First Quarter Reports in Kansas---Fiscal Year 2013

September Revenue Returns

September marked the third month of the 2013 Fiscal Year. Total receipts for July through September, the first quarter of FY 2013, were $41.2 million (2.9 percent) above expectations. Tax sources exceeding estimates by more than $1 million through September include: corporate income taxes ($36 million, 55.4 percent); retail sales taxes ($3.3 million, 0.6 percent); financial institution taxes ($2.8 million, 66.6 million); and motor carrier taxes ($2 million, 94.1 percent). Tax sources which failed to meet projections by more than $1 million include: severance taxes ($12.2 million, 56.5 percent); corporate franchise taxes ($10.4 million); individual income taxes ($4.9 million, 0.7 percent); and compensating use taxes ($1.5 million, 1.8 percent).

Total SGF receipts through September for FY 2013 are $35.9 million (2.5 percent) above FY 2012 for the same period. Tax only receipts for FY 2013 are $70.4 million (4.9percent) above collections for the same period in FY 2012.

September marks the end of the first quarter of the 2013 fiscal year. September receipts include the first estimated payment of individual income taxes for FY 2013. As such, September receipt balances are an indicator of the state's economic activity, rather than just one month receipts. Individual income withholding through September was $37 million (5.5 percent) more than the same period in the previous fiscal year. When looking at just September retail sales tax receipts for FY 2012 compared to FY 2011 receipts, the state experienced growth of 3.4 percent.

Education Funding Refresher

Kansas is a very diverse state, representing a variety of interests on any given subject. One of the most prevalent areas of discontent among lawmakers is education finance. With the 2013 session rapidly approaching, education funding has once again become a primary point of dialogue between members and their constituents. Unfortunately, information widely distributed by outside parties has been inaccurate and served to add additional confusion and frustration to education finance discussions.

In an effort to bridge the gap, Chairman Rhoades has provided refresher information on the action taken by the Legislature on education funding during the 2012 session. Below you will find the facts and figures on the state budget and education funding:

- During the 2008-2009 school year, under the Sebelius administration, the BSAPP was $4,400;
- During the 2009-2010 school year, under the Parkinson administration, the BSAPP was lowered to $4,012, representing a $388 cut per pupil from the previous year;

- The largest single cut to Base State Aid Per Pupil (BSAPP) was $157 per pupil during the Parkinson administration. Multiple cuts were made in the same year resulting in a final BSAPP cut of $388 per pupil;
- During FY 2010 and FY 2011, under the Parkinson administration, the BSAPP went from $4,012 per student to $3,937 per student – representing a three year BSAPP drop of $463 per student;
- The FY 2012 budget dropped the BSAPP from $3,937 to $3,780, under the Brownback administration, to balance the budget without raising taxes on Kansans for the second year in a row (budget for FY 2011 relied on sales tax increase);
- For the current fiscal year, FY 2013, the Legislature added $40 million to the BSAPP. School districts will receive an additional $60 per student as a result.

There is no question Kansas public education is among the highest priorities of the Legislature. Our schools offer a wide range of programs, taught by some of the best educators in the nation and we realize the importance of ensuring this proud tradition continues. Over the past two sessions, the Kansas House has remained focused on keeping education a priority by striking a delicate balance between conservative, pro-growth economic policies while ensuring Kansas schools continue to thrive.

Tax Policy Summary

Over the past two sessions, the primary focus of the Kansas House of Representatives has been creating jobs and strengthening the state's economy. One of the best ways we could encourage job and economic growth was through passing broad scale tax policies aimed at reducing the tax burden on Kansas taxpayers. Increased revenues and a return to responsible budgeting practices resulted in a significant balance in the state bank account, providing us with the opportunity to give Kansans back some of their hard earned money.

To refresh your memory on the tax legislation passed and signed into law, a series of bullet points have been provided below. In addition, the presentation presented by Governor Brownback on the tax plan at a University of Kansas lecture is attached to also help you with your district communications.

