ObamaCare - Part 2

By: David J Powell, CLU, ChFC, CFP, RHU

Candidate for Kansas Insurance Commissioner 2014

Before I finish the section on how large businesses can avoid the taxes/penalties, I thought I would try to answer some questions that have been posed.

For those who are working for larger employers mentioned the question I am hearing a lot: “Why are so many employees being forced to go to “part-time” status.”

Within the law, the authors chose to lower what most consider full time to an average of ONLY 30 hours per week. Most of us have always believed that full time was a 40-hour week.

The move to a 30 hour per week label as full-time was chosen to force more employers to provide additional benefits – notably group health insurance – to anyone only working 30 hours per week. The expected affect was more people would be covered by the employer's group health plan.

The administration is truly stupid!!!

The owners, CEO'S and HR directors for the most part have decided that two can play this game. So now we are seeing a massive number of larger employers take those people to 29 or fewer hours per week. At that level, these people remain in the category of those not eligible for the group health insurance paid for, at least in part, by the employer.

So who has been hurt by the designers of ObamaCare? The lower to middle class employee who are now working fewer hours are the ones who are hurt. That extra 10 hours per week in lost work also resulted in less take home pay. Many now find themselves needing to find and work second jobs BUT STILL NOT getting the benefit of any employer helping to pay the cost of their health insurance.

Many are also seeing paid vacations and other employer paid perks disappear. This is again a result of the health care law.

The advertisement said, when it was being sold to the American people, the cost of health insurance would drop by at least $2,500 per year for a family. Instead the cost has risen by more than $4,500 per family and the law does not fully kick in until 2014. The projections by the IRS are that the costs will be from 50% to 400% higher than they were Last YEAR!

Profit margins in business don't go up that fast! So employers are forced to cut benefits, even to the full time employees, let alone part timers.

Given a choice of paying benefits or going out of business, there really isn't a choice.

ObamaCare is NOT good for the people of the United States. The law isn't even fully implemented and we clearly see it hurting the working American.

So who will it benefit – those with their hands out?

Actually that may not happen either, as I will point out in the next article.

WHISTLEBLOWER MAGAZINE OBAMA'S WAR ON CHRISTIANS

The ultimate scandal for the most scandalous presidency in U.S. history Published: 3 days ago

“Scandal.” That one word pretty much summarizes the Obama administration's second term – from Benghazi-gate, to the IRS's all-out war on hundreds of conservative organizations, to the Justice Department's “criminalization of journalism” through targeting, harassing and seizing the records of news reporters and editors.

And that's in addition to the many other Obama scandals, from his illegally waged war against Libya and his policy of targeted assassinations of Americans (both designated by a bipartisan panel of constitutional experts as “clearly impeachable offenses”) to the Justice Department's disastrous “Fast and Furious” gun-running operation which resulted in at least 100 deaths – and countless other outrages.

Yet, the mother of all Obama scandals – indeed, the root of all the rest – receives little attention from the press. In fact, most Americans have never even heard an explicit reference to the primary scandal of the Obama administration. That is the sole focus of the June issue of WND's acclaimed monthly Whistleblower magazine.

As Whistleblower Editor David Kupelian says in the issue, headlined “OBAMA'S WAR ON CHRISTIANS”: “Just scratch a little below the surface of all the current scandals, and the mother-lode comes fully into view.”

“Take the IRS scandal. Who exactly are all these 500-plus ‘tea party,’ ‘patriot,’ ‘conservative’ and ‘prolife’ groups being targeted by the revenue agency?” asks Kupelian. “Who populates these organizations? What beliefs and values animate them? By and large, they are Christians and Jews who strongly hold to a traditional, biblical, Judeo-Christian worldview.”

Continues Kupelian: “Haven't you wondered why the Obama Department of Homeland Security warns law enforcement departments that the real ‘extremist’ threats to America are from pro-lifers, patriots, constitutionalists, amnesty opponents, gun enthusiasts and military veterans? Haven't you scratched your head trying to figure out why the U.S. military recently threatened to court-martial Christian service personnel just for sharing their faith with others?”

Highlights of “OBAMA'S WAR ON CHRISTIANS” include:

“The biggest Obama Scandal of All”, by David Kupelian

“Banning Christianity from the armed forces” by Joseph Farah, who reports that the U.S. military was recently advised that Christian believers are “monsters” who “terrorize” others with their faith. “Under Obama, Christians and conservatives are ‘extremists’” by Bob Unruh, on the current administration's relentless demonization of opponents of abortion, same-sex marriage and illegal immigration:

