Out of the mouths of babes:

I was eating breakfast with my 10-year-old granddaughter and I asked her, "What day is tomorrow?"

She said, "It's President's Day!"

She's a smart kid so I asked her, "What does President's Day mean?"

I was waiting for something about Washington or Lincoln.

But she replied, "President's Day is when President Obama steps out of the White House and if he sees his shadow, we have another year of bullshit!"

You know, it hurts when hot coffee spurts out your nose!

DID YOU KNOW? — As you walk up the steps to the building which houses the U.S. Supreme Court, you can see near the top of the building a row of the world's law givers and each one is facing one in the middle who is facing forward with a full frontal view... It is Moses, and he is holding The Ten Commandments!

DID YOU KNOW? — As you enter the Supreme Court courtroom, the two huge oak doors have the Ten Commandments engraved on the lower portion of each door.

DID YOU KNOW? — As you sit inside the courtroom, you can see on the wall, right above where the Supreme Court Judges sit, a display of The Ten Commandments.

DID YOU KNOW? — There are Bible verses etched in stone all over the Federal Buildings and Monuments in Washington, D.C.

JAMES MADISON, the fourth president, known as 'The Father of Our Constitution' made the Following Statement:

"We have staked the whole of all Our political Institutions upon the capacity of mankind for Self-government, upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to control ourselves, to sustain ourselves according to The Ten Commandments of God."

DID YOU KNOW? — Every session of Congress begins with a prayer by a paid preacher, whose salary has been paid by the taxpayers since 1777.

DID YOU KNOW? — Fifty-two of the 55 founders of the Constitution were members of the established Orthodox churches in the colonies.

Thomas Jefferson worried that the Courts would overstep their authority and instead of Interpreting the law would begin making law an Oligarchy: the rule of few over many.

How then, have we gotten to the Point that everything we have done for 227 years in this Country is now suddenly wrong and Unconstitutional? Let's put it around the world and let the world see and remember what this great country was built on: The Holy Bible and belief in GOD.

Dear Friend,

There's nothing worse to a Washington politician than having to answer to the voters. Poor, poor elites here in DC. When a tough vote comes along — one where they have to vote on something important to the American people — they complain to each other. That's what's going on in Washington this very day.

Near the end of this month, Washington will max our nation's credit card again — the so-called "debt ceiling." In a couple weeks, we will break through the massive current $17.5 trillion limit. And Barack Obama and Harry Reid desperately want more to feed their bloated vision of a government which controls every area of our lives. The only thing standing in their way is the Republican House.

Well... maybe not.

No. Today Republican "leadership" offered a plan to pass a "clean" debt ceiling. Republican "leadership" worked a deal to raise the credit card limit another $700 billion until March 2015 — well past the November elections and any sort of accountability. They told their fellow Republican Congressmen they could vote against the bill and get the "monkey off their back."

They know they have all the Democrat votes they need for the bill to pass. Why? Because it gives Democrats everything they want.

I don't know about you, but there is no more secure feeling to me than knowing Washington politicians have to deal with the "monkey on their back." That's what elections are for every two years. We need more — not less — of that.

Americans have had enough of government gone wild. And the politicians know very well if they vote to put more on America's credit card they risk losing their election this November. If they won't demand massive changes in the growth of spending, maybe they should lose their job.

Here's the thing that Americans will find truly upsetting. This bill is being rushed through tonight so these guys can avoid the inconvenience of having to deal with snow coming in to Washington in the morning.

Well that's what they are saying. I have my doubts. Far too many members of Congress will be sleeping in Washington tonight in their warm bed in DC, rather than back home with the people they claim to represent. They hardly ever leave Washington and go home where they'll have to face the voters who have had enough of this.

It's funny, because it never occurs to these know-it-alls in Washington that if they'll just do what the American people ask of them, they will be rewarded at the polls. But they don't care about that. They care about securing Washington power.

I'm truly fed up with the absolute refusal of anyone in Washington to demand we put our fiscal house in order... now! Our children and our children's children will face a potential financial Armageddon if we don't turn things around now.

But they're going to vote and get away. And we all pay a price.

