THE SHAMEFUL SEVEN | by Ken Cuccinelli II, President, Senate Conservatives Fund - July 16, 2014

Seven Republican senators have now been linked to the racial attacks against conservative Chris McDaniel in the Mississippi Republican Primary Runoff. The financial report for Thad Cochran's super PAC was released earlier this week and contains two alarming details.

First, it shows that the following seven GOP senators gave a total of $160,000 to Thad Cochran's super PAC:

1. Mitch McConnell (R-KY) — $50,000 — (202) 224-2541 — Facebook — Twitter
2. Bob Corker (R-TN) — $30,000 — (202) 224-3344 — Facebook — Twitter
3. Rob Portman (R-OH) — $25,000 — (202) 224-3353 — Facebook — Twitter
4. Orrin Hatch (R-UT) — $25,000 — (202) 224-5251 — Facebook — Twitter
5. Richard Burr (R-NC) — $20,000 — (202) 224-3154 — Facebook — Twitter
6. Roy Blunt (R-MO) — $5,000 — (202) 224-5721 — Facebook — Twitter
7. Mike Crapo (R-ID) — $5,000 — (202) 224-6142 — Facebook — Twitter

Second, it shows that the PAC then gave a similar amount to a liberal group to run racial attacks against Chris McDaniel.

These Senators fully-funded ads that urged Democrats to “cross over and vote in the Republican primary,” claiming that a McDaniel win would be a loss "for race relationships between blacks and whites."

They also helped pay for fliers that said, "The Tea Party Intends to Prevent You From Voting" and suggested McDaniel would roll back civil rights.

And perhaps worst of all, they helped pay thousand of dollars to Democratic activists to do so called "canvassing" to turn out votes for Cochran.

These seven Republican senators not only supported a 41-year incumbent who regularly votes with the Democrats, but they also funded a shadowy group to get Democrats to hijack the election.

How can these Republicans expect conservative voters to support them when they do such treacherous things to people in their own party?

HOLD THEM ACCOUNTABLE

These seven senators need to pay a heavy price for their actions. Here are several things you can do to hold them accountable:

Sign our petition to defund the National Republican Senatorial Committee (NRSC). Conservatives should not fund the establishment's campaign committee as long as they are working to crush us.

Call these senators and let them know that you're aware of the money they tried to secretly give to the shady super PAC in Mississippi and tell them they can't count on your support anymore.

Post comments on their Facebook pages & on Twitter to spread the word. We've provided the links above to make it easy.

Make a contribution to the Senate Conservatives Fund so we can hold them accountable. Nothing rattles the Senate Republican establishment more than when you give money to SCF.

Thank you for standing strong for freedom.

Sincerely,

Ken Cuccinelli II

At the original online post, one commenter said: “I saw this happening years ago. Those I thought were conservative thinkers proved me wrong, and more rinos were elected since then. I no longer indentify myself as a republican but as a conservative independent. I vote the person not the party... ‘nuff said.”

Another commenter said: “Cut this out. Why would you start this right before a chance to win back the senate? Meanwhile, Democrats are trying to win Georgia and Texas in addition to these states. This isn’t the time for a civil war inside a civil war.”

That first comment marks the distinction between a TRUE Republican and a RINO... [RINO stands for “Republican in Name Only”] To further explain, RINOs run for office with an R after their name, serve in office with an “R” after their name, vote at the ballot box with an R after their name, but serve, make decisions, vote on the floor & in Committee as if they have a “D” after their name.

In response to that 2nd comment: If I understand correctly, the commenter would appear to believe electing anyone to the Senate with an R behind their name would improve our chances to control the Senate. However, we are forced to contend with the RINOs. These are NOT the R’s we need to elect for control of the Senate. We MUST be sure the candidates we elect are CONSERVATIVE thinking/voting Republicans!!

ONCE UPON A TIME A REPUBLICAN WAS A REPUBLICAN – SADLY, THAT IS NOT SO ANY LONGER. The “Civil War” among the Republicans is a battle to keep Republicans what they have always been. Since Republicans have been switching back & forth, the TRUE Republicans have been called CONSERVATIVE Republicans. I wish we didn’t have to battle each other, but IF WE DON’T elect true Conservatives, we are NO better off when it comes to CONTROLLING the Senate than we are now. That’s what this article is telling us!

Articles like this one serve to expose the most glaring problems. The RINOs are paying huge amounts of money to get Democrats elected or the RINOs themselves. I’m deeply saddened to say that both our Kansas Senators are a willing part of the problem. As chairman of the Nat’l Republican Senate Committee [NRSC], our junior Senator Jerry Moran contrived for Senator Roberts and altogether 10 other most-senior GOP Senators to enable Haley Barber’s Mississippi Machine to commit these despicable and deplorable offenses against decency, honor and fair play. In the days since, neither Roberts nor Moran has offered a single word by way of apology or explanation for their involvement in The Mississippi Mess.