- “IRS targeting of conservatives continues” by Jerome R. Corsi, on the public interest law firm that has now sued the revenue agency in federal court on behalf of 25 different organizations
- “IRS demands Christian pro-lifers reveal ‘the content of their prayers’” – one of the most outrageous abuses in an era of outrages
- “Why Obama wars against Judeo-Christian America” by David Kupelian, an in-depth and thought-provoking exploration of what’s really behind the never-ending attacks on everything “decent” and “normal”
- “Obamacare forcing Christian companies to provide abortion pill” by Bob Unruh, showing how some of the Obama administration’s abuses are so egregious that the judiciary is siding against them
- “New class of people identified as IRS enemies” by Gina Loudon, on the bizarre fact that families that adopt children are far more likely to be audited by the IRS than “millionaires and billionaires”
- “Warning from Canada: Orwellian future awaits U.S.” by Art Moore, who documents how the lessons of 10 years of same-sex marriage in our neighbor to the north totally shatter the arguments of “gay marriage” supporters
- “Lesbian journalist: ‘Gay marriage is a lie’” – in a candid moment, journalist-activist confirms everything most opponents of same-sex marriage have long believed
- “Feds require employees to give open LGBT approval” by Matt Barber, who explains the latest – and astonishingly Orwellian – decree from the Obama Justice Department: No longer is it OK for Christians just to be intimidated and “shut up” regarding “lesbians, gays, bisexuals and trans-genders” in the federal workplace – they most verbally support it! As one internal DOJ memo to employees puts it: “Silence will be interpreted as disapproval”
- “How a revered Christian institution was brought down” by Peter LaBarbera, a poignant, insider look at what really caused the downfall of the Boy Scouts of America
- “Dobson: Feds must stop silencing and intimidating Christians” by Bob Unruh, in which the evangelical leader confirms that the IRS has been directly targeting traditional-values religious groups – including his own
- “Assaulting Christians but coddling terrorists” by David Limbaugh, on the U.S. military’s disturbing track record of targeting religious liberty
- “Reflections by a former Muslim on Obama’s love of Islam” by Nonie Darwish, on how Obama became the “savior of both Islam and socialists”
- “The world’s most dynamic religion is ...” by Dennis Prager, who surprisingly reveals that today’s most influential belief system – and the one increasingly dominating America – is neither Christianity nor Islam
- “Beware of liberals in evangelicals’ clothing” by Ann Coulter, who exposes the totally irrational “new Christian ethic of compassion-by-personal-encounter”
- “Christian civil disobedience may be imminent” by Patrick J. Buchanan, who asks: What happens when millions of believers refuse to obey new same-sex marriage laws?
- “Memo to Christian troops: We’ve got your back” by Matt Barber, who speaks for one public-interest law firm in encouraging American soldiers to “stand tall and proclaim your faith proudly.”

“Fasten your seat belts,” says Kupelian, “because we’re about to go for a wild ride, connecting the dots of the Obama administration’s many outrages, allowing the real scandal underlying all the others to finally come clearly into view.”

To most people, the very idea of “Marxism in America” sounds absurd. After all, this is the “land of the free,” plus we won the Cold War against the Soviet Union and its failed Marxist “utopia,” didn’t we?

Yes, but the truth is, the good old USA – after sending hundreds of thousands of its finest young people overseas to fight and die to combat the evils of Marxism – has quietly and steadily succumbed to the same ideological seduction right here at home.

“MARXISM, AMERICAN-STYLE” reveals with jaw-dropping clarity how Marx’s godless, materialist ideology – characterized by an all-consuming obsession with government control of resources and production, as well as the radical “redistribution” of wealth and power to perpetually aggrieved “victim” segments of society – is increasingly dominating America.

Taken from the June 7, 2013 Newsletter of Tim Huelskamp

Dear Friend of Liberty,

Early yesterday, June 7, 2013, it was revealed that the Obama Administration has secretly seized the phone records of every Verizon customer (including my entire family) in this country.

And we have reason to believe they've done the same with every other major phone company in the U.S.

And then later in the day we learned that a whistleblower somewhere in the bowels of Big Brother leaked that the Obama crowd has also taken and recorded the audio, video, photographs and documents of American citizens from all the leading Internet giants: Microsoft, Apple, Yahoo, Google, Facebook, AOL, Skype, Youtube, Apple.

Note this is not targeted at suspected terrorists, foreign nationals, or even illegal aliens (somewhere they get a pass). Instead, Big Government is not targeting - they are grabbing everyone's personal, private data.

Attorney General Holder (who should resign immediately) refused to rule out they are even spying on members of Congress. And of course, there's the LITTLE issue of Holder and Obama spying on those reporters who simply are doing their jobs and investigating these very type of cover-ups and scandals in Washington.

There is little doubt in my mind - this is clearly the most significant violation of our rights in the history of our country. And it's exactly the sort of abuse of government power which led to the American Revolution. It's exactly why the Founders of this nation included the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution:

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, . . . and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

I am outraged - and I'm certain you are. Within hours of finding out about this wholesale spying on the American people - I blasted out a press release. I sent a stinging letter to the Administration. And I appeared in numerous media outlet demanding answers for you.