I'm sick and tired of everyone up here in DC trying to get the monkey off their back. Hey, Washington — how about getting the monkey of huge debt, big government and high taxes off the backs of hard-working Americans for a change?

Yours for liberty and fiscal sanity,

Tim Huelskamp

Member of Congress

P.S. I'm voting no and heading back to my family and my constituents in the morning. Kansans know I'll never back down. They know I take this problem seriously. And through 210 town halls since 2011, they tell me they are fed up with Washington "leadership." I am certain the Big First District of Kansas is not much different than the rest of the country. We must have the courage to fight for our values... not Barack Obama's.

How about it, citizens, are you ready to stand behind Rep. Huelskamp? He stands behind us. Now it is our turn!! Support him with all you can, and maybe a little more. If we ever needed honest Constitutional people in Washington D.C., we need them now. This IS an election year — if you all choose to sit at home and be stupid for some lame reason, our Country is a goner.

Remember GOD helps those who help themselves. Even GOD may need some help now and then and this is the time to help.

INTERESTING TAKE BY WAYNE ALLYN ROOT, Oct. 4, 2013

Wayne Allyn Root is a former Libertarian Vice Presidential nominee, successful entrepreneur, small business defender, business speaker, Capital Evangelist, and media personality, appearing on over 5000 interviews in the past 5 years.

Many Americans suspect Obama was foreign born. They are wrong. Boy, do I have a story to tell you.

I believe Obama is a fraud. But it has nothing to do with his birth. Obama's critics have it all backwards. They are looking in the wrong place. He isn't a foreigner portraying himself as an American. He's an American who fraudulently portrayed himself as a foreigner.

Months ago MSNBC television host Rachel Maddow spent 15 minutes on her national show calling me a "birther." I scratched my head. Because I'm not. Never have been, not for one minute. A "birther" believes Obama is a foreigner, not legally qualified to be president. I have never believed that.

I've always believed that Obama is 100 percent American. There I've said it loudly. I'm a leading critic of the President, but I've always believed him to be American born. He is as American as P.T. Barnum. And he lies and exaggerates like P.T. Barnum too. While Obama is not a foreigner, he is a fraud. Let me tell you the REAL Obama story.

In hundreds of media interviews, I've stated that even though Obama was my college classmate at Columbia University, Class of 1983, and we shared the same majors (Political Science and Pre-Law), I never saw, met, or heard of him. But the media has this story wrong too – I've never said that my conclusion is Obama did not go to Columbia. On the contrary, I believe Obama graduated Columbia and we are classmates.

Where was he hiding for those Columbia years? My educated guess is he was smoking pot and attending communist meetings, plotting the downfall of America and capitalism. Don't laugh, it worked!

While that was just an educated guess, Obama's own autobiography backs me up – he personally admitted often attending Socialist Party meetings at Cooper Union in downtown Manhattan. With Obama, even your wildest guesses are often proven true.

But forget why he wasn't seen at Columbia, the real mystery is how he ever got into Columbia. Stay with me – because this ties into the whole "foreign born" story.

I believe I've pieced together what happened at Columbia and here it is. I believe that Obama, an American citizen, committed fraud by portraying himself as a foreigner, in order to gain almost impossible admittance to prestigious Columbia University (and probably Occidental and Harvard Law School as well). He lied and used fraud (misrepresentation) to weasel his way in. Is that really a crime? Ask convicted criminal Frank Abagnale, the real-life star of the hit movie and best-selling book, "Catch Me If You Can." Portraying someone you're not is called fraud, and punishable by years in prison.

It doesn't take a psychology degree to figure out Obama's fragile mindset as a young man. He spent his youth living a fantasy, wanting desperately to be foreign-born and exotic, instead of just a normal American kid from a struggling single parent household. As a black teen with no dad, Obama undoubtedly faced racism and tough times. With help from mentors (like Frank Marshall, a communist, and Bill Ayers, a terrorist) he learned to despise his country of birth (America). As a dreamer and loner he started to believe his own story of exotic birth, then used that fantasy (aka fraud) to gain admittance to both Occidental and Columbia.

In too deep, he had no way out. Ironically, Obama, himself is the birther. He's the one who created the foreign-born storyline.

