

The Patriots' Truth

Flint Hills Party News

Next meeting August 8 – 9:30am, Manhattan, City Library, have your concerns ready. The Working Group meetings at McAlister's, 5:30-10pm, Wed. evenings are come and go, at your convenience. Bring your concerns for discussion. Your concerns are important. In this publication what is in green is me, other colors are just for getting attention. Changes in font are for letting readers know it is a change of subject or person speaking. I would like to include your opinion/concerns. With the help of the LORD we will prevail!! Let us Pray!

First thing – I want to sincerely THANK those who have generously donated to help us continue sending this newsletter to those without computers. Our goal is for any and all that seek to read our newsletter are able to do so. Thank You!! Come visit with us at our August meeting!!.

Interesting slant on things...Came to me from a friend!!

AMERICA'S HUNTERS                      Pretty Amazing!

A blogger added up the deer license sales in just a handful of states and arrived at a striking conclusion: There were over 600,000 hunters this season in the state of Wisconsin... Allow me to restate that number: 600,000!

Over the last several months, Wisconsin 's hunters became the 8th largest army in the world. (That's more men under arms than in Iran. More than France and Germany combined.) These men, deployed to the woods of a single American state, Wisconsin, to hunt with firearms, And NO ONE WAS KILLED.

That number pales in comparison to the 750,000 who hunted the woods of Pennsylvania's and Michigan's 700,000 hunters,

Toss in a quarter million hunters in West Virginia, and it literally establishes the fact that the hunters of those four states alone would comprise the largest army in the world.

And then add in the total number of hunters in the other 46 states. It's millions more.

_____ AND THE POINT IS: _____

America will forever be safe from foreign invasion with that kind of home-grown firepower!

Hunting... it's not just a way to fill the freezer.

It's a matter of national security.

That's why all enemies, foreign and domestic, want to see us disarmed.

Food for thought, when next we consider gun control.

Overall it's true, so if we disregard some assumptions that hunters don't possess the same skills as soldiers, the question would still remain...

What army of 2 million would want to face 30 million, 40 million, or 50 million armed citizens???

For the sake of our freedom, don't ever allow gun control or confiscation of guns.

(If you agree, as I do, pass it on, I feel good that I have an army of millions who would protect our land, and I sure don't want the government taking control of the possession of firearms.)

AMERICA!

Designed by geniuses.

Now run by idiots!!

***Legalize common sense***

IN GOD WE TRUST

This has been my thinking since the 2008 election. All of these people have firearms and know how to use them accurately and successfully, but, most of them are of the mindset that don't understand the need to use them could come up. Citizens were the ones that built/formed this Country in 1776 and they may need to do so again in the near future. Those we will be opposing won't be any happier than we are with the end results when we have a "King" instead of a President. There may still be a Congress, but it will be "in name only".

Come to think of it, that is pretty much what they are now. What happened to all the Conservative laws to be passed IF WE ELECTED Conservatives last November? Those Conservative Senators became non-Conservative when they arrived in Washington, D.C. What happened to people being honest, keeping their word, doing what they promise? Many of those “Conservatives” that were elected last November either were not as “Conservative” as they told us or they let the “Speaker” of the Senate convince them NOT to be true to their constituents. What happened? Why won’t Senator McConnell let the Senate vote on the bill to throw out Obama Care? And the many other bills they would vote on IF the Senate was Republican? Would someone tell me how Senator McConnell is better than Senator Reed. The Senate still has NOT passed the many bills needed to begin setting our country straight. Congressman Tim Huelskamp, is Conservative and always true to his word. Congresswoman Lynn Jenkins writes great bills and stays steadfast to the Veterans, she usually is Conservative and writes bills to prove it. If we could just get her away from Speaker Boehner and come work with Representative Huelskamp life would brighten up. Don’t expect things to improve in Washington in the next year.

---

To Hell With Congress... I'm Taking My Iran Raw-Deal To The America-Haters Of The United Nations!

Those weren't Barack Obama's exact words but, in a nutshell, those are his sentiments. He's taken his Iran Raw-Deal – a deal that puts the world's foremost sponsor of global terrorism on an Obama-approved path to obtain nuclear weapons – to the America-haters at the United Nations.

Obama has once again decided to attempt to bypass Congress, as if the Constitution gave the U.N. the power to ratify treaties entered into by the United States. What will the cool, calm and deliberative men of the Republican leadership do about it?