- Under the new tax policy, every hardworking Kansan who gets a paycheck will see an increase in their take home pay in January;
- Because of the doubling of the “Head of Household” standard deduction (from $4,500 to $9,000), 20,000 single parents will pay no state income tax;
- 98% of Kansas businesses employ 100 employees or less. Eliminating the state income tax on small business owners will leave them more to invest in their workers, machinery and communities;
- Nearly 96% of small business owners in Kansas make less than $200,000. Breakdown of 191,000 small business owners:
  - About 53% of small business owners report less than $50,000 federal adjusted gross income;
  - 70% report less than $75,000 in federal adjusted gross income;
  - 82% report less than $100,000 in federal adjusted gross income;
  - 95.5% report less than $200,000 in federal adjusted gross income; and
  - 4.5% report more than $200,000 in federal adjusted gross income;

Individual tax savings scenarios

- The median Kansas tax return uses the standard deduction, has annual income of $65,430, and is filed married jointly with one child. This family will see a state income tax reduction of $572.43 per year, plus savings from the 6/10 of a cent sales tax sunset already in-statute.
- A typical head of household tax filer with annual income of $20,000 and one child will see a state income tax reduction of $43.75 per year, plus savings from the 6/10 of a cent sales tax sunset already in-statute.
- A typical single tax filer with annual income of $17,600 and no child will see a state income tax reduction of $27 per year, plus savings from the 6/10 of a cent sales tax sunset already in-statute.
- 10 Percent Budget Cut Proposal
  - The Governor had said he will protect funding for the state's core services including K-12 education, Medicaid and public safety. However, there are things agencies can do to reduce costs and streamline their offices without impacting services. The administration has asked state agencies to prepare contingency budget plans should something happen to the country and world economies beyond our control;
  - As in previous years, agencies are submitting 3 budgets: current spending; enhancements and spending reductions. The administration is preparing for all scenarios. Sequestration is a real possibility. Those automatic federal spending cuts will impact Kansas. Federal economy continues to struggle. Europe economy continues to hang by a very thin thread. If it falls off the cliff, Kansas will feel the impact.
- Total state funding for schools in FY2013 is at the second highest level in state history.

State Supreme Court Upholds Damages Cap

On Friday, October 5, after a three year wait, the Kansas Supreme Court affirmed the constitutionality of Kansas' $250,000 cap on non-economic damages in medical malpractice cases. With a 5-2 ruling, the majority of the court issued the decision on a Douglas County case brought by a patient against her former doctor who removed the wrong ovary during surgery in 2002.

A trial court found the doctor a fault and originally awarded the patient $759,679 in damages, including $575,000 for current and noneconomic losses and $100,000 for future expected medical expenses. During the appeal, a trial judge reduced the judgment to $334,679 citing state law that caps noneconomic damages and further prevented funds for future medical bills. In its decision the Supreme Court reinstated the $100,000 for future medical expenses but ruled the $250,000 cap on non-economic damages should stand.

The cap was passed by the Kansas Legislature in 1988 to decrease large jury awards and reduce medical malpractice insurance costs for doctors.

Ballot Question on Watercraft Taxes

When Kansas voters go to the polls on November 6, they will have the opportunity to vote on a constitutional amendment allowing the Legislature to change the way watercraft is taxed in Kansas. Currently, watercraft is taxed as personal property. The amendment would allow lawmakers to re-classify and tax watercraft after January 2013. It would not directly change how watercraft is taxed but grants permission to the Legislature to make changes to how watercraft is taxed, should it decide to do so.

A vote for the amendment would allow the Legislature to separately classify and tax watercraft or to exempt watercraft from property taxes and impose another form of tax. A vote against the amendment would not change the way watercraft is taxed and would require watercraft to continue to be taxed as personal property.