The fact the leftist media (Rachel Maddow, Jon Stewart, Mother Jones, and others) are so frightened of me, confirms that I'm close to the truth. It explains why Obama sent the IRS to viciously attack me not once, but twice (I won 100 percent victories in both audits). I've gotten too close to both the Obama Columbia scandal and the Obama IRS scandal. The closer to the target, the greater the flak.

Getting into an Ivy League University is extremely difficult and transferring in is virtually impossible. Every year 30,000 kids try to get into a college like Columbia. Only a small fraction are accepted (there were about 700 in our class of 1983). The battle is cutthroat. Virtually all 30,000 are straight-A students, have close-to-perfect SAT scores, and have achieved out-sized success at extracurricular activities too.

Into that dog-eat-dog competition stepped Barack Obama, a young man with no achievements, except an exotic story of Indonesian upbringing. Obama could NEVER have gotten into Columbia out of high school and his odds of transferring in later were even worse. Last year Columbia accepted only three transfer students in the entire world. Three. And I guarantee you all three had amazing scholastic and achievement records from other Ivy League colleges like Harvard, Yale, or Princeton.

Obama had none of that. By his own admission he was a poor student who smoked pot, rarely attended class, and got mediocre grades, from Occidental (a good but not great college). His only chance of transferring into Columbia was a made-up story of being an exotic foreigner.

It's pretty clear how Obama got into Columbia – I believe it was by lying. Obama was a smart kid, even then gave "great interviews," and talked (lied) his way into Columbia as an Indonesian student, using his Jakarta grade school transcripts (and perhaps Passport/citizenship papers) as proof. Columbia probably asked very few questions. They were thrilled to have an Indonesian student to brag about. They got what they wanted – "diversity."

That was Obama's edge that gained him admittance to the exclusive Ivy League world at Columbia and then Harvard Law School. But that also made him a fraud, who accepted admittance and foreign student aid under false pretenses.

Since selling this fraudulent story had succeeded beyond his wildest imagination, Obama was emboldened. So, he used it again to sell a book. Remember I'm not guessing here. It's a fact that his book agent described Obama to publishers as "Born in Kenya, raised in Indonesia.” There is physical proof of these exact words. Bleeding heart liberal Manhattan book publishers bought it hook, line and sinker.

All of this lying and fraud based on a fantasy built an impressive platform for young Obama. It got him the credentials he needed for a career in politics (Columbia, Harvard Law, professor at Chicago Law School). Next he used that platform to run for office. He won. Then, won again, becoming a U.S. Senator. People started touting him as a Presidential candidate. All the lies and P.T. Barnum-like self-promotion had worked for Obama. Too well. Now he had a deep, dark secret to cover-up.

His college records were his Achilles heel. He had to hide his tracks. His college records had to be sealed forever. Not because he was a foreigner and unqualified to be President, but because he was an American posing as a foreigner. That makes him a fraud unqualified to be President.

I would love for Mr. Obama to release his college records and prove me wrong. But of course he won't he can't. Because at the top of his college admissions transcript would be the two words that would destroy his Presidency and legacy: “Foreign Student.”

No, I'm not a birther. I believe Obama is 100 percent American born. While never questioning his birth, I've been in the media nonstop for five years questioning his allegiance to America, American exceptionalism, and Judeo-Christian values. And I've exposed his plan (created by husband-wife professors Cloward and Piven at Columbia) to destroy capitalism by overwhelming the system with spending, debt, and entitlements. That purposeful plan is proven by facts – please see record spending, record debt, and record entitlements under Obama. This is all about a plan to destroy America carried out by an American posing as a foreigner.

No, Obama isn't a foreigner. But we have a fraud in the White House.

I'm OK with whatever qualifies BHO for IMPEACHMENT!! I don't want him murdered, just get him out of the White House, out of the Presidency, out of the USA Government, never to return!!! And take Hillary with him!!

Black America: Stop The Insanity Posted by Lloyd Marcus on 2/3/14 at 10:15am

Remember that spiky-haired blonde lady fitness guru all over TV years ago? Her famous line was “Stop the insanity!” As a common sense thinking black conservative, I offer the same clarion call to fellow black Americans, “Stop the insanity!” Why do you continue sleeping with the enemy; voting for liberal Democrats whose policies imply that you are inferior, stupid and culturally immoral?