One thing is certain, now that the America-haters at the United Nations have given this suicidal agreement the thumbs-up, Obama is going to dare collaborating Democrats and weak-kneed Republicans to vote it down. That's Obama's plan and it's a plan that we're going to thwart with the most powerful weapon at our disposal... massive grassroots pressure!

---

Congresswoman Jenkins Calls For Criminal Charges To Be Brought Against Planned Parenthood

WASHINGTON, D.C. – After a horrifying video of Planned Parenthood’s Senior Director of Medical Research Debra Nucatola was released yesterday, Congresswoman Lynn Jenkins (KS-02) sent a letter to Attorney General Loretta Lynch calling for an investigation into these actions and for criminal charges to be brought against Ms. Nucatola and Planned Parenthood for their violation of federal laws.

“The idea of making money from the sale of the tissue of an unborn baby is unconscionable,” said Congresswoman Jenkins. “Yet this horrific and heart wrenching practice was apparently treated as normal business in this appalling video. The practices discussed by a senior official from the central office of Planned Parenthood are clearly illegal and morally unjust. I sent a letter to Attorney General Lynch to immediately investigate these actions, and demand that criminal charges be brought against this sick violation of the law. It is now up to President Obama and HHS Secretary Burwell to stand up, denounce, and halt these disturbing practices. Life is too precious to be treated as a commodity.”

This morning I received an update from Congresswoman Jenkins office as follows:

Morning - After viewing the first video last Tuesday, Conference Vice Chair Lynn Jenkins (KS-02) immediately sent a letter to Attorney General Loretta Lynch calling for an investigation into Planned Parenthood, including Senior Director of Medical Research Debra Nucatola, the practices used at its affiliates, and the role the central office plays in allowing this practice to occur within the organization. Congresswoman Jenkins also called for criminal charges to be brought against Planned Parenthood and Ms. Nucatola.

Yesterday afternoon Attorney General Lynch answered that call and said the Department of Justice (DOJ) will “review all the information and determine what steps, if any, to take.” Congresswoman Jenkins issued the following statement after Attorney General Lynch announced DOJ will investigate Planned Parenthood:

“I am pleased to see Attorney General Lynch has heeded my call for an investigation into Planned Parenthood. As I said then, their clearly illegal, morally unjust actions must be investigated and all appropriate measures, including criminal action, must be taken against the responsible parties. I will not forget the unconscionable, horrifying words in these videos and I will continue to pressure the DOJ to do their job and prosecute this crime to ensure terrible actions like this never happen again."

Congresswoman Jenkins Calls For Criminal Charges To Be Brought Against Planned Parenthood

WASHINGTON, D.C. – After a horrifying video of Planned Parenthood’s Senior Director of Medical Research Debra Nucatola was released yesterday, Congresswoman Lynn Jenkins (KS-02) sent a letter to Attorney General Loretta Lynch calling for an investigation into these actions and for criminal charges to be brought against Ms. Nucatola and Planned Parenthood for their violation of federal laws.

“The idea of making money from the sale of the tissue of an unborn baby is unconscionable,” said Congresswoman Jenkins. “Yet this horrific and heart wrenching practice was apparently treated as normal business in this appalling video. The practices discussed by a senior official from the central office of Planned Parenthood are clearly illegal and morally unjust. I sent a letter to Attorney General Lynch to immediately investigate these actions, and demand that criminal charges be brought against this sick violation of the law. It is now up to President Obama and HHS Secretary Burwell to stand up, denounce, and halt these disturbing practices. Life is too precious to be treated as a commodity.”

The Planned Parenthood selling parts of the unborn babies they murder is one of the most horrible things I have ever heard of. The video on line shows a couple people visiting about how different body parts of those poor murdered babies are harvested

From the Washington Times

The PEOPLE’S SHERIFF

Sheriff David A. Clarke,

Jr.

Question: What do Barack Obama, anti-gun radical Michael Bloomberg, and big-city liberal politicians have in common?

Answer: They all wanted to defeat me in my last election for Milwaukee County Sheriff. And they are all furious that I refuse to stay in the boundaries of their liberal group-think.

I will never be afraid to take a hard stance against criminals, no matter what race or creed they happen to be. I’ll never make excuses for wrongdoing, and will always look for solutions to lift up rather than tear down the citizens we are obligated to serve and protect. And I’ll never back down from our precious Second Amendment rights, no matter how much money the anti-gun leftists spend to defeat me.

But I’m not in this fight just to be defiant. I’m in it to show the people who need our help a better way.