The amendment is required because the Kansas Constitution determines the watercraft tax rate and lawmakers need permission from the electorate to consider classification and tax rate changes. Watercraft property taxes vary by county and the value of the watercraft. Watercraft registered in Kansas are currently taxed at a rate of 30 percent of the watercraft's value multiplied by the county mill levy causing the average watercraft tax rate to be higher than many other states. This has resulted in an estimated 10,000 Kansans unlawfully registering their vessels in neighboring states and an untold amount of revenue to be lost to the state and Kansas counties.

Medical Expense Fund For Noelle Holmes

In late September, Noelle Holmes, the 18 year-old daughter of Representative Mitch Holmes sustained serious injuries in an automobile accident. Noelle was recently transferred from Wesley Medical Center in Wichita to Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital in Lincoln, Nebraska for continued treatment.

For members wanting to assist the Holmes family with medical expenses, Representative De Graaf has set up an account with Shepherd Staff Ministries (P.O. Box 321 – Mulvane, Kansas 67110). Please be sure to include a note the contribution is for the Holmes family. In addition, the Kansas Ethics Commission has verified retiring legislators and Senators who still have open House campaign accounts can donate to the fund from their campaign accounts. However, active legislators who plan on returning to the Legislature cannot use campaign funds to donate to 501(c)3 non-profits, including Shepherd Staff Ministries. Current law only allows open, active campaign donations to 501(c)4 organizations.

Please keep Noelle and the Holmes family in your thoughts and prayers as Noelle continues down the road to recovery.

Brownback Recognized for Growth Policies

A recent, new report by the CATO institute called, "Fiscal Policy Report Card on America's Governors" recognized Kansas Governor Sam Brownback for his efforts in decreasing taxes and cutting spending. Brownback was recognized for signing legislation cutting the top individual tax rate in Kansas from 6.45 percent to 4.9 percent, increasing standard deductions and cutting taxes on small business incomes. CATO recognized the move as the largest tax cut of any state in recent years relative to the size of its economy.

Four governors receiving an "A" grade in CATO report include: Brownback, Florida Governor Rick Scott, Maine Governor Paul LePage and Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett. The same report gave "F" grades to the following Governors: Pat Quinn of Illinois, Dan Malloy of Connecticut, Mark Dayton of Minnesota, Neil Abercrombie of Hawaii and Chris Gregoire of Washington. Additional governors receiving recognition from the CATO report include Nikki Haley of South Carolina, Terry Branstad of Iowa, Mary Fallin of Oklahoma and John Kasich of Ohio, who are pursuing business or personal income tax-rate cuts.

The full "Fiscal Policy Report Card on America's Governors" can be found at www.CATO.org.

IT'S TIME TO TAKE OUR COUNTRY BACK!

By Danny Gonzalez of Move America Forward.org on Oct. 31, 2012

Months ago, national security was completely off the radar, the race was 100% about jobs and the economy. But as often happens, we forget about how important national security is until another tragedy puts it right front and center again.

For Obama, it is a huge failure that ought to cost him the election! He isn't fit to command our troops or keep our country safe! Playing politics with our national security is wrong and dangerous to American security and the lives of our people overseas. It's time we put a stop to it and Fire Obama this November 6th!

With the events of the last month in Egypt, Libya and continuing in Syria and Iran we could no longer sit idly by while our military and national security is eroded by President Obama. We can't sit on the sidelines while this administration apologizes to our enemies for our freedom of speech, refuses to stand with our ally Israel, and continues to "lead from behind."

On November 6, the day before my 94th birthday, our nation will hold one of the most critical elections in my lifetime. We are at a crossroads and there are profound moral issues at stake. I strongly urge you to vote for candidates who support the biblical definition of marriage between a man and woman, protect the sanctity of life, and defend our religious freedoms. The Bible speaks clearly on these crucial issues. Please join me in praying for America, that we will turn our hearts back toward God.

*You wouldn't force an atheist to buy you a bible.
You wouldn't force a vegetarian to buy you a hamburger.
Why then would you force a Catholic to buy your birth control, abortion or sterilization?*

I May be rushing the season, but this was too good to miss!!

