where the answer to a math problem is WHATEVER MAKES THE STUDENT FEEL GOOD and BOOSTS HIS SELF ESTEEM! I cannot wait to drive over bridges built and designed by COMMON CORE MATH GRADUATES! Comment by Eileen Barayasarra

THE FOLKS IN WASHINGTON HAVE PULLED OFF A BIGGER PONZI SCHEME THAN BERNIE MADOFF EVER DID.

Entitlement my foot, I paid cash for my social security insurance! Just because they borrowed the money for other government spending, doesn't make my benefits some kind of charity or handout!! Remember Congressional benefits? --- free healthcare, outrageous retirement packages, 67 paid holidays, three weeks paid vacation, unlimited paid sick days.

Now that's welfare, and they have the nerve to call my social security retirement payments entitlements? We're "broke" and we can't help our own Seniors, Veterans, Orphans, or Homeless. Yet in the last few months we have provided aid to Haiti, Chile, Turkey, Egypt and Pakistan and many other countries.

Literally, BILLIONS of DOLLARS!!! That's right -- BILLIONS of $'s, not millions -- BILLIONS! And they can't help our own citizens in New York and New Jersey! They call Social Security and Medicare an entitlement even though most of us have been paying for it all our working lives, and now, when its time for us to collect, the government is running out of money. They have run out of money for LEGAL AMERICAN CITIZENS!! THERE IS PLENTY FOR ILLEGALS IN OUR COUNTRY AND FOR COUNTRIES ALL AROUND THE WORLD!! Those amounts are NOT limited!! Why does the USA have to pay WELFARE to the WORLD???

Why did the government borrow from it in the first place? It was never supposed to be part of the general fund.

Sad isn't it. 99% of people won't have the guts to forward this. I'm in the 1% -- I just did. I've sent it to hundreds. How long has the Federal Government been pulling this crap on the American citizens? How long have we been complaining about it? How long are we going to put up with it? When are we going to actually DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT? This is an election year -- NOW IS OUR OPPORTUNITY!! DON'T SIT THERE AND BITCH, RATHER IT IS INWARDLY OR OUTWARDLY OR PUBLICLY, LET YOUR FEELINGS BE KNOWN TO ALL -- SPECIALLY YOUR REPRESENTATIVES AT EVERY LEVEL -- FROM CITY, SCHOOL DISTRICT, COUNTY, LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT, REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT, STATE & FEDERAL!! Get out and talk to these people, to those that are in the position, talk to the new candidates, talk to people you think would be good in the position, encourage them to run, when you find one you can believe and work with support them in every way you can. I recommend dyed in the wool Conservatives, but check them out for yourself.

Twenty years ago we had Reagan for president, Bob Hope and Johnny Cash was still alive — Now all we have is Obama, and no Hope and no Cash!

Kansas voter citizenship law facing new scrutiny

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) -- A proof-of-citizenship requirement for Kansas voters is likely to come under attack once the Legislature opens its annual session, but the debate over the policy championed by Secretary of State Kris Kobach also will play in out in federal court and his re-election campaign.

The law took effect at the start of the year and requires new voters to produce a birth certificate, passport or other documentation of their U.S. citizenship when registering. As the year ends, more than 19,000 Kansas residents find their registrations on hold — keeping them from legally casting ballots — because they haven't complied.

Several Democratic lawmakers have proposed rewriting or repealing the proof-of-citizenship law, and even some of Kobach's fellow Republicans in the GOP-dominated Legislature want to look for ways to shrink the list of affected voters. Former state Sen. Jean Schodorf, the expected Democratic challenger for Kobach, is calling on legislators to audit how Kobach's office has administered the law once they convene Jan. 13.

Kobach and Arizona Secretary of State Ken Bennett filed a federal lawsuit earlier this year to compel a federal agency to help their states carry out proof-of-citizenship requirements. The American Civil Liberties Union launched its own legal challenge over the policy in November.

"He promised that this law would be simple, easy and seamless to implement," Schodorf, who voted for the law as a moderate Republican state senator, said during a recent interview. She lost her seat in 2012 [to a] conservative primary challenger and switched parties. "We're in this horrible mess."