When the NAACP and Democrats claim that requiring a photo ID disenfranchises blacks, such implies we are stupid. For the life of me I do not understand why millions of blacks are not highly insulted by this absurd claim. Do blacks fly? Do blacks drive cars? Do blacks cash checks?

When Democrats and liberals accept over 70% out-of-wedlock births and fatherless households as a cultural norm in the black community, I am offended. And yet, I am called a sellout.

Liberal Democrats policies and programs have destroyed the black family and continue to devastate the black community. Meanwhile, blacks vote monolithic for Democrats and politically beat up anyone, black or white, who offers common sense solutions. For crying out loud, stop the insanity!

God forbid that a black person dare to think outside of the liberals' we-be-simpleminded-blacks-in-need-of “gov-ment”-intervention-to-survive box. Blacks becoming successful the old fashion way, by earning it, does not cut it with Democrats and liberals. Liberal media and Democrats grab such uppity blacks by their afros and politically drag their black derrieres kicking and screaming back to the liberal Democrat plantation.

There, such blacks are strung up in the public square with their naked backs exposed; made an example for any other conservative leaning blacks contemplating their escape. Beaten, battered and broken black conservatives are flogged within an inch of their political life with countless articles and operative pundits calling them a stupid n, Uncle Tom and traitor to their race.

A prime example of a black overlord of the Democrat liberal plantation attempting to rein in a black escapee is North Carolina NAACP Chapter President Rev. William Barber. Black race-baiters typically use Black History Month and Martin Luther King Day to trash America for purposes of extortion.

In celebration of MLK Day, Rev. Barber called black conservative and Tea Party American Senator Tim Scott a puppet, saying, “A ventriloquist can always find a good dummy.”

Senator Scott is about applying common sense solutions to issues plaguing our country. Thus, once again, any black who does not view themselves as a victim of an eternally racist white America, entitled and in need of lowered standards and expectations is a dummy; a tool of white Republicans — a stupid self-loathing n. This is not an exaggeration.

I have been called these names and worse by Democrats and liberals for many years, every time I suggest that blacks stop having babies out of wedlock, stop dropping out of school, stopping killing each other, stop blaming whitey and assume personal responsibility for their lives. Too me, this is true Black Empowerment.

I do not know what it is going to take for black America to see the light, to realize the betrayal of a majority of the modern civil rights coalition. If these so-called advocates truly gave a hoot about blacks, they would celebrate extraordinary black conservative achievers such as former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas and businessman extraordinaire Herman Cain. These blacks should be held high for black youths to see what can be achieved in the greatest land of opportunity on the planet via education, hard work and right choices.

And yet, these blacks are despised by white liberals and black civil rights leaders. Why? In a nutshell these blacks nuke the Democrats and liberals entitlement and big government narrative.

So while black America believes white conservative Republicans are burning the midnight oil plotting ways to keep blacks down, Democrats and liberals are the ones keeping them enslaved.

With the liberal mainstream media in the Democrats' back pocket as complicit liberal plantation gate keepers, I will continue praying for divine intervention while pounding on the plantation master's door. Let my people go! My fellow black Americans, it truly is time to stop the insanity.

Lloyd Marcus, Proud Unhyphenated American Chairman: Conservative Campaign Committee LloydMarcus.com

Thank You, TED CRUZ!!!

Conservative Campaign Committee

Barack Obama has now reversed himself and announced an extra-legal executive decree that delays part of ObamaCare. This marks a big win for Ted Cruz and congressional Republicans for this round of the fight over ObamaCare, but the battle has just begun.

Think about it, just a month ago Democrats and the media led by Barack Obama were smearing Ted Cruz for trying to stop/defund/delay ObamaCare. Senator Cruz warned that ObamaCare would be a disaster that would make the American people suffer immensely, and for that Cruz was called a “terrorist” a “hostage taker” an “extremist” and hundreds of other slurs.

And yet every single thing that Ted Cruz warned us about has proven to be true. It’s important for us to remind the American people of this fact, and to keep the pressure on to have the ObamaCare law overturned completely once and for all.