T'was the night before elections,
And all thru' the town,
Tempers were flaring
Emotions ran up and down.
I, in my bathrobe
With a cat in my lap,
Had shut off the TV,
Tired of political crap.
When all of a sudden,
There arose such a noise,
I peered out my window,
Saw Obama and his boys
They had come for my wallet,
They wanted my pay
To hand out to others
Who had not worked a day!
He snatched up my money,
And quick as a wink,
Jumped back on his bandwagon
As I gagged from the stink.
He then rallied his henchmen
Who were pulling his cart.
I could tell they were out
To tear my country apart!
'On Fannie, on Freddie,
On Biden and Ayers!
On Acorn, on Pelosi'
He screamed at the pairs!
They took off for his cause,
And as they flew out of sight,
I heard him laugh at a nation
Who wouldn't stand up and fight!
So I leave you to think on this one final note...
IF YOU DON'T WANT SOCIALISM GET OUT AND VOTE!!!

GOD BLESS AMERICA, OUR ONLY HOPE...

WAVE OUR FLAG HIGH!!!

A Democrat's Response to the film Obama's America 2016

COMMENTS ON THE FILM Obama's America 2016

By Bob Correal

I had the displeasure of seeing 2016 the movie yesterday. But not in the way you may think. You would think that as a former Obama fan, it would have been a right-wing propaganda filled experience. A waste of my time. It wasn't! It is not about taking over the auto industry or banks or any number of things that the Obama administration has already done. Some of that may have been needed to fix the mess...

What the movie does do is lead you through Obama's upbringing, his early, impressionistic learning years if you will, how his beliefs were formed, by whom and when. I was quite honestly amazed at the many things I learned -- right from the horse's mouth, so to speak -- from his brother, and others who knew him and that the movie interviews and shows-you hear it from them. The movie was very well done and very factual. It was scarier than any Friday the 13th movie I have ever seen.

There was not a sound in the theater as the movie progressed and when it ended, people just sat there, stunned. There was not a nay-sayer or heckler in the entire group. I might have been one if them had I not been so shaken. It really is a revealing look of who Obama is and where he and his handlers want to take our beloved country, now that the waters have been tested as to what he can get away with. What it reveals in his plans for the next 4 years and beyond is, well, reprehensible. I voted for this man, I had his best wishes in my heart, but he has not returned the favor to the American people. In fact, he seems completely unaware of owing Americans anything, blacks, whites, Hispanics -- they are merely a means to an end: a vote to further his agenda would end our America, the way we have known it.

No matter your political leanings, if you love America, you owe it to yourself to see the movie. Why not? This election is not politics as usual, and Obama is not the typical Democrat you may have always voted for -- not by any means! Once you see it, you will understand and you will want to do, as I am doing now: encourage everyone to go and see it... I promise you, you will no longer want to vote for this man, you will want to run from him!

Now I understand why his school records have been hidden away, why his past and papers have been locked away from view... why only what they want us to see, have we seen... Obama is NOT what or who you think he is. Charming, yes, black, yes -- but without any black American history or empathy in his blood, smart -- not as smart as you think... but he has found his pulpit and his blind followers -- but I am no longer one of them.

The Agenda: Make CERTAIN Obama does not get a second term which equals: 4 more years to ignore Congress and ignore what the American people want, 4 more years to circumvent our Constitution and bring America morally, spiritually and economically to its knees. He's already proven he can and will and HAS begun this process already!

Even if you do not want to vote for Romney, you WILL want to vote AGAINST Barack Obama! I am going to make a statement here; you all know I am neither a scholar nor a historian, but: At some point in our history books in the future, the legacy of Barack Hussein Obama will show him in the same dark light as Marx, Lenin and Stalin -- who have furthered the misery, suppression and control over their people and sought to spread their oppressive philosophy and dominance throughout the world... IF AMERICA HAD NOT STOPPED THEM! Think about that.