One last shocking report to add. And it comes from some of the Republican leaders in the U.S. House.

As you know, my colleague, Congressman Darrell Issa, Chairman of the House Government Oversight Committee, has been investigating some other abuses of power by Barack Obama--the IRS Scandal, Benghazi and Obama's assaults on media and free speech rights.

He's made strong statements in the media calling out Obama and his people for misleading the American people. Yet some Republicans are telling him to "tone it down" and "cool it!" What Republicans should be doing is praising him and the members of his committee for exposing the lies and deceit of the Obama administration at every level.

This is a battle we must take up on Capitol Hill. The corruption and abuse of power going on in Washington right now is breathtaking! And our very freedoms are at stake.

I am concerned about what an unfettered Obama administration - and a Congress too scared to speak up - can do to destroy our precious freedoms. Crimes are being committed here. Yet no one has yet been held accountable. The IRS steals our personal information--no one has gone to prison, nor have they been fired. Secret courts and unknown spys flout the law, steal our personal information, and ignore the Constitution -- but who will pay the price?

Now more than ever, we must remain diligent. And we must demand the truth be heard.

All across America - let us stand forth. Push Congress and the media to investigate. Demand answers, not lies. And pray for our country at this critical time in our history. Our freedoms are precious, God-given and worth fighting for.

Yours in Liberty, Tim Huelskamp, Member of Congress (KS Dist. 2 Representative)

P.S. This is a serious matter. You need to make your voice heard. You need to know that your freedoms are at risk here. It's no time to remain passive. Ben Franklin was correct when he said, "They who can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety."

MinutemenNews.com: Sheriff Arrested in Florida Defending the 2nd Amendment 6/5/13

A number of Sheriffs around the country have pledged to abide by the Second Amendment and not enforce laws that they believe violate the Constitution.

Sixty-seven sheriffs in Florida signed one of those pledges declaring that they would uphold the Second Amendment and protect people's' right to keep and bear arms.

One of those signatories, Sheriff Nicholas Finch, was arrested by Governor Rick Scott in Florida for actions he took in a case in early March in which Finch made his stand for the Second Amendment.

Carl Causey has been appointed to replace him by Governor Scott until July when the case will be heard. The charge stems from an incident involving his Deputy Sheriff, James Hoagland.

On March 8, Sgt. James Hoagland arrested a man named Floyd Parrish who was carrying a concealing semi-automatic, fully loaded. As Parrish was being booked, one jail worker said Finch came in with a Parrish family member and spoke with Parrish. Finch then took possession of Parrish's arrest file and released Parrish and his gun. Several days later, Hoagland asked Finch about it and Finch said he believed in "Second Amendment rights." Court records showed that Parrish's name was whited-out from the county jail log. Hoagland did have a copy of the arrest record but the original record is missing.

Mr. Finch was arrested on a Third-Degree Felony charge of official misconduct for destroying or removing official documents from the county jail to cover up the arrest of Mr. Parrish. Finch was released on his own recognizance.

Finch's lawyer, Jimmy Judkins, released this statement:

"The records at the jail show exactly what happened in this case and the records speak the truth. The sheriff looked at the facts and said 'I believe in the second amendment and we're not going to charge him.' That is not misconduct at all. That is within the Sheriff's prerogative whether to charge someone or not."

Sheriff Finch was making a statement about the Second Amendment.

Many believe that Sheriff Finch's actions are within his authority. He certainly has the right to not charge Parrish. Since Finch did not charge Parrish, the records are then without value and Finch was within his rights to destroy those records.

Kris Anne Hall is a Constitutional lawyer. She believes that what Sheriff Finch did was within his right to do:

What do you believe? This is strictly a Second Amendment issue. It is not about cover-ups or the man who carried the concealed weapon. The sheriff believes the law he was told to enforce is unconstitutional.

AG Holder hasn't enforced immigration law or DOMA, among other laws, because he doesn't agree with those laws. Until Holder is arrested and convicted of failure to uphold the law, should we expect this sheriff to be convicted for not upholding a law he believes is unconstitutional?

It is for you to decide.

Ted Nugent on "How Deer Think"      Great Quote!

Deer Hunting Story...even if you don't care about hunting... Gotta Love Ted!

Ted Nugent, rock star and avid bow hunter from Michigan, was being interviewed by a liberal journalist, an animal rights activist. The discussion came around to deer hunting. The journalist asked, 'What do you think is the last thought in the head of a deer before you shoot him? Is it, 'Are you my friend?' or is it 'Are you the one who killed my brother?'

Nugent replied, 'Deer aren't capable of that kind of thinking. All they care about is, what am I going to eat next, who am I going to screw next, and can I run fast enough to get away. They are very much like the Democrats in Congress.'      The interview ended!!