That’s why our “Thank You Ted Cruz” TV ad campaign is so important. We’re going to undo the damage Obama did to the approval ratings for Ted Cruz and congressional Republicans, and we’re going to keep the heat on Obama and his lies, deceits and attempts to “fundamentally transform” America.

We here at the Conservative Campaign Committee don’t ever believe in playing “defense” in the arena of politics. We’re not going to wait for the news media to admit that Ted Cruz was right and Barack Obama was wrong.

That brings to mind the saying of: “Til Hell freezes over.” The “media” will never admit they are wrong or don’t report happenings with any truth getting in the way. And to think we once trusted the Media to “tell it the way it is.”

Tea Party and conservative groups across the state of Wisconsin are calling on Gov. Scott Walker to lead the fight against the Common Core State Standards.

The Common Core State Standards have been adopted in more than 40 states and are being taught to the same benchmarks. While the standards are typically seen as more rigorous than what most states previously used, in Wisconsin, some critics are arguing the standards are too mild and represent an example of federal overreach.

On Tuesday, the groups sent Walker a letter asking him to encourage the legislature to pass a bill rejecting the Common Core Standards, even though the state adopted the voluntary benchmarks in 2010. The letter, which was signed by more than 60 groups, reads in part:

How have we had some of the best schools in the Country if our teachers are unable to write their own lessons to teach? If our teachers are able to write these lessons why do we need the Federal Government to dictate lessons to our teachers? It can't be because we "need" their money, because the percentage of Federal Aid to Education since 1993-94 year has been LESS than 10% of the total cost of Education. It seems to me when we are receiving LESS THAN 10% we really DO NOT NEED Federal monies at all. Why should Kansas Educators need/want money that will control our ways and results of educating our children K-12 for LESS THAN 10% of the cost of education? The answer seems simple to me – send any money we have received and any we could receive BACK to the control desiring Federal Government and go back to teaching our children in the way we know is best. Enough time has been wasted on this effort of the Federal Government to establish more control over the States.

ObamaCare - How to avoid the taxes/penalties - PART 18

TAKE ACTION NOW!

Many are not aware that if you are wanting to, going to or need to purchase an individual health insurance plan for 2014, you must purchase it by March 31.

After that, the only people who will be allowed to buy individual plans will be those who have a qualifying event. Those events typically are Birth, Adoption, Marriage, Divorce, Death, aging off a parent's policy or loss of coverage through your employer.

Under the new health care law and the many rules and regulations issued since, the old practice of waiting to buy a policy is GONE!

NOW, after March 31, if you want to buy an individual health policy you must wait until the open enrollment period that will happen at the end of 2014. At that time you will be able to sign up, but your new coverage will NOT START until January 1, 2015.

FARMERS BEWARE! (If you aren't, but know one, tell them)

Over the years I have worked with many farmers, their families and their employees.

ObamaCare - How to avoid the taxes/penalties - PART 19

By: David J Powell, CLU, ChFC, CFP, RHU (316) 320-2091)

CAUTION!!! CAUTION!!!

Individual open enrollment ends March 31, 2014 (unless there is ANOTHER delay). Between now and then many are thinking about going through the exchanges to get insurance either with a subsidy or by going onto the Medicaid roles in their state.

IT'S FREE OR ALMOST FREE!

Whenever the government, particularly with this administration, is involved, you need to be on the lookout for the strings attached.

If you live in one of the 36 states that did NOT choose to run their own exchange there is still the possibility that the law suits will be upheld citing Section 1401 of ObamaCare. These states have Federally run exchanges, NOT ones where enrolled taxpayer's live "and which were enrolled in through an Exchange established by the State under 1311 of the PPACA."

WHY IS THIS IMPORTANT?

That's because, if your State did not establish the exchange then there is no subsidy (tax credit). The "Premium Assistance Amount... is the amount equal to... the monthly premiums for... which cover the taxpayer... which were enrolled in through an Exchange established by the state under 1312..." of PPACA.

If the exact wording of the law is followed, then NO ONE in these 36 states is eligible for a subsidy (tax credit) since none of their Exchanges were established by the State. They were all established by the Federal Government!