Be careful who you vote for, be very careful. Put your love of America first -- it's all we have.

THANKS FOR LISTENING.

ANOTHER DOCTOR QUITTING BECAUSE OF OBAMACARE

Posted on October 27, 2012 by Glacomo

Facebook is a great way to keep up with old friends and family. Since moving from our home state sixteen years ago, Facebook has been invaluable to us.

One of our friends back home are Bob (Swede) and Doris. Bob sang at our wedding many years ago. They had a son, Donny and daughter, Donna. My wife and I continue to follow them through Facebook like so many of our other friends back home.

On Wednesday, Donna posted the following message on her Facebook page: "Yesterday, I asked my beloved kids' Pediatrician (30 years in practice) what he will do if ObamaCare stays -- he said 'very simply, not afford to practice medicine anymore', 'currently we receive 75 cents on every dollar. If that doesn't get overturned, we'll receive 18 cents on every dollar. People have no idea how vastly our lives will fall to pieces, based on that simple reality alone, if it stays.'"

Donna's pediatrician is not alone. I can't tell you how many other reports similar to this I've seen this year. Obamacare will be slashing the insurance and Medicaid payments made to doctors. One poll indicated that as many as 8 of 10 doctors in private practice were considering leaving the medical field if Obamacare were left in place, mostly because they could no longer afford to keep up their practice.

Yet Obama, Harry Reid and Nancy Pelosi keep telling us that we will have greater access to medical care and treatment under Obamacare than we had before. I don't see how that is possible if nearly 80% of private doctors leave medicine.

Then you also have to consider that a large number of doctors and hospitals will continue to practice after Obamacare takes full effect, will either stop or greatly reduce taking Medicare and Medicaid patients because of Obamacare. When Obama announced the $714 billion cut from Medicare, he didn't tell the public that a large part of that is the result of slashing what the government will reimburse doctors and hospitals for Medicare patient care. Although the qualifications for people to enroll in Medicare and Medicaid are being expanded, the amount of medical facilities accepting them will be drastically dwindling.

Now ask yourself how doctors and hospitals are going to make up the difference between their costs and what they receive back from Medicare, Medicaid or government controlled insurance plans? That's right! When you walk in that doctor's office, instead of having a $58 basic office visit or a $25 co-pay, you'll be looking at $150+ for basic office visit and co-pays may well reach over $100 per visit. How many office visits will you be making at these prices?

Obamacare is on the verge of causing a medical industry collapse that will leave millions of Americans without any medical coverage except that which Washington prescribes. Are you ready for that?

If we could just talk all Doctors and Medical treatment clinics to do as my recent Surgeon did, we wouldn't have to worry about losing Doctors, Nurses, and treatment centers. He charged me a flat fee, didn't send it to any insurance company and that was that. Way back when, that was the way it was done. If you wanted to send it to your insurance company you did it yourself. The doctors got their money and it was up to you if you used your insurance. Well, that was a long time ago. Sometimes the "good ole days" really were the Good Old Days.

WILL VOTER FRAUD WIN OBAMA A SECOND TERM??

Ask yourself why the Democratic Party has put so much effort into defeating voter fraud measures?

They are against voter ID laws. U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder, one of the nation's most notorious lawbreakers, claims that voter ID discriminates against black poor people. He fails to comprehend that these same poor people who supposedly can't get a voter ID are capable of getting IDs that allow them to collect all of the government handouts they receive.

The Democrats are against efforts to clean up voter registrations rolls. They actively tried to block Florida from removing dead people and non-citizens off the rolls for a couple months, before the state was finally allowed to clean up their registration rolls.

The Democrats in Ohio, an important swing state tried to push through a bill that would eliminate the need for a permanent address in order to vote. This would have allowed people to vote in multiple locations.

If you ask Democratic leaders, they will tell you that voter fraud doesn't exist and is not an issue. They conveniently forget about the voter fraud that took place in several states during the primary elections this year. Dead people and non-citizens voted in several states. Pets have received voter registration cards in the mail.