Uncle Sam Wants You (But Not Muslims) . . . Under Surveillance (No, it is NOT Uncle Sam, it is an impostor that pushed Uncle Sam out of Existence!!)

Posted by Common Constitutionalist filed under Big Brother, Bureaucrats, Email Featured, Government Control, National Security, Politics

According to an ever-increasing array of sources, we are all under surveillance. Every electronic source of communication is being monitored, cataloged and stored in Utah to be accessed by the authorities at any time in the future.

Our phone calls, e-mails, texts, everything. And with the ever-growing number of security cameras lining our streets, our every movement can be monitored outdoors.

Once inside they have the capability of watching us through our web cams and interactive TVs. With the introduction of common core in our schools it does seem like the government at least has the makings of building a "Minority Report" type profile on each and every American. Well, not quite.

There is the odd schizophrenia when it comes to the Muslim community. It seems our same ultra-intrusive government doesn't feel the need to monitor them as they do us.

Even when moderate Muslims claim to have seen materials calling for jihad against the United States in the Cambridge mosque attended by the Tsarnaev brothers.

But I'm sure our government sees the Cambridge mosque as a holy place that should not be monitored even though the founder of the Islamic Society of Boston mosque was none other than Abdulrahman Alamoudi, who is currently serving two years in prison for funding Al Qaeda. Yes, only two years.

One of the mosques former trustees and a "spiritual leader" of the Muslim Brotherhood, Sheikh Yusuf al-Qaradawi has been banned from even entering the U.S. due to his terror ties. Other notable mosque attendees include a member of Al Qaeda. Yet the mosque is still fully operational and growing every year.

And evidently the jihadist materials recently found in the mosque are nothing new. One Muslim attendee told CBN news that 10 years ago he found in the mosques upstairs library, many flyers and newsletters, written in Arabic calling for jihad against America, Jews and Christians.

Note our all-seeing governmental eye did not discover these publications, but they are watching you.

Four years ago the Muslim American Society built a new mosque in Roxbury, a Boston neighborhood.

By the way, the Muslim American Society is, as are most of these "societies", a front for the Muslim Brotherhood.

The mosque cost a whopping $15.5 million and most of the money came from our buddies, Saudi Arabia. You know, our friends, the wahhabists. Naturally, the liberal Massachusetts political class all endorsed these mosques.

Now we all know, if this were a Synagogue or Christian church, breeding and promoting radicalism, the doors would've already been padlocked.

Yet radicals can be bred in these mosques and no one is allowed to say anything for fear of being branded a racist or Islamophobe.

So us law-abiding patriotic citizens live our lives been catalogued and profiled with every keystroke being monitored. All the while, radical Islamists are holed up in their "religious sanctuaries" all across the country churning out jihadist literature and killers.

At least our government has their priorities straight.

This type of prejudice just makes MY blood boil!! Muslim people have been proven to be destroyers of the USA! This is JUST wrong – no matter how you look at it. We MUST do what is right. The USA was founded on Christianity, Truth, Individual Rights!! What happened? How did we end up with a Muslim President? He lied his way into office and has been lying and destroying the USA every chance he gets. What are we going to do about all this? Don't you think it is time to do SOMETHING? What do YOU suggest? Let's start with fighting for our schools –DO AWAY with Common Core!! DO AWAY WITH FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CONTROL IN OUR SCHOOLS!!!

Celebration time is here!!! The Bond Issue for the School District 378 was defeated at the polls June 11!!! My faith in the citizens of the District is restored!! None of us have a problem with a strong Sports Program; however, this election shows that we still have our priorities straight. The SAFETY of our STUDENTS, BUILDING QUALITY, ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITIES for our STUDENTS, QUALITY of our TEACHERS are more important to us than the SPORTS PROGRAM. A new Bond Issue will be in the making. Be a part of it's development, attend Board meetings, talk to Board members, BE INFORMED!!

72 Year Old Granny Fends Off Home Intruder with .357 Magnum

by Dave Jolly Filed under 2nd Amendment, Crime, Gun Control

One of my favorite topics to write on is when an American citizen fends off a potentially dangerous and life-threatening situation with their legally owned gun.

In the latest case I read about, 72 year old Jan Cooper of Anaheim, California was able to protect her wheelchair bound 85 year old husband from a home invasion. It was around 12:30am Sunday morning when she heard the prowler outside the house. The elderly couple's Rottweiler was furiously barking, but the suspect wasn't thwarted by the sound of the large dog.

Jan dialed 911 after grabbing her .357 Magnum Smith & Wesson revolver. She begged the dispatcher to send the police right away because someone was at her back sliding door trying to break in. She also informed the dispatcher that she had a gun.

While still on the phone with the 911 dispatcher, Jan said that she could see the man's silhouette through the blinds on the back door. Then she told the dispatcher that he was starting to slide the back door open. She told the dispatcher that she was firing, followed by the loud sound of a gunshot.