Also, businesses would not owe penalties when no one can get subsidies. Taxes are only imposed when an employee gets a subsidy.

I hope you have been taking David's advice. He is so knowledgeable on insurance, any type of insurance. When you need help, David is there. I have referred friends to David and he is always there to help in any way he can. I have not known any other candidate for any office that helps everyone before they are even elected. Usually a candidate will tell you, "Contact me when I'm in office and I'll do what I can." Not David — he is there to help anyone and everyone NOW!! His opponent in the Primaries is a smooth talker, makes promises for AFTER the election. If she actually knows as much about Insurance as she says she does why isn't she helping people as David is? I believe it is one of two reasons: (1) She does know what to do, or (2) she just doesn't care enough.

February 6, 2014

Dear Friend,

Ronald Reagan liked to say, "the nine most terrifying words in the English language are, 'I'm from the government and I'm here to help.'" In a way, I get a chuckle about that as I write. For I'm convinced that just about every American in their heart understands the absurdity of relying solely on the government for anything.

A 'quick' trip to renew our driver's license reminds us every time how true Reagan's words were. Renewing our driver's license, though, is something we don't do all the time. It really doesn't put any part of our life in jeopardy.

But when it comes to our health and well-being — that's a different matter altogether. That's why so many Americans are fed up with ObamaCare. A recent Gallup poll found only 41% of Americans support the law - and nearly 1/5 say it is already negatively affecting their families. Millions are losing the healthcare contrary to Obama's promise false statement they could keep it--so outrageous a 'promise' it was identified as "The Lie of the Year."

But this week, the non-partisan Congressional Budget Office (CBO) released their latest analysis documenting the effects of ObamaCare are far worse than Pelosi, Reid and Obama claimed. ObamaCare will cause millions to lose their job as well - 2.5 million Americans will be thrown out of work.

How's that for government helping us?

The facts keep piling up that ObamaCare is unhealthy. Millions of families have lost their individual policies and millions more are set to lose their employer-provided coverage. Patients are learning they may not be able to see their preferred doctors. Hard-working Americans are seeing their wages and hours cut. And we're already hearing horror stories of people with cancer and other serious diseases being denied care.

And this CBO report should put to rest any doubts we need to repeal ObamaCare now.

Tens of millions of people have already given up looking for work in the Obama economy. The real unemployment rate isn't just about 7%. It's probably double that. Folks, these are Depression-level numbers. And CBO just showed us there's no end in sight as they also predict another $8 Trillion in new debt in the next decade — more than a trillion caused by ObamaCare alone.

With all this evidence, the Washington-types still drag their feet. They ignore the facts. ObamaCare is killing American jobs. It's poised to destroy America's healthcare system as well. It is busting the budget - sinking the economy - mortgaging our future.

This is why I will not listen to Obama's one-liners and Democrat jeers from the State of the Union: I refuse to give up our battle to pull out ObamaCare at its roots. This is why I ignore the attacks from the other Washington elite, the media and sometimes even members of my own party, who say to just give up... that it's too late.

No. I say. No. America and her future, our future, our kid's future is too important to let ObamaCare fester on our nation. Just as President Reagan refused to back down until Soviet Communism was left in the dustbin of history, we cannot give up.

As always--I thank you for your firm support and prayers. I won't let you down.

Yours in Liberty,

Tim Huelskamp

Member of Congress

P.S. Soon we will reach another 'debt ceiling' - which means Washington has again blown through hundreds of billions of deficit spending. And Obama and most of the other 'leaders' in Washington are demanding I add even more to their outrageous $17.3 trillion debt. But rest assured, unless they offer a solution to the real problem — spending more than we are taking in - I will NOT vote to raise the debt ceiling.