Now we hear about people voting in more than one state because their names were not removed from the state they previously lived in. Worse yet, states like Minnesota have a voucher voting where someone can vote purely on the testimony of someone who is on the voter registration roll.

As the election is now less than two weeks away and Mitt Romney seems to have more momentum at the moment than Barack Obama, Democrats are starting to run scared that their hero might lose the election. It would not surprise me to see thousands, perhaps millions of fraudulent votes cast for Obama to help insure his re-election. Not only is this election being touted as the most important one in U.S. history, but it may also be the most corrupt and fraudulent election in U.S. history.

FINALLY SOMEONE IS TALKING ABOUT OBAMA'S IMPERIAL PRESIDENCY

Posted on October 25, 2012 by Da Tagliare

Many conservative writers like myself, have been commenting on Obama's continual abuse of power by using executive orders to illegally bypass Congress. He acts as if he is above the law like an imperial monarch. In fact, I predict if he wins re-election in two weeks that he will become an imperial dictator and free America will be no more.

Virtually none of the mainstream media have reported on this, but that's expected since they're in bed with the Obama and his liberal entourage to begin with. What is so frustrating is that many conservatives have ignored or refused to say anything about Obama's imperial ways, but that just may be changing.

Rep. Eric Cantor (R-VA) House Majority Leader has just released a scathing 8000-page report detailing Obama's establishment of an imperial presidency. In his release, Cantor says that the economy and individual prosperity is being hindered by the Obama administration's overt lack of respect for the law. Part of Cantor's statement reads: "Property rights and rule of law are essential for the proper and efficient functioning of society and the economy."

"When 'laws' are created without going through Congress; when laws are selectively executed; when an administration intervenes into the normal judicial process and diminishes an individual's property rights; and when the normal regulatory process is circumvented, the rule of law is eroded."

"While administrations of both political parties have been known to test the bounds of the limits of their power, the breadth of the breakdown in the rule of law in recent years has reached new levels."

The report cites over forty instances where the Obama White House has demonstrated its lack of respect for the law. Some of the items on the list include:

- Ignoring Advice & Consent
- Creating laws outside of the Congressional process
- Ignoring the Plain Letter of the Law
- Failing to Faithfully Execute the Law
- Circumventing the Normal Regulatory Process
- Government By Waiver
- Creating New Programs Not Authorized by Congress

Cantor concludes by writing: "There is no excuse for this continuous disregard of legislative authority and the Constitutionally-required separation of powers."

"This is no way to govern. The President has set a precedent that even his supporters should find troubling... The Founding Fathers wisely gave the President many powers, but making law was not one of them."

Stand up and cheer for Eric Cantor, but what is anyone going to do about it? They've allowed Obama to get away with all of this since he first took office. The Justice Department won't do anything about it because they have been Obama's accomplices from the very beginning. Congress won't do anything with the election this close. Even if the House were to impeach Obama, the Democratic controlled Senate would not act upon it.

Our hope lies in the election on November 6 and that Romney will win. But with Obama's flagrant disregard for the law and Constitution, who knows what further mayhem he'll try to create in the two and half months between election day and Romney being sworn in as the next President of the United States. I wouldn't put anything past Obama at this point.

I believe the people of the 3rd District of Riley County should really elect an American candidate that will respect Riley County residents. A candidate that will work on the problems of Riley County, not put up a map of an area from Lincoln, Nebraska to South Central Kansas and who knows how far East or West. A candidate who spouts words of Social Justice and Social Equality, but says and I quote, "Planning is beyond the concept of ordinary Citizens." (Senior Center Forum) As for Wild Cat Creek flooding, I see a concrete dam that said candidate put across the creek to access to his property – Well, you know, candidate of social justice, we are not all equal it would seem.