If Kobach and Bennett are successful, the federal government will be forced to modify its national registration form and Kansas and Arizona residents will be informed they must present proof of their U.S. citizenship to be allowed to vote. Currently, people who use the national form only have to sign a statement attesting to their citizenship.

Kobach and Bennett contend their states face creating cumbersome dual registration systems in which they must accept the national form but limit those people to voting only in presidential, U.S. Senate and congressional races.

The separate ACLU lawsuit contends Kobach has no authority to create a dual registration system in Kansas.

"There's nothing the Legislature needs to do in regard to the proof-of-citizenship law, and I won't be asking them to do anything," Kobach said. "At this point, it's down to my legal staff to defend these laws in court."

Kobach said many of the prospective voters are waiting to provide proof of citizenship until the August primary or November general election because, "It's human nature for a lot of people to put things off."

Kobach promoted the law as an anti-fraud measure preventing non-citizens from voting, particularly those living in the U.S. illegally. During a December federal court hearing, he said his office had found the names of 20 non-citizens out of the about 1.7 million registered on the state's voter rolls.

"We know that the law is having its intended effect," he said.

Critics of the proof-of-citizenship law contend it creates a new burden for prospective voters, far out of proportion to the problem it's purporting to solve. State Sen. David Haley, a Kansas City Democrat who serves on the chamber's elections committee, said the policy should be repealed, calling it an attempt to "repress voter participation."

House Elections Committee Chairman Scott Schwab, a conservative Olathe Republican, said the proof-of-citizenship rule still has broad public support.

"It wasn't a mistake, and it was what people wanted," Schwab said. "The problem was the administration of the law."

Schwab places part of the blame on the state Department of Revenue, which earlier this year announced it had dropped plans to require anyone renewing a driver's license to present citizenship documents.

The department had made those plans so that Kansas would comply with a federal anti-terrorism law. Revenue Secretary Nick Jordan said the federal government later indicated such a step won't be required. Also, concerns about the potential inconvenience for motorists arose.

Schodorf said the department's initial plans had reassured lawmakers like her that Kobach's proof-of-citizenship law could be administered smoothly, with the department eventually sending electronic copies of all motorists' citizenship documents to election officials.

Schwab said legislators may consider proposals to require the Department of Revenue to go back to its original plans to require citizenship documents to renew any license.

Schodorf said that if lawmakers don't address the problems with the proof-of-citizenship law, she'll appeal to voters.

Kobach also expects to debate the policy for months ahead of the November election. "It is probably going to serve as a referendum," Kobach said.

LAW DENIED!! At the recent KS 10th Amendment dinner on Jan 16th in Topeka, SoS Kris Kobach correctly predicted that the federal Election Assistance Commission would rule against proof-of-citizenship requirements in the new voter-registration laws in KS, AZ & GA, thus setting the stage for the lawsuit to go forward in Federal District Court, where Kobach & his team will face off against lawyers from the ACLU & "Project Vote". At the dinner, Kobach flatly declared, "... the EAC has no authority to second-guess the policy decisions of the sovereign states of Kansas and Arizona." He also said that while many attorneys dread going up against the ACLU, he honestly enjoys the challenge, and is looking forward to the day in Court!

“The parallel between Benghazi and the IRS story is amazing. Lying then lying about lying. Then hiding from the fact they are lying. Then seeking to apologize for lies they claim they didn’t tell. This pattern is a culture of big government who believes it is more important than the American people” ~ Newt Gingrich
These are but two of this type of parallels that has occurred in our Government lately. What about the lies within ObamaCare? Not raising taxes? The way our long time friends are treated, such as England? No Respect!!!

NY Times Gets it Right on Edward Snowden and Barack Obama

Posted By Bob Allen on Jan 2, 2014 |

I don’t always agree with the New York Times, but when I do... is now.

Seven months ago, the world began to learn the vast scope of the National Security Agency’s reach into the lives of hundreds of millions of people in the United States and around the globe, as it collects information about their phone calls, their email messages, their friends and contacts, how they spend their days and where they spend their nights. The public learned in great detail how the agency has exceeded its mandate and abused its authority, prompting outrage at kitchen tables and at the desks of Congress, which may finally begin to limit these practices.

The revelations have already prompted two federal judges to accuse the N.S.A. of violating the Constitution (although a third, unfortunately, found the dragnet surveillance to be legal). A panel appointed by President Obama issued a powerful indictment of the agency’s invasions of privacy and called for a major overhaul of its operations.