Jan was so angry at the man for trying to break into her house, she began cursing at him and telling him to back up and leave. The intruder began apologizing and begging her not to shoot again and that he was leaving. She informed the dispatcher that she wasn't sure if she hit the guy or not, but that he was still in her yard. Police were close enough to hear the gunshot and quickly apprehended 31 year old Brandon Alexander Perez. He was not hit by the bullet, but a police investigator said that it had to have come within a couple inches of his cheek. Jan had fired her gun through the opening in the door, narrowly missing Perez's head.

It turns out that Perez, who pleaded innocent to the attempted burglary charges, has a lengthy rap sheet that includes burglary and narcotics charges. He was also out on parole from earlier charges, which is one reason I am so against parole. I've seen and heard of too many crimes, even violent crimes being committed by criminals that are out on parole or probation. If they are sentenced to 5 years, then let them serve 5 years, not 16 months.

After things had calmed down, Jan Cooper was apologetic for getting so angry and swearing the way she did. She told reporters:

"I am a Christian woman and I'm very proud of it and I don't curse, but after I shot, rage took hold and I just blasted away, and, in fact, afterwards my husband said, 'I've never heard you talk like that!'"

When asked about the shooting, Jan replied: "I don't mean to shoot anybody, but whatever's necessary to literally stop them - he was not going to come into my home."

Fortunately, Jan's handgun was properly registered and she had been shooting at a pistol range with her husband for over 20 years. Even though she missed the intruder, she managed to shoot through the narrow opening of the sliding glass door without breaking the glass.

She is another shining example of why the Second Amendment is so crucial to the American people. Had Obama, Biden and the rest of liberal Democrats had their way, Jan Cooper wouldn't have had that handgun and would have had no way of defending her and her husband from the would be intruder. There is no telling what Perez may have done to the couple had he managed to get inside and confront them. Obviously her warnings and the barking Rottweiler didn't frighten him which makes me tend to believe that he was probably high on drugs and may have done anything to get what he wanted. Fortunately and thanks to Smith & Wesson, the Coopers didn't have to find out what could have happened. They are safe and sound.

Hooray for Jan Cooper!

1,400 Years of in-Breeding -- How It Has Effected Those of the Muslim Faith???

Interesting Article

Here Is A Major Reason Why Societies With A Judeo-Christian Ethics Succeed and Others Fail.

This came to me from a Lockheed friend who has had 3 assignments to Saudi Arabia. During the pilot transition program with the KV-107 and C-130 with Lockheed, we found that most Saudi pilot trainees had very limited night vision, even on the brightest of moon lit nights. Their training retention rate was minimal including maintenance personnel.

Some had dim memories and had to be constantly reminded of things that were told to them the day before. Needless to say, an American, British or any other western instructor gets burned out pretty quick. It actually took Muslim C-130 pilots years before they could fly in the dark safely and then would be reluctant to leave the lights of a city. Ask any Marine, Air Force or Army guy who's been trying to train Iraqis, and especially Afghans. They will say, "Yep, dumber than homemade dodo".

Islam is not only a religion, it's a way of life all the way around. Yet another set of revealing facts about Muslim beliefs and traditions and ways of life. 1400 years of inbreeding.

I found this to be interesting. Didn't know whether to believe it or not. To research I went to Wikipedia, "Cousin Marriage", and far down in the article "Genetics", it seems there is a lot of truth here.

A HUGE Muslim problem: Inbreeding

Nikolai Sennels is a Danish psychologist who has done extensive research into a little-known problem in the Muslim world: the disastrous results of Muslim inbreeding brought about by the marriage of first-cousins.

This practice, which has been prohibited in the Judeo-Christian tradition since the days of Moses, was sanctioned by Muhammad and has been going on now for 50 generations (1,400 years) in the Muslim world.

This practice of inbreeding will never go away in the Muslim world, since Muhammad is the ultimate example and authority on all matters, including marriage.

The massive inbreeding in Muslim culture may well have done virtually irreversible damage to the Muslim gene pool, including extensive damage to its intelligence, sanity, and health.

According to Sennels, close to half of all Muslims in the world are inbred. In Pakistan, the numbers approach 70%. Even in England, more than half of Pakistani immigrants are married to their first cousins, and in Denmark the number of inbred Pakistani immigrants is around 40%.

The numbers are equally devastating in other important Muslim countries: 67% in Saudi Arabia, 64% in Jordan, and Kuwait, 63% in Sudan, 60% in Iraq, and 54% in the United Arab Emirates and Qatar.

According to the BBC, this Pakistani, Muslim-inspired inbreeding is thought to explain the probability that a British Pakistani family is more than 13 times as likely to have children with recessive genetic disorders. While Pakistanis are responsible for three percent of the births in the UK, they account for 33% of children with genetic birth defects.

The risks of what are called autosomal recessive disorders such as cystic fibrosis and spinal muscular atrophy is 18 times higher and the risk of death due to malformations is 10 times higher.