Did you read that and understand what Tim is saying to us? He has risked his all to help us in everyway he can. Tim does what he promised and continues to stand up for us in DC. Now there are people intending to run against him that say he has been doing wrong and they will change things. I for one, and I could name a lot more, do not want Congressman Tim Huelskamp replaced!!! He has been doing and will continue to do exactly what we sent him to DC to do!! Mr. Sherow thinks he can replace Tim Huelskamp -- not in a million years. Yes, we no longer have a Kansas Congressperson on the House Agriculture committee – That is NOT Tim’s fault – you can thank Speaker Boehner for that. It is a shame he lost that appointment because he kept his word to his constituents. In DC they think Party is more important than constituents, but constituents are who vote. That only shows us that the “big wigs” in Washington can’t buy him off. As I understand it there will be several running against Tim across the State. Read his letter again – think about what he says – Check out his voting record – Attend as many of his Town Hall Meetings as you can – Talk to people that know him personally — Stand up Proud and Firm in your support of Tim, while he is doing the same for us; donate whenever and as much as you can to support his campaign – it won’t be an easy one. I only wish we could trust the other 5 Kansas Congressional members in the same way we can trust Representative Tim Huelskamp. If we want our Country back we must do all we can to carry the ball here at home, while Representative Huelskamp continues the battle in DC. Let us PRAY we are successful in the coming elections to gain a better foothold at both State and National Level!! This may be our last run for Truth and Honesty!!

GOD BE WITH US ALL IN OUR FIGHT FOR FREEDOM!!

Just Thinking about “THE NEW YORK TIMES” & SENATOR PAT ROBERTS

By Sylva Nichols on 2/19/14

Boy, did they hit the nail on the head, Senator Pat Roberts has NOT been seen anywhere in Kansas in the last 20-25 years. Sen. Roberts has NOT meet with his constituents, has NOT discussed ANYTHING with constituents, has NOT told his constituents his opinion on ANYTHING or ASKED them their opinions on ANYTHING. I personally have called his office, written emails, and all I have received in return is his Newsletter from time to time – on a very irregular basis. Irregular like his visits to Kansas, and he claims to know Kansas better than anyone and know what Kansans want. Has he been consulting a mind reader?

I’m not making light of the times Senator Pat Roberts has certainly made a difference to Kansans; like in the ‘60’s when the government was closing military posts all across the country. The US Army 1st Infantry/Big Red 1 was moved to Germany!! Fort Riley was considered for closing entirely. At the time we were told it was because of the efforts of Senator Pat Roberts that Fort Riley stayed open, thus allowing Manhattan to continue operating almost as usual. Ogden had many businesses close, but was still there as Fort Riley built up again. Now the Big Red 1 is back home at Fort Riley where it belongs. But on the other hand with Fort Riley still here, we have lost hundreds of acres of farmland to the post. I’m also told that Sen. Roberts was very influential in bringing NBAF to KSU. Frankly, I’m not sure I want to thank him for that — time will tell. So while we considered these things being of great benefit to Kansas — well, I wonder.

As far as Sen. Roberts being “desperate” goes — he needs to be. He has reunited with the Kansas Republican Party and they have decided to back him in the 2014 elections. As far as I’m concerned that fact alone is good reason to NOT support Sen. Roberts. The State of Kansas Republican Party is not the same Party that supported Pat Roberts 30 or even 20 some years ago. The present Party has changed over the years – they are going toward the Liberals at a fast pace. No way am I supporting Pat Roberts for another term of office nor am I going to support the present Kansas Republican Party. Pat Roberts has been in Washington D.C. for too long and too much – meaning he is rarely in Kansas and even less conferring with constituents. Any information he has about Kansas and Kansans is hearsay and second hand. By his own admission he does NOT have a residence in Kansas; he uses a friend's address as his voting address and that has only been since Milton Wolf declared his candidacy to replace him. Has he been voting in Kansas illegally? Can you be registered to vote here and rarely, actually sitting foot in Kansas? I thought to vote in a state you had to be legal resident. How is using a friend's address a legal residence? Mrs. Roberts, the Senators wife, is a full time real estate salesperson. In the last few months Mr. Roberts has been in Kansas a “few” times. Well, three cheers for him. In an effort NOT to be accused of “not getting Lugared” he is paying his friend $300 a month to “allow him to stay overnight occasionally.” Gee, aren't we the lucky constituents that the man who is representing us in the U.S. Senate condescends to actually come to Kansas “occasionally”? Are you wondering, as I am, how and why he was reelected in 2008? I can tell you – because too many of us were still sleeping at that time. We are awake now and, Mr. Roberts, we can save you $300 a month by electing a residing Kansan to be our Senator!!