We need to start seeing each other as individuals who, empowered with all the rights our Constitution guarantees, can work together to make America great again.

We need to stop the media from viewing every American as part of a group that is either “in” and enjoys privilege, or “out” and requires compensation. We can’t fix Baltimore or Ferguson by telling everyone who lives there they are a victim. And Milwaukee won’t get past its slump by doling out welfare when better solutions are obvious.

I think my message is winning hearts and minds across the nation, and Barack Obama’s is losing. He was elected to bring “hope and change” to America, which has not worked out too well. I was elected to help change the culture that put Milwaukee on a wrong path, and have been re-elected four times!

If my message can work in the only major American city that has elected three Socialist mayors, it can work anywhere. We just need the courage to continue spreading our positive message without fear. I guarantee this: I will not be intimidated, and will not let our message be silenced.

I started the People’s Sheriff PAC to give a voice to other fearless Americans who refuse to toe the line of the leftist media and others who make excuses for wrongdoing. I started it to give a voice to anyone who is willing to stand up for hard truths, for justice, and for ideas that reflect rather than undermine our most important American values.

I started it for you, to help spread our crucial message. Let’s get to work For America,

Sheriff David Clarke

HELLO!!!

---

OBAMA PLEDGES TO USE LAST 18 MONTHS IN OFFICE PUSHING GUN CONTROL

From MinutemenNews.com July 25, 2015

President Obama on Thursday pledged to use his last 18 months in office to work on gun control, calling it “the one area where I feel that I’ve been most frustrated and most stymied.”

“If you ask me where has been the one area where I feel that I’ve been most frustrated and most stymied, it is the fact that the United States of America is the one advanced nation on earth in which we do not have sufficient, common-sense gun safety laws – even in the face of repeated mass killings,” he told the BBC in an interview.

“And if you look at the number of Americans killed since 9/11 by terrorism, it’s less than 100. If you look at the number that have been killed by gun violence, it’s in the tens of thousands,” Obama continued.

“For us not to be able to resolve that issue has been something that is distressing, but it is not something that I intend to stop working on in the remaining 18 months.”

In the U.S., at least 34 Americans have been killed in terror attacks since 9/11. Those attacks include the 2009 killing of 13 people at Fort Hood, Texas, the 2013 Boston Marathon bombing, and the Chattanooga, Tennessee shootings last week which cost the lives of four U.S. Marines and a sailor.

Abroad, another 363 U.S. citizens have been killed in terror attacks since 9/11, according to data accumulated from State Department country reports on terrorism – or in years where data is incomplete, from the department’s Bureau of Consular Affairs’ record of citizens killed due to “terrorist action.”

The annual breakdown of terrorist fatalities abroad is 24 in 2014, 16 in 2013, 10 in 2012, 17 in 2011, 15 in 2010, 9 in 2009, 33 in 2008, 19 in 2007, 28 in 2006, 56 in 2005, 74 in 2004, 35 in 2003 and 27 in 2002.

---

“The Baltimore Sun” is definitely not known as a conservative newspaper, and this very well-written assessment of the situation in the USA comes as something of a surprise. This will obviously be called racist and will upset liberals, but they should really think about the message and this interesting point of view. Do read it to the very end for his complete perspective.

THE BLACK DILEMMA

"For almost 150 years the United States has been conducting an interesting experiment. The subjects of the experiment: black people and working-class whites.

The hypothesis to be tested: Can a people taken from the jungles of Africa and forced into slavery be fully integrated as citizens in a majority white population?

The whites were descendants of Europeans who had created a majestic civilization. The former slaves had been tribal peoples with no written language and virtually no intellectual achievements. Acting on a policy that was not fair to either group, the government released newly freed black people into a white society that saw them as inferiors. America has struggled with racial discord ever since.

Decade after decade the problems persisted but the experimenters never gave up. They insisted that if they could find the right formula, the experiment would work, and concocted program after program to get the result they wanted. They created the Freedman’s Bureau, passed civil rights laws, tried to build the Great Society, declared War on Poverty, ordered race preferences, built housing projects, and tried midnight basketball.

Their new laws intruded into people’s lives in ways that would have been otherwise unthinkable. They called in National Guard troops to enforce school integration. They outlawed freedom of association. Over the protests of parents, they put white children on buses and sent them to black schools and vice-versa. They tried with money, special programs, relaxed standards, and endless hand wringing to close the achievement gap. To keep white backlash in check they began punishing public and even private statements on race. They hung up Orwellian public banners that commanded whites to Celebrate Diversity! and Say No to Racism. Nothing was off limits if it might salvage the experiment.