Other negative consequences of inbreeding include a 100 percent increase in the risk of still births and a 50% increase in the possibility that a child will die during labor.

Lowered intellectual capacity is another devastating consequence of Muslim marriage patterns. According to Sennels, research shows that children of consanguineous marriages lose 10-16 points off their IQ and that social abilities develop much slower in inbred babies. The risk of having an IQ lower than 70, the official demarcation for being classified as "retarded," increases by an astonishing 400 percent among children of cousin marriages. (Similar effects were seen in the Pharaonic dynasties in ancient Egypt and in the British royal family, where inbreeding was the norm for a significant period of time.) In Denmark, non-Western immigrants are more than 300 percent more likely to fail the intelligence test required for entrance into the Danish army. Sennels says that "the ability to enjoy and produce knowledge and abstract thinking is simply lower in the Islamic world." He points out that the Arab world translates just 330 books every year, about 20% of what Greece alone does.

In the last 1,200 years of Islam, just 100,000 books have been translated into Arabic, about what Spain does in a single year. Seven out of 10 Turks have never even read a book.

Sennels points out the difficulties this creates for Muslims seeking to succeed in the West. "A lower IQ, together with a religion that denounces critical thinking, surely makes it harder for many Muslims to have success in our high-tech knowledge societies."

Only nine Muslims have ever won the Nobel Prize, and five of those were for the "Peace Prize." According to Nature magazine, Muslim countries produce just 10 percent of the world average when it comes to scientific research measured by articles per million inhabitants.

In Denmark, Sennels' native country, Muslim children are grossly over represented among children with special needs. One-third of the budget for Danish schools is consumed by special education, and anywhere from 51% to 70% of retarded children with physical handicaps in Copenhagen have an immigrant background. Learning ability is severely affected as well. Studies indicated that 64% of school children with Arabic parents are still illiterate after 10 years in the Danish school system. The immigrant drop-out rate in Danish high schools is twice that of the native-born.

Mental illness is also a product. The closer the blood relative, the higher the risk of schizophrenic illness. The increased risk of insanity may explain why more than 40% of patients in Denmark's biggest ward for clinically insane criminals have an immigrant background.

The U.S. is not immune. According to Sennels, "One study based on 300,000 Americans shows that the majority of Muslims in the USA have a lower income, are less educated, and have worse jobs than the population as a whole." Sennels concludes: There is no doubt that the wide spread tradition of first cousin marriages among Muslims has harmed the gene pool among Muslims. Because Muslims' religious beliefs prohibit marrying non-Muslims and thus prevents them from adding fresh genetic material to their population, the genetic damage done to their gene pool since their prophet allowed first cousin marriages 1,400 years ago are most likely massive. This has produced overwhelming direct and indirect human and societal consequences.

Bottom line: Islam is not simply a benign and morally equivalent alternative to the Judeo-Christian tradition.

As Sennels points out, the first and biggest victims of Islam are Muslims. Simple Judeo-Christian compassion for Muslims and a common-sense desire to protect Western civilization from the ravages of Islam dictate a vigorous opposition to the spread of this dark and dangerous religion. These stark realities must be taken into account when we establish public policies dealing with immigration from Muslim countries and the building of mosques in the U.S.

Let's hope the civilized West and the North Americans wake up before a blind naiveté about the reality of Islam destroys what remains of our Judeo-Christian culture and our domestic tranquility. Stopping this progressive destruction of the United States of America will NOT happen with citizens sitting on their hands, letting it all happen!! GOD did NOT give us hands, feet, and a BRAIN for us Not to use them. Get OFF YOUR DUFF and put forth some effort to take our Country back from this CORRUPT administration!! WHY SHOULD GOD do it for us? If our freedom and country is NOT worth fighting for do we deserve to have freedom??

THE OLD PATHS

I liked the old paths, when Moms were at home. Dads were at work. Brothers went into the army. And sisters got married BEFORE having children!

Crime did not pay; Hard work did; And people knew the difference.

Moms could cook; Dads would work; Children would behave.

Husbands were loving; Wives were supportive; And children were polite.

Women wore the jewelry; And Men wore the pants.

Women looked like ladies; Men looked like gentlemen; And children looked decent.

People loved the truth, And hated a lie.

They came to church to get IN, Not to get OUT!

Hymns sounded Godly; Sermons sounded helpful; Rejoicing sounded normal; And crying sounded sincere.

Cursing was wicked; Drugs were for illness.

The flag was honored; America was beautiful; And God was welcome!

We read the Bible in public; Prayed in school; And preached from house to house.

To be called an American was worth dying for; To be called an American was worth living for; To be called a traitor was a shame! AND A CRIME!!

I still like the old paths the best!

I received this from a fellow FHTP member. Read it and think about it!!