All of this is entirely because of information provided to journalists by Edward Snowden, the former N.S.A. contractor who stole a trove of highly classified documents after he became disillusioned with the agency’s voraciousness. Mr. Snowden is now living in Russia, on the run from American charges of espionage and theft, and he faces the prospect of spending the rest of his life looking over his shoulder.

Considering the enormous value of the information he has revealed, and the abuses he has exposed, Mr. Snowden deserves better than a life of permanent exile, fear and flight. He may have committed a crime to do so, but he has done his country a great service. It is time for the United States to offer Mr. Snowden a plea bargain or some form of clemency that would allow him to return home, face at least substantially reduced punishment in light of his role as a whistle-blower, and have the hope of a life advocating for greater privacy and far stronger oversight of the runaway intelligence community.

I was laughing as I read Barack Obama’s quotes concerning his Presidential-Divine Fiat for whistle-blower protection, allegedly providing a way for Ed Snowden to have shared his concerns—that is SOOO rich, coming from a President who specializes in ignoring the legal path for his own desired changes to our system of government.

Then, the Times editorial board had me roaring when it immediately took a journalistic sword to him, and tersely said Obama’s statements were total lies anyway—Snowden would not have been protected by that Executive Order. Folks, that is what real journalists do: Quote a politician’s lie, then expose it!

In retrospect, Mr. Snowden was clearly justified in believing that the only way to blow the whistle on this kind of intelligence-gathering was to expose it to the public and let the resulting furor do the work his superiors would not.

Well said, NYT.

The NSA is a dangerous threat to freedom. The worst thing is that soulless men who can justify what they’ve already been doing are also more than capable of ignoring legitimate intel on a coming terrorist plot—allowing carnage—just to show us how much we “need them.” We’re on the back of a tiger.

Thankfully, the threat from foreign terrorists is far less than the hysteria we’ve been fed in order to justify massive expenditures on the NSA, Homeland Security, TSA, etc. Truly, the biggest threat to the American way of life is from within—these rogue Federal agencies—not from without.

Jack Wheeler is a brilliant man who was the author of Reagan's strategy to break the back of the Soviet Union with the star wars race and expose their inner weakness. For years he wrote a weekly intelligence update that was extremely interesting and well structured and informative. He consults(ed) with several mega corporations on global trends and the future, etc. He is in semi-retirement now. He is a true patriot with a no-nonsense approach to everything. He is also a somewhat well-known mountain climber and adventurer.

Written by Dr. Jack Wheeler

The O-man, Barack Hussein Obama, is an eloquently tailored empty suit. No resume, no accomplishments, no experience, no original ideas, no understanding of how the economy works, no understanding of how the world works, no balls, nothing but abstract, empty rhetoric devoid of real substance.

He has no real identity. He is half-white, which he rejects. The rest of him is mostly Arab, which he hides but is disclosed by his non-African Arabic surname and his Arabic first and middle names as a way to triply proclaim his Arabic parentage to people in Kenya. Only a small part of him is African Black from his Luo grandmother, which he pretends he is exclusively.

What he isn't, not a genetic drop of, is 'African-American,' the descendant of enslaved Africans brought to America chained in slave ships. He hasn't a single ancestor who was a slave. Instead, his Arab ancestors were slave owners. Slave-trading was the main Arab business in East Africa for centuries until the British ended it.

Let that sink in: Obama is not the descendant of slaves, he is the descendant of slave owners. Thus he makes the perfect Liberal Messiah.

It's something Hillary doesn't understand — how some complete neophyte came out of the blue and stole the Dem nomination from her. Obamamania is beyond politics and reason. It is a true religious cult, whose adherents reject Christianity yet still believe in Original Sin, transferring it from the evil of being human to the evil of being white.

Thus Obama has become the white liberals' Christ, offering absolution from the Sin of Being White. There is no reason or logic behind it, no faults or flaws of his can diminish it, no arguments Hillary could make of any kind can be effective against it. The absurdity of Hypocrisy Clothed In Human Flesh being their Savior is all the more cause for liberals to worship him: Credo quia absurdum, I believe it because it is absurd.