Some thought that what W.E.B. DuBois called the Talented Tenth would lead the way for black people. A group of elite, educated blacks would knock down doors of opportunity and show the world what blacks were capable of. There is a Talented Tenth. They are the black Americans who have become entrepreneurs, lawyers, doctors and scientists. But ten percent is not enough. For the experiment to work, the ten percent has to be followed by a critical mass of people who can hold middle-class jobs and promote social stability. That is what is missing.

Through the years, too many black people continue to show an inability or unwillingness to function and prosper in a culture unsuited to them. Detroit is bankrupt, the south side of Chicago is a war zone, and the vast majority of black cities all over America are beset by degeneracy and violence. And blacks never take responsibility for their failures. Instead, they lash out in anger and resentment.

Across the generations and across the country, as we have seen in Detroit, Watts, Newark, Los Angeles, Cincinnati, and now Ferguson, rioting and looting are just one racial incident away. The white elite would tell us that this doesn't mean the experiment has failed. We just have to try harder. We need more money, more time, more understanding, more programs, and more opportunities.

But nothing changes no matter how much money is spent, no matter how many laws are passed, no matter how many black geniuses are portrayed on TV, and no matter who is president. Some argue it's a problem of culture, as if culture creates people's behavior instead of the other way around. Others blame white privilege.

But since 1965, when the elites opened Americas doors to the Third World, immigrants from Asia and India, people who are not white, not rich, and not connected have quietly succeeded. While the children of these people are winning spelling bees and getting top scores on the SAT, black youths are committing half the country's violent crime, which includes viciously punching random white people on the street for the thrill of it that has nothing to do with poverty.

The experiment has failed. Not because of white culture, or white privilege, or white racism. The fundamental problem is that American black culture has evolved into an un-fixable and crime ridden mess. They do not want to change their culture or society, and expect others to tolerate their violence and amoral behavior. They have become socially incompatible with other races by their own design, not because of the racism of others - but by their own hatred of non-blacks.

Our leaders don't seem to understand just how tired their white subjects are with this experiment. They don't understand that white people aren't out to get black people; they are just exhausted with them. They are exhausted by the social pathologies, the violence, the endless complaints, and the blind racial solidarity, the bottomless pit of grievances, the excuses, and the reflexive animosity. The elites explain everything with racism, and refuse to believe that white frustration could soon reach the boiling point.

You can't legislate the poor into freedom by legislating the wealthy out of freedom. What one person receives without working for, another person must work for without receiving. The government can't give to anybody anything that the government doesn't first take from somebody else. When half of the people get the idea that they don't have to work because the other half is going to take care of them, and when the other half gets the idea that it does no good to work because somebody else is going to get what they work for, that my friend, is about the end of any nation. You cannot multiply wealth by dividing it.

Ian Duncan

The Baltimore Sun , May 30, 2015

---

From the office of:

Mike Pompeo, U.S. Congressman

Greetings,

This week, National Review declared that my discovery of the secret side deals that are at the very center of the Iranian nuclear deal was the story of the week and a Washington Post columnist named Me and Sen. Cotton distinguished pols of the week. Whether Congress is able to stop this dangerous deal with the world's largest state sponsor of terror will actually be the story of our generation. Since Sen. Cotton and I brought this news to Congress's attention, the White House and State Department have come forward with many excuses as to why Congress wasn't informed of their existence. But their effort to "set the record straight" will never offer a good explanation as to why Ayatollah Khamenei knows what is in the secret side deals, but President Obama and Congress do not.

National Security Advisor Susan Rice said that the Iranian secret side deals don't matter. Though she also has said that Bowe Bergdahl's service was honorable and the four Americans in Benghazi were killed because of a video. Secretary Kerry has said that the Iran deal is based not on trust, but on verification. But how can we verify a deal we can't see?

I had the chance to ask Sec. Kerry about the two secret side deals. He admitted he hasn't read the side deals, has no copy of them and yet he approved the Iran deal without knowing its details. In this meeting, Sec. Kerry offered to brief Congress on the complete contents of the two secret side agreements to the Iran nuclear deal. Sen. Cotton and I have since written a letter to Sec. Kerry, taking him up on this offer.