The following is from the website 11 millionvotes.com. There is a short video that follows. In six minutes, the 6-minute video tells a compelling story of how a nation can dig its own grave. Andy Andrews believes that good answers come from asking good questions. Through the powerful, provocative question, “How do you kill eleven million people?” — the number of people killed by the Nazi German regime between 1933 and 1945 — he explores a number of other questions relevant to our lives today: Does it matter that millions of Americans have checked out of participating in the decisions that shape the future of the United States?

What is more dangerous: politicians with ill intent, or the too-trusting population that allows such people to lead them?

How are we supposed to tell the difference between the “good guys” and the “bad guys”?

How do truth and lies in the past affect our destiny as a nation?

What happens to a society in which truth is absent?

Andrews issues a wake-up call to voters across the political spectrum: become informed, passionate citizens who demand honesty and integrity from our leaders, or suffer the consequences of our own ignorance and apathy. Furthermore, we can no longer measure a leader’s worth by the yardsticks provided by the left or the right. Instead, we must use an unchanging standard: the pure, unvarnished truth.

Watch this powerful whiteboard video and never say “It can’t happen here.” The train-whistle story is chilling: I can’t put the video here, but it told the story of what happened in Germany when Hitler was in charge. It told what happened in Germany when the people didn’t take part in their government. It told how much Obama’s governing is like Hitler’s. We, United States Citizens, have gotten where we are by sitting back and letting OUR government run us instead of us running our government – just like the Germans did. How far are we going to go the way of the Germans? We MUST get Obama out of office and take charge of our Country by working with our elected officials, making our wants and needs known. We must continue to pay attention!! We, the every day citizens, let this happen to our country while we just enjoyed life. We must stay a part of our government, day by day; stay on top of what is happening and work with our elected officials. We don’t want to be another Germany and allow our Country be destroyed by selfish, uncaring individuals.

Obama Calls Romney a ‘BullSh***er’

posted on October 26, 2012 by Dave Jolly

The 2012 presidential campaign has to be going down in history as one of the nastiest and profane elections in history. And most of that is credited to Barack Obama.

Rolling Stone magazine reported Douglas Brinkley was granted an interview with President Barack Obama in the Oval Office of the White House. As the interview was ending and they were leaving the Oval Office, Rolling Stones Executive Editor Eric Bates told Obama that his six year old daughter had told him to tell Obama that he can do it. Obama grinned and replied:

“You know, kids have good instincts. They look at the other guy and say, ‘Well, that’s a bullsh***er, I can tell.’”

I grew up around horses, cattle and rodeo. I know what real bullsh** is. I know what it looks like and what it smells like. When I use that information as a base with which to judge both President Obama and Governor Romney, there’s only one candidate that looks and smells like real bullsh**.

I think it would be easier to count the number of times Obama has told the truth than the number of times he’s lied to the American people. Where do I start to list the lies he’s told:

He lied about his birth certificate, Social Security Card and Selective Service Card.

He lied about not raising taxes on middle income Americans.

He lied about Obamacare lowering premiums and increasing coverage.

He lied about what happened in Benghazi.

He lied about Romney’s record at Bain Capital.

He lied about Planned Parenthood providing mammograms.

He lied about supporting the Second Amendment right to own firearms.

He lied about wanting equal opportunity for all Americans when he supports Affirmative Action.

He lied about how many jobs he has created.

He lied about the coal industry in the debate when he said he supports the coal industry, yet has been working to shut down a number of coal mining operations.

The list goes on and on but I trust to you get the idea of exactly who the bullsh***r really is.

I remember one occasion many years ago when a fellow rider was thrown from a bull and landed in a fresh pile of bull crap. As he was walking out of the arena, a little girl nearby asked why it smelled so bad? The man standing next to her pointed to the rear end of a bull and told the little girl that you have to consider the source from where it came from and in this case, it came from a bull's butt.

Well, Obama's mouth may not exactly be the same as a bull's butt, but it produces a product that looks and smells just like the real thing. In my book, that makes him the real bullsh***r.