Thank heavens that the voting majority of Americans remain Christian and are in no desperate need of a phony savior. He is ridiculous and should not be taken seriously by any thinking American. *The Keyword here is thinking!!!

1914 to 2014: 100 YEARS OF DRIFTING INTO WARFARE

Ever get a creepy feeling something very bad is about to happen? In the early summer of 1914, did the British people many of us saw characterized in the initial season of "Downton Abbey" have any idea that western Europe was about to destroy itself? What did people feel like in mid-October 1929? Just before the stock market crashed. What were Americans thinking about on December 6, 1941: Did they have any idea that the Japanese would attack the very next dawn? Few recall how they felt on September 10, 2001. But we all remember how we felt the next day when Islamic terrorists hijacked four airliners and destroyed our illusion of being at peace. Possibly, forever.

Looking around the world, we see a nuclear-armed North Korean being led by a looney-toon president who executes his own uncle and thinks a washed-out American basketball player hung the Moon. In Iran, we see a nation led by Islamic zealots who want nuclear weapons so they can rule the Middle East and blast Israel off the face of the earth. In Red China, we see a leadership determined to create a navy able to dominate the waters surrounding Japan, the Philippines, Indonesia, and the Straits of Malacca. In Russia, the robust leadership of Vladimir Putin is restoring the former Soviet Union to the front rank of nuclear-armed nations.

In America, our secretary of state proclaims the Monroe Doctrine is no longer in effect. Military personnel and promotion policies are being changed to favor officers who are "politically correct," and are nothing like the war-winning warriors of World War II: Generals George Patton, "Chesty" Puller, and Admiral Earnest King.

Our stock market is reaching towering heights reminiscent of October, 1929. Too much money is chasing too few investments of merit, making rich investors richer and our senior savers poorer. Twenty-nine percent of Americans are not working, either because they cannot find jobs or because they can make more money on welfare.

Currently, millions do not know if they have health insurance or not. When the employer mandate kicks back in next year, many employers plan to convert to a part-time workforce and, thereby, avoid the escalating costs of ObamaCare.

Congress is split between one party that wants more Socialism and one party that wants a return to free-market Capitalism. The White House is in the hands of a president who might legally be president; however, seems to be culturally from someplace other than America. The Supreme Court cannot make an understandable distinction between a fine and a tax. The French-Canadian company that could not figure out how to on-line portal healthcare.gov has been replaced by an Irish-owned company most of whose employees live in India or the Philippines. Result: Healthcare.gov is being outsourced to a foreign, off-shore tax-haven.

The regime media is fixated on Governor Christie's Bridge-gate and indifferent to finding out who gave the order for readily available rescue forces to "stand down" and leave four Americans, to include an American ambassador, his aide, and two Navy SEALs to die in Benghazi.

It feels as if we are approaching the summer of 1914 and, like a rudderless ship, we are drifting into World War III.

History Lesson on Your Social Security Card

By Dick Kantenberger, Gifted Education Writer Examiner.com

Just in case some of you young whippersnappers (and some older ones) didn't know this. It's easy to check out, if you don't believe it. Be sure and show it to your family and friends. They need a little history lesson on what's what and it doesn't matter whether you are Democrat or Republican. Facts are Facts.

Social Security Cards up until the 1980's expressly stated the number and Card were not to be used for identification purposes. Since nearly everyone in the United States now has a number, it became convenient to use it anyway *and the message, NOT FOR IDENTIFICATION was removed.

Our Social Security Franklin Roosevelt, a Democrat, introduced the Social Security (FICA) Program. He promised:

- 1) That participation in the Program would be completely voluntary. No longer Voluntary.
- 2) That the participants would only have to pay 1% of the first $1,400 of their annual incomes into the Program, Now 7.65%... on the first $90,000.
- 3) That the money the participants elected to put into the Program would be deductible from their income for tax purposes each year. No longer tax deductible.

4) That the money the participants put in went to the Independent 'Trust Fund' rather than into the General Operating Fund, and therefore, would only be used to fund the Social Security Retirement Program, and no other Government program. Under Johnson, the money was moved to The General Fund and spent.

5) That the annuity payments to the retirees would never be taxed as income.

Under Clinton & Gore up to 85% of your Social Security can be taxed.