Sen. Cotton, House Speaker John Boehner, and Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell, and I sent a letter to President Obama requesting the two secret side agreements between the IAEA and Iran be provided to Congress. The details in these side agreements are not minor technical issues. They get to the heart of whether the deal can be verified. The first of the secret side deals is about inspections at the notorious nuclear test site – Parchin, Iran. The second of the side deals details the requirements for Iran to come clean on its past military activities related to nuclear weaponry. Every expert knows you cannot conduct useful inspections without knowing the history of Iran's actions. These agreements were among the last to be negotiated. They form one of the centerpieces of the deal.

Without access to these secret side deals, it is incomprehensible to me how a member of Congress could, in good faith say, "I understand the terms of this deal, I voted to approve it because I'm convinced that we now have a verification regime that will keep the Iranians from developing a nuclear program."

This is not partisan. The deal must rise or fall on its merits. I truly believe the vote on the Iran deal will be one of the single most important votes I will take as your Congressman.

The choice is not this deal or war. The choice is: do we grant the Ayatollahs relief from sanctions that threaten their grip on power or do we demand a deal that truly strips Iran of its capacity to build a nuclear weapon. That deal was achievable. It would have required leadership. We need Congress now to lead and I am optimistic that the American people, as they learn more about this deal, will demand that we do.

Sincerely,

Mike Pompeo

Member of Congress

---

A German's View on Islam – well worth reading.

This is one of the best explanations of the Muslim terrorist situation I have ever read. His references to past history are accurate and clear. Not long, easy to understand, and well worth the read. The author of this email is Dr. Emanuel Tanya, a well-known and well-respected psychiatrist. A man, whose family was German aristocracy prior to World War II, owned a number of large industries and estates. When asked how many German people were true Nazis, the answer he gave can guide our attitude toward fanaticism.

'Very few people were true Nazis,' he said, 'but many enjoyed the return of German pride, and many more were too busy to care. I was one of those who just thought the Nazis were a bunch of fools. So, the majority just sat back and let it all happen. Then, before we knew it, they owned us, and we had lost control, and the end of the world had come.'

'My family lost everything. I ended up in a concentration camp and the Allies destroyed my factories.'

'We are told again and again by 'experts' and 'talking heads' that Islam is a religion of peace and that the vast majority of Muslims just want to live in peace. Although this unqualified assertion may be true, it is entirely irrelevant. It is meaningless fluff meant to make us feel better, and meant to somehow diminish the specter of fanatics rampaging across the globe in the name of Islam.'

'The fact is that the fanatics rule Islam at this moment in history. It is the fanatics who march. It is the fanatics who wage any one of 50 shooting wars worldwide. It is the fanatics who systematically slaughter Christian or tribal groups throughout Africa and are gradually taking over the entire continent in an Islamic wave. It is the fanatics who bomb, behead, murder, or honor-kill. It is the fanatics who take over mosque after mosque. It is the fanatics who zealously spread the stoning and hanging of rape victims and homosexuals. It is the fanatics who teach their young to kill and to become suicide bombers.'

'The hard, quantifiable fact is that the peaceful majority, the 'silent majority,' is cowed and extraneous. Communist Russia was comprised of Russians who just wanted to live in peace, yet the Russian Communists were responsible for the murder of about 20 million people. The peaceful majority were irrelevant. China 's huge population was peaceful as well, but Chinese Communists managed to kill a staggering 70 million people.'

'The average Japanese individual prior to World War II was not a warmongering sadist. Yet, Japan murdered and slaughtered its way across South East Asia in an orgy of killing that included the systematic murder of 12 million Chinese civilians; most killed by sword, shovel, and bayonet. And who can forget Rwanda, which collapsed into butchery? Could it not be said that the majority of Rwandans were 'peace loving'?

'History lessons are often incredibly simple and blunt, yet for all our powers of reason, We often miss the most basic and uncomplicated of points: peace-loving Muslims Have been made irrelevant by their silence. Peace-loving Muslims will become our Enemy if they don't speak up, because like my friend from Germany, they will awaken one day and find that the fanatics own them, and the end of their world Will have begun.'

'Peace-loving Germans, Japanese, Chinese, Russians, Rwandans, Serbs, Afghans, Iraqis, Palestinians, Somalis, Nigerians, Algerians, and many others have died because the peaceful majority did not speak up until it was too late.'