The paper stated that some Muslim doctor is saying we are profiling him because he has been checked three times while getting on an airplane. The following is a letter from a pilot. This well-spoken man, who is a pilot with American Airlines, says what is in his heart, beautifully.

YOU WORRY ME!

By Captain John Maniscalco, American Airlines Pilot

I've been trying to say this since 9/11, but you worry me. I wish you didn't. I wish when I walked down the streets of this country that I love, that your color and culture still blended with the beautiful human landscape we enjoy in this country. But you don't blend in anymore. I notice you, and it worries me. I notice you because I can't help it anymore. People from your homelands, professing to be Muslims, have been attacking and killing my fellow citizens and our friends for more than 20 years now. I don't fully understand their grievances and hate, but I know that nothing can justify the inhumanity of their attacks.

On September 11, Arab-Muslims hijacked four jetliners in my country. They cut the throats of women in front of children and brutally stabbed to death others. They took control of those planes and crashed them into buildings, killing thousands of proud fathers, loving sons, wise grandparents, elegant daughters, best friends, favorite coaches, fearless public servants, and children's mothers.

The Palestinians celebrated, the Iraqis were overjoyed, as was most of the Arab world. So, I notice you now. I don't want to be worried. I don't want to be consumed by the same rage, hate and prejudice that has destroyed the soul of these terrorists. But I need your help. As a rational American, trying to protect my country and family in an irrational and unsafe world, I must know how to tell the difference between you, and the Arab/Muslim terrorist. How do I differentiate between the true Arab/Muslim Americans and the Arab/Muslim terrorists in our communities who are attending our schools, enjoying our parks, and living in our communities under the protection of our constitution, while they plot the next attack that will slaughter more of the same good neighbors and children?

The events of September 11 changed the answer. It is not my responsibility to determine which of you embraces our great country, with all of its religions, with all of its different citizens, with all of its faults. It is time for every Arab/Muslim in this country to determine it for me. I want to know, I demand to know and I have a right to know, whether or not you love America. Do you pledge allegiance to its flag? Do you proudly display it in front of your house, or on your car? Do you pray in your many daily prayers that Allah will bless this nation; that He will protect it and let it prosper? Or do you pray that Allah will destroy it in one of your Jihads? Are you thankful for the freedom that this nation affords? A freedom that was paid for by the blood of hundreds of thousands of patriots who gave their lives for this country? Are you willing to preserve this freedom by also paying the ultimate sacrifice? Do you love America? If this is your commitment, then I need you to start letting me know about it. Your Muslim leaders in this nation should be flooding the media at this time with hard facts on your faith, and what hard actions YOU are taking as a community and as a religion to protect the United States of America

Please, no more benign overtures of regret for the death of the innocent, because I worry about who you regard as innocent. No more benign overtures of condemnation for the unprovoked attacks, because I worry about what is unprovoked to you. I am not interested in any more sympathy; I am interested only in action. What will you do for America - our great country - at this time of crisis, at this time of war?

I want to see Arab-Muslims waving the American flag in the streets. I want to hear you chanting 'Allah Bless America'. I want to see young Arab/Muslim men enlisting in the military. I want to see a commitment of money, time and emotion to the victims of this butchering and to this nation as a whole.

The FBI has a list of over 400 people they want to talk to regarding the WTC attack. Many of these people live and socialize right now in Muslim communities. You know them. You know where they are. Hand them over to us, now! But I have seen little even approaching this sort of action. Instead I have seen an already closed and secretive community close even tighter. You have disappeared from the streets. You have posted armed security guards at your facilities. You have threatened lawsuits. You have screamed for protection from reprisals.

The very few Arab/Muslim representatives that have appeared in the media were defensive and equivocating. They seemed more concerned with making sure that the United States proves who was responsible before taking action. They seemed more concerned with protecting their fellow Muslims from violence directed towards them in the United States and abroad than they did with supporting our country and denouncing 'leaders' like Khadafi, Hussein, Farrakhan, and Arafat. IF the true teachings of Islam proclaim tolerance and peace and love for all people, then I want chapter and verse from the Koran and statements from popular Muslim leaders to back it up. What good is it if the teachings in the Koran are good, pure, and true, when your 'leaders' ARE teaching fanatical interpretations, terrorism, and intolerance? It matters little how good Islam should be if huge numbers of the world's Muslims interpret the teachings of Mohammed incorrectly and adhere to a degenerative form of the religion. A form that has been demonstrated to us over and over again. A form whose structure is built upon a foundation of violence, death, and suicide. A form whose members are recruited from the prisons around the world. A form whose members (some as young as five years old) are seen day after day, week in and week out, year after year, marching in the streets around the world, burning effigies of our presidents, burning the American flag, shooting weapons into the air. A form whose members convert from a peaceful religion, only to take up arms against the great United States of America, the country of their birth. A form whose rules are so twisted, that their traveling members refuse to show their faces at airport security checkpoints, in the name of Islam.