Since many of us have paid into FICA for years and are now receiving a Social Security check every month -- and then finding that we are getting taxed on 85% of the money we paid to the Federal government to 'put away -- you may be interested in the following:

Q: Which Political Party took Social Security from the Independent 'Trust Fund' and put it into the General Fund so that Congress could spend it?

A: It was Lyndon Johnson and the Democrat-controlled House and Senate.

Q: Which Political Party eliminated the income tax deduction for Social Security (FICA) withholding?

A: The Democrat Party.

Q: Which Political Party started taxing Social Security annuities?

A: The Democrat Party with Al Gore casting the 'tie-breaking' deciding vote as President of the Senate, while he was Vice President of the U.S.

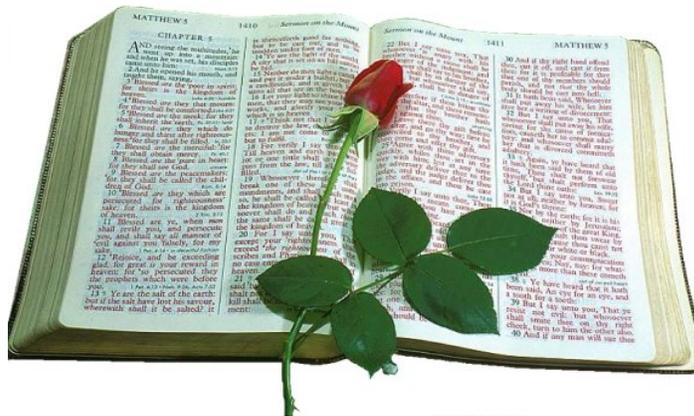

Q: Which Political Party decided to start giving annuity payments to immigrants? (AND MY FAVORITE):

A: That's right! Jimmy Carter and the Democratic Party. Immigrants moved into this country, and at age 65, began to receive Social Security payments! The Democratic Party gave these payments to them, even though they never paid a dime into it!

Then, after violating the original contract (FICA), the Democrats turn around and tell you that the Republicans want to take your Social Security away! And the worst part about it is uninformed citizens believe it! If enough people receive this, maybe a seed of awareness will be planted and maybe changes will evolve.

But it's worth a try. How many people can YOU send this to? Actions speak louder than bumper stickers.

Folks, this is the year that we RE-TAKE AMERICA & CANADA
We can't give up on this issue.
Andy Rooney and Prayer

Andy Rooney says:

I don't believe in Santa Claus, but I'm not going to sue somebody for singing a Ho-Ho-Ho song in December. I don't agree with Darwin, but I didn't go out and hire a lawyer when my high school teacher taught his theory of evolution.

Life, liberty or your pursuit of happiness will not be endangered in any way because someone says a 30-second prayer before a football game.

So what's the big deal?

It's not like somebody is up there reading the entire Book of Acts. They're just talking to a God they believe in and asking him to grant safety to the players on the field and the fans going home from the game.

But it's a Christian prayer, some will argue.

Yes, and this is the United States of America, and Canada, countries founded on Christian principles.

According to our very own phone book,

Christian churches outnumber all others better than 200-to-1. So what would you expect — Somebody chanting Hare Krishna?

If I went to a football game in Jerusalem I would expect to hear a Jewish prayer.

If I went to a soccer game in Baghdad, I would expect to hear a Muslim prayer.

If I went to a ping-pong match in China I would expect to hear someone pray to Buddha. And I wouldn't be offended. It wouldn't bother me one bit.

When in Rome... But, "What about the atheists?" is another argument. What about them?

Nobody is asking them to be baptized. We're not going to pass the collection plate. Just humor us for 30 seconds. If that's asking too much, bring a Walkman or a pair of earplugs. Go to the bathroom. Visit the concession stand. Call your lawyer! Or, just exercise their right to leave this country!

Unfortunately, one or two will call their lawyer. One or two will tell thousands what they can and cannot do. I don't think a short prayer at a football game is going to shake the world's foundations.

Christians are just sick and tired of turning the other cheek while our courts strip us of all our rights.

Our parents and grandparents taught us to pray before eating, to pray before we go to sleep. Our Bible tells us to pray without ceasing.

Now a handful of people and their lawyers are telling us to cease praying. God, help us. And if that last sentence offends you, well, just sue me.