'Now Islamic prayers have been introduced in Toronto and other public schools in Ontario, and, yes, in Ottawa, too, while the Lord's Prayer was removed (due to being so offensive?). The Islamic way may be peaceful for the time being in our country until the fanatics move in. In Australia, and indeed in many countries around the world, many of the most commonly consumed food items have the halal emblem on them. Just look at the back of some of the most popular chocolate bars, and at other food items in your local supermarket. Food on aircraft have the halal emblem just to appease the privileged minority who are now rapidly expanding within the nation's shores.'

'In the U.K, the Muslim communities refuse to integrate and there are now dozens of "no-go" zones within major cities across the country that the police force dare not intrude upon. Sharia law prevails there, because the Muslim community in those areas refuse to acknowledge British law.'

'As for us who watch it all unfold, we must pay attention to the only group that counts - the fanatics who threaten our way of life.'

Lastly, anyone who doubts that the issue is serious and just deletes this email without sending it on, is contributing to the passiveness that allows the problems to expand.

Extend yourself a bit and send this on. Let us hope that thousands world-wide read this, think about it, and send it on before it's too late, and we are silenced because we were silent!!

July 28, 2015

Dear Friend,

This weekend one of my Republican opponents demanded I show some "respect" for President Obama, the Supreme Court and Democrats in general. To hear them talk, neither of them would ever vocally criticize a decision or policy that comes out of Washington.

Here is where I stand, and I am not afraid to say it at home in Kansas or in Washington:

I do not respect VA bureaucrats who cook the books in order to treat our veterans like second-class citizens.

I do not respect the EPA as it regulates farm ponds or drive up electricity prices on the poor.

I do not respect the Obama administration's targeting of conservatives via the IRS.

I do not respect Nancy Pelosi's insistence that Planned Parenthood is an organization worthy of our tax dollars.

I do not respect the way ObamaCare has been forced upon the American people by the Obama-Pelosi-Reid Democrats or the Supreme Court.

I do not respect the decisions by politicians of both parties that continue to mortgage our children's future by running up $18.5 trillion of debt.

I do not respect the decision of five unelected Washington lawyers to overturn the will of 417,627 Kansans when it comes to defining marriage.

And if my opponents think that Democrats in Washington or Liberals on the Supreme Court or their allies in the Media are going to do the right thing if they do not criticize these decisions, then I have a word for them: N-A-I-V-E.

It is naive to believe we can repeal ObamaCare if we do not point out its failings. It is naive to think Obama's bureaucrats will stop punishing rural America if we do not hold them accountable. It is naive to think politicians will stop spending money we don't have out of the goodness of their hearts

The hard truth is that it is naive to believe Liberals will stop trying to destroy America simply because we are 'nicer' to them. Liberals have an agenda, and they are more than happy to run right over people holding up the white flag of surrender.

If you agree with me that we need people of principle who stand in vocal opposition to Liberals in Washington, then please consider making a contribution to my campaign right now.

I will continue to call out President Obama, the Supreme Court and Democrats when they do things that are detrimental to our nation's future. These issues are too urgent for us to excuse or ignore. Our nation is dependent upon people of strong principles who will stand up and say "no" when Washington is heading down the wrong path.

Liberty needs no apology,

Congressman Tim Huelskamp

P.S. I simply cannot respect the anti-conservative policies President Obama and Nancy Pelosi want to implement in America like my opponents do. And I am not naive enough to think being 'nicer' to Liberals will make them change their minds. Please make a contribution of $250, $100, $50, $25 or even $10 now to stand with me for our conservative values today.

If you would like to mail a check, please make payable and mail to: □ Kansans for Huelskamp, PO Box 410 Fowler, KS 67844.

I have the highest of respect for Tim Huelskamp, our Kansas Congressman of District 1, for the work he has been doing since his election and for his honesty and bravery in stating how he feels in the above letter. I agree with him wholeheartedly!!! This letter could cause problems for our brave Congressman – we MUST support our Congressman in every way possible. The constituents of the First Congressional District MUST support Tim Huelskamp not only financially, but verbally, at each and every opportunity. Write letters to our other Kansas Congressional Representatives encouraging them to support OUR brave Representative. Talk to everyone we can, at every opportunity presented to us, to support him (verbally & financially) all we can. Rep. Huelskamp is putting his self, his position, his livelihood, his very way of living, his fight for his beloved Country on the line. We, his constituents, must have his back. If we can't support Congressman Huelskamp as he puts his all on the line for us and our United State of America we are NOT fit to bring our USA as she once was back to ourselves, Tim Huelskamp and all America and all Americans.

---