We will never allow the attacks of September 11, or any others for that matter, to take away that which is so precious to us -- our rights under the greatest constitution in the world. I want to know where every Arab Muslim in this country stands and I think it is my right and the right of every true citizen of this country to demand it. A right paid for by the blood of thousands of my brothers and sisters who died protecting the very constitution that is protecting you and your family.

I am pleading with you to let me know. I want you here as my brother, my neighbor, my friend, as a fellow American, but there can be no gray areas or ambivalence regarding your allegiance, and it is up to you to show me where you stand. Until then, "You worry me!"

CANADIAN COMMENTS: I totally agree with this sentiment. I hope you will forget all about the 'political correctness' mandate we've had rammed down our throats, and see if this doesn't ring true in your heart and mind. For Canada, with all the multiculturalism we've been told is so important....why should we not, as Canadians, expect that the millions of new people immigrating to our country will show their love for our country, their allegiance to our country, their willingness to obey the laws of our country, and acceptance that we are a Christian country? Just because they are able to enjoy exercising their own religion, they should NOT expect us to be ashamed of ours. They knew Canada was a Christian country when they came here. Why are we erasing Christianity because immigrants who are unwilling to adopt our way of life expect us to? There is just too much insanity in the world, and we have to start taking a stand. I hope you will forward this, so that others will feel they are not alone if they are starting to feel the same.

BRITISH COMMENTS: At last, a clear non-racist example of the concerns that the vast majority of our Nations population probably share. The pilot's letter encapsulates all that is fair and just about national pride and protection of one's national culture. I fear it may be too late here in UK, BUT we too want our country back in the form that attracted all these different cultures to come here in the first place! In all our conversations with a wide range of friends and acquaintances we have not met one that disagrees with our own views. If only we all had the courage of our convictions to pass this on, it is a statement that should be accepted as the heart-felt feelings of someone with honest commendable national pride.

THIS IS TOO GOOD TO JUST READ AND DELETE -- LET'S SATURATE NEW ZEALAND, AUSTRALIA, UK , EUROPE, USA , CANADA AND THE REST OF THE FREE WORLD WITH THIS ONE! MAY GOD BLESS THOSE WHO HAD THE COURAGE TO WRITE THE ABOVE AND MAY GOD BLESS THOSE WHO READ AND PASS THIS ON AND MAY GOD BLESS THOSE WHO WILL HELP STOP THE INSANITY!

Mary Had a Little Lamb

Mary had a little lamb,
His fleece was white as snow.
And everywhere that Mary went,
The lamb was sure to go.
He followed her to school each day,
Twasn't even in the rule.
He made the children laugh and play.
To have a Lamb at school.
And then the rules all changed one day.
Illegal it became,
To bring the Lamb of God to School,
Or even speak his Name.
Everyday got worse and worse,
And days turned into years.
Instead of hearing children laugh,
We heard gun shots and tears.
What must we do to stop the crime,
That's in our schools today?
Let's let the Lamb come back to school,
And teach our kids to pray!

Now "THEY", those who desire to destroy America and what we stand for, are working to destroy what the American way of life stands for – an individual having the choices to make or break themselves. The American Schools, at the grammar school level, will allow the Federal Government to introduce programs that will pigeon hole our children very early in their education and LIFE, then keep them at that level thru the rest of their public education; then prevent them from having the choice of the educational level they can be at for the rest of their lives; deciding for them what their life long career will be. They will be putting each child in a certain category in the early years of their schooling with the intent of keeping them there for their lifetime. The program that will allow that to happen is known as COMMON CORE. Our Kansas Legislators fought long and hard to keep this from being installed in our Kansas Schools. It was left that the final decision will be decided during the next Legislative session. We must back our intelligent, caring, thinking Legislators that voted against COMMON CORE. Then convince those not now convinced to vote against it to see the light and vote FOR our children. In our next Newsletter I'll list those Legislators who voted to put this horrible program in Kansas Schools along with a list of those who didn't even bother to attend the session to vote. We need to teach and convince those voting for the Common Core in Kansas Schools to understand how they are tying our children's hands in developing their own future. We must then teach those "not bothering to do the job they convinced us they wanted and would be committed to" that when they have that job there is NO excuse, other than a serious health problem of their own or of a close family member, for them to NOT COMPLETE THEIR COMMITTED JOB EACH AND EVERY YEAR THEY HOLD THAT OFFICE!! Or if they are NOT COMMITTED we could just take them OUT OF OFFICE!! It was their choice to run – now it is their choice to "BE THERE AND DO THE JOB" or get out of the way for someone truly committed!!

Friends, I'm sure you're aware of the Federal Government checking, spying, on everything they possibly can on the Internet. Be Careful what you do on Google – you are being watched, recorded, ect. Don't let yourself be hurt by what you comment anywhere online