The silent majority has been silent too long. It's time we tell that one or two who scream loud enough to be heard that the vast majority doesn't care what they want!

It is time that the majority rules!

It's time we tell them, "You don't have to pray; you don't have to say the Pledge of Allegiance; you don't have to believe in God or attend services that honor Him. That is your right, and we will honor your right; but by golly, you are no longer going to take our rights away.

We are fighting back, and we WILL WIN!"

God bless us one and all... Especially those who denounce Him. God bless America and Canada, despite all our faults, we are still the greatest nations of all. God bless our service men who are fighting to protect our right to pray and worship God.

YES, YES, YES, it is time we put this in force. It is time we stand up for ourselves!! It is time we stop letting ourselves be pushed around!! It is time we stood up for ourselves, our religion, and most importantly OUR GOD!!! It is shameful that we haven't done it sooner. Of course, IF you are NOT a Christian, do NOT believe in GOD, are NOT citizens of the USA just get out of our way because with the help of our Lord we are going to get our Country and our rights back. This is an election year – be sure you vote for the Christians. Just to name a few Christians running for office are: Tim Huelskamp for Kansas Congressional Representative, District 1, David J. Powell for State Insurance Commissioner (the only truly qualified candidate), Milton Wolf for Kansas Congressional Senator, Chris Kobach, for Kansas Secretary of State. There may be others, but these I'll vouch for these. They will need all the support we can give them. Work for those you believe in and get them and yourself out to VOTE!!!*

This actually happened in May 2010. It just came to my attention... I found it the article from "THE BLAZE" on May 1, 2013 7:50 am.

Another Military Dismiss

Lt. Col Matthew Dooley, a West Point graduate and highly decorated combat veteran, was an instructor at the Joint Forces Staff College at the National Defense University. He had 19 years of service and experience, and was considered one of the most highly qualified military instructors on Radical Islam & Terrorism. He taught military students about the situations they would encounter, how to react, about Islamic culture, traditions, and explained the mindset of Islamic extremists. Passing down first hand knowledge and experience, and teaching courses that were suggested (and approved) by the Joint Forces Staff College.

The course, "Perspectives on Islam and Islamic Radicalism", which was suggested and approved by the Joint Forces Staff College, caught the attention of several Islamic Groups, and they wanted to make an example of him. They collectively wrote a letter expressing their outrage, and the Pro-Islamic Obama Administration was all too happy to assist.

The letter was passed to Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Martin Dempsey. Dempsey publicly degraded and reprimanded Dooley, and Dooley received a negative Officer Evaluation Report almost immediately (which he had aced for the past 5 years). He was relieved of teaching duties, and his career has been red-flagged "He had a brilliant career ahead of him. Now, he has been flagged."

Richard Thompson, Thomas More Law Center "All US military Combatant Commands, Services, the National Guard Bureau, and Joint Chiefs are under Dempsey's Muslim Brotherhood-dictated order to ensure that henceforth, no US military course will ever again teach truth about Islam that the jihadist enemy finds offensive, or just too informative."

Former CIA agent Claire M. Lopez (about Lt. Col. Dooley)..." The Obama Administration has demonstrated lightning speed to dismiss military brass that does not conform to it's agenda, and not surprisingly, nobody is speaking up for Lt. Col. Dooley.

Col. Dooley has now been added to the 9 generals the Obama administration has summarily dismissed for no other reason than they are great American military citizens."

IT'S A SAD DAY FOR THIS COUNTRY WHEN GOOD LOYAL MEN LIKE THIS GET THROWN UNDER THE BUS BECAUSE NOBODY HAS THE COURAGE TO STAND UP!

Share this. Let's bring some attention to this.