And just as a side thought – Gov. Sam Brownback supports Mr. Roberts – in my book that means I don't support Sam Brownback as Kansas Governor either. I'll do some checking – we might be able to include Senator Jerry Moran in this group. Senator Moran does reside in Manhattan, but only time we can get him to talk to us is when we “just happen” to be in McAlister's Deli at the same time. He has NOT responded to our invitations to meet with us.

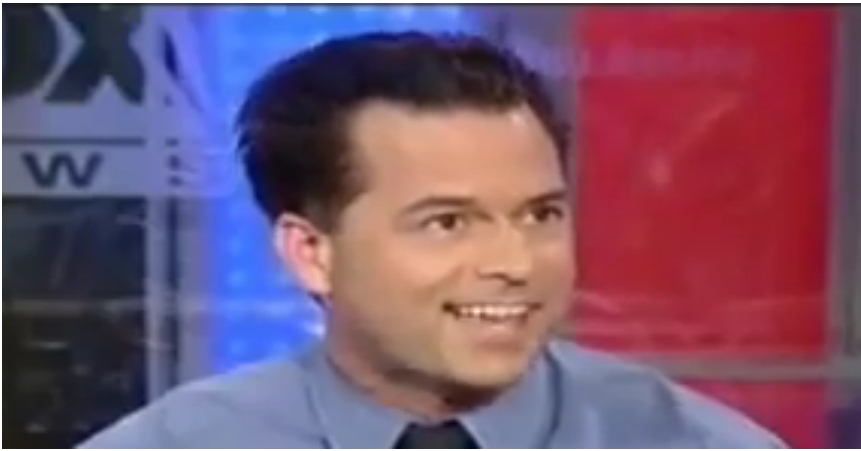

Mr. Roberts says, “Nobody knows the state better than I do.” That may have been true early on in his Senatorial career, but I dare say, “NOT NOW!” If he actually knew the state and the people living here he wouldn't be saying that. Things have changed in the state and within the citizens' mindset. He demonstrated that, by connecting himself with the Kansas Republican Party. Many, many Kansans are unhappy with the way the “Party” is responding to many happenings in our Country and State.

We must be conscious of where Pat Roberts started his political career. He started by working with Kathleen Sibelius father-in-law. Then when Kathleen decided to move to DC he went so far as to recommend her for the HealthCare position she is now in!! Oh, Yes, he did call for her resignation when she screwed it up so badly, but that wasn't until AFTER Milton Wolf announced he would be running against Roberts. Mr. Roberts did say he did NOT trust the United Nations and I will wholeheartedly agree with him on that. I also must “Thank” Mr. Roberts for standing up with Senator Ted Cruz for all of the 3-4 minutes that he did so. If that was as long as he could physically do so – well, maybe it is time he steps aside for a younger man. Gov. Brownback says Roberts needs to be, and is being active, aggressive, and conservative. If what he is doing meets Brownback's definition of those adjectives, then we can bid Brownback “Bye-Bye”, too. Oh, and Roberts didn't even attempt to adopt these attitudes until he found he was being challenged by a more active, aggressive, and conservative younger man – too little, too late in my opinion.

Senator Roberts, I thank you for your many years of service, but now while you still can, why don't you gracefully step aside for the a younger, updated, dedicated conservative. It would look much better for you to do that than to be beat down by a younger, active, aggressive, and conservative man.

Best wishes to you in your retirement. Just think, you won't have to pretend to be a Kansan any more and you'll save $300 a month rent on a place you don't live in and rarely visit.

With those thoughts in mind let's move on to who should hold this position of Kansas Senator in the Federal Congressional Senate. DR. MILTON WOLF from Lyons, Kansas, currently working in Eastern Kansas as a Radiologist has announced he will seek election to become a Kansas Senator, as we have reported before. Milton is a friendly, sincere, Doctor, husband, family man, completely dedicated to family, career, and betterment of his Country. While he is young compared to Pat Roberts he is well educated in these fields and will do his best for his Country and Countrymen by defending our Constitution and working toward the success of these endeavors for all. May GOD be with Milton and all of us working with/for him in achieving these goals.