There is something very wrong when a man with personal combat experience assigned to be "a war college instructor" is fired from that position because he is teaching his fellow soldiers how to protect themselves from the enemy. Isn't that the objective of their training? To teach them how to protect themselves from those they are fighting against? To teach them to how to WIN the battles they must fight? And who objected to his instructions? The answer to that is "several Islamic Groups" objected to being included as the enemy. There is something very wrong when the enemy (YES, "several Islamic Groups" certainly can be the enemy) can tell the U.S. Army how our soldiers should be trained to best defend themselves against soldiers and citizens in Islamic countries. Can you see the problem with that picture. Is it because the President of the United States would rather kiss, whatever it is he kisses, in the Islamic world than teach our soldiers how to best protect themselves against those that bring battle to them. Do we need further proof that those governing our Country do NOT ALWAYS have the best interests of our fighting men as their guide for training? Now tell me how and why we need such people governing our Country and responsible for training our soldiers. How many hundreds/thousands of our fighting men have died because they are denied the training to truly defend themselves? This is an election year!! Those governing us NOW have had their opportunity to end these wars and make the USA a prosperous country again and instead we go further and further in debt as they continue to disable our country with unemployment, failed economy, and increasing Federal Government Control. Are we going to continue down that path or are we going to wake up and bring the USA back to peace, prosperity, independence, and most of all GOD?

ObamaCare - How to Avoid the Taxes & Penalties - PART 16

By: David J Powell, CLU, ChFC, CFP, RHU Candidate for Kansas Insurance Commissioner 2014

DANGER! CAUTION URGED!!

Remember the schoolyard cry when someone else was winning?

IT'S NOT FAIR!!

And now that has become the mantra of the Liberal, Socialist Democrats who seek to "Fundamentally Change" everything Americans have come to know over our 200+ years as a nation.

The sad reality is that so many go along because no one wants to be the one making waves. They have made inroads in so many areas. It is not fair for kids to play a game where one team wins and the other loses. So no one keeps score? What does that teach kids?

When they get into the real world they don't work to succeed, but expect everything to be given to them. Otherwise it is not fair!

Teachers being required to pass everyone regardless of their real grade because it is not fair for one child to pass while another fails! So the graduate who can't read, write or even think is equal to the person who should be touted as the scholar who could find the cure for cancer?

Earning a living was always looked up to until it became a dirty word to work, because it is not fair for anyone to live in a better house, wear nicer clothes or drive a nicer car than someone who could but doesn't?

WITH THE PASSAGE OF OBAMCARE, THIS ATTITUDE WILL KILL THE BEST HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE IN THE WORLD, "BECAUSE IT IS NOT FAIR!" IT IS TIME TO STOP GOING ALONG!! IT IS TIME TO STAND UP!! IT IS TIME TO SAY ENOUGH IS ENOUGH!!

ObamaCare - How to avoid the taxes/penalties - PART 17

TAKE ACTION NOW!

For anyone who is healthy and wanting to avoid falling under the new health care law requirements that are effective in a couple of weeks, NOW is the time to get new coverage.

We have several companies we are working with that will sell you a new policy that will carry you through to the end of 2014, using plans available in 2013!! You stay out of ObamaCare through 2014!

These plans DO NOT contain all the minimum essential coverage being required under ObamaCare.

For that reason, these plans DO NOT cost as much as the new plans being offered both inside and outside of the exchanges.

For that reason, these plans OFFER MORE FLEXIBILITY in plan design that the plans being offered both inside and outside of the exchanges.

I apologize. It is my fault, not David's, that this was not printed before January 1. I did NOT put out Newsletter's during most of December and until now in January. I had not read ahead and did not realize his material was date sensitive.

This is Milton Wolf. He is running against Sen. Pat Roberts for a Kansas Senatorial seat. This picture was taken when Milton was giving a talk on Tax Day, April 15, 2010. While most of us did not know him then, we need to realize that he was already a Conservative speaker. Trying to help people in Kansas and the USA. Milton grew up in Lyons, KS on a dairy farm. Today Milton is a Doctor. He is seeking a Senate seat because he realizes our Country and State needs the sincere help of true conservatives. Milton Wolf believes Kansans should govern Kansas including our schools,

I want to sincerely THANK all of you who have given to the producing of this newsletter. I have been to the bottom of the barrel several times and you always unfailing bail me out. Just when it seems we won't be able to get the newsletter out for lack of ink, stamps, paper or whatever GOD sends someone to "save the day". Without your help it would be impossible. Along with the financial help I have received articles, emails, or much needed moral support. Your verbal encouragement is also much appreciated. It seems just when I feel it is all hopeless, one of you give me a pep talk or tell me how the newsletter has helped you understand something to get me off and running again. All of us that are doing the footwork need your moral and financial support to keep going. Thank you all so much!!