The following is a brief outline of Milton Wolf’s plan to replace ObamaCare:

Not ObamaCare, but PatientCare | by Dr. Milton R. Wolf - posted Monday April 29, 2013

The fatal conceits of ObamaCare are the absurd notions that the government can spend your money more wisely than you can and that bureaucrats are more capable than you are to make your own most intimate, personal decisions. The antithesis of government-centered ObamaCare is what I simply call “PatientCare.” Patients should be at the center of our health care universe, not President Obama and not the government.

Nearly two decades ago when I started medical school, I realized that no matter what the politicians do, or what administrators or anyone else say, all that ultimately matters is the care I provide to my patients. Everything else is secondary. At every level of a health care system, a simple question should be asked: What is best for patients? Not what’s best for government or lawyers or even doctors, but patients.

Patient-centered health care — PatientCare — looks like this:

Tax fairness: Eliminate ill-conceived taxes that have the perverse effect of preventing Americans from acting responsibly and purchasing individual insurance. If your boss pays for your insurance — with money he would have otherwise paid directly to you — then he understandably wants a say about your medical treatment, your private behavior and even your weight. Tax fairness would allow patients to purchase their own insurance and keep their employers out of their private examination rooms.

Insurance portability: When health insurance is decoupled from employment — as is auto insurance — you no longer risk being stuck in a job you hate for medical reasons. Moreover, when patients have their own policies, the insurance companies are finally forced to listen to them. If they don’t treat you right, you can fire them and hire another — just like you can your auto-insurance company.

Medicare Advantage: Nothing is more cruel than making promises to patients that cannot be kept and, quite simply, Medicare is insolvent and cannot keep its promises. The U.S. government is already the world’s biggest denier of medical claims. Part of the solution: Give patients the freedom to voluntarily enroll in premium-assistance programs like Medicare Advantage, where they own their own policies, rather than being subject to the rationing whims of unaccountable bureaucrats.

Health Savings Accounts: HSAs put patients in the driver's seat. They are incentivized to keep an eye on costs, yet funds are still available if — and this is the key — the patient himself decides it's necessary. Patients who avoid wasteful spending are rewarded by keeping the savings. Unlike government rationing, HSAs reduce spending without compromising health care results. As Dr. Ben Carson says, when a child is born, he should be given a birth certificate and a Health Savings Account.

End government monopolies: This is simple. Competition provides patients with more options, lower costs and better services. Equally true: Monopolies kill competition. Each state has created its own insurance monopoly, or at least cartel, by larding up health insurance with mandates to cover whichever services are offered by those providers who can hire the best lobbyists. These mandates protect the insurance companies and doctors at the expense of millions of patients who can no longer afford the high-priced insurance. The same holds true with medical licensing that protects doctors from competition. Your state should open its borders and allow reciprocity for physicians and carriers licensed in other states to practice medicine and offer more products to compete for your business.

Eliminate frivolous lawsuits: Patients pay a hidden “lawsuit tax” embedded in every medical procedure, pill and product, and hundreds of billions of dollars are wasted on defensive medicine. Patients should be protected not just from harmful doctors, but also from harmful lawyers, who are enriched by our current lottery lawsuit system.

Help the needy: ObamaCare unleashes the worst approach to those in need. It artificially hikes health care costs beyond their means and then provides welfare to families — even those earning up to $94,000 a year — that still won't cover the new, higher rates. That's a double disaster, since taxpayers who now have to pay for their own higher premiums also must cover the welfare, not only for the needy, but even for their affluent neighbors. This is a train with too many cabooses and not enough engines which will come crashing down the hill. For far less, we could, for example, simply give cash to needy families so they can purchase their own market-based insurance.

These are common-sense reform measures and, unlike ObamaCare, they remain true to one guiding principle: Put patients first.

The president's health care leviathan is already showing signs of collapse under its own weight. The ObamaCare lies of universal coverage, cost savings and deficit reduction have been exposed, and even one of its own architects now admits that the law is “beyond comprehension” and predicts a “huge train wreck” that, after its bad start, “will just simply get worse.” Indeed.

It's time to prepare for the post-ObamaCare era. It's time to build a system that finally puts patients first. It's time for PatientCare.

I've had people ask me about the “X-ray” ad Pat Roberts has run on TV against Milton. It is a ruse perpetrated by a frightened, non-conservative Senator, enabled by the liberal media. X-Rays CANNOT identify people. It happened years ago, and has been off the Internet for years. Very outdated!!

On July 20 we had a meet & greet with Milton Wolf, his family, and the crew traveling with him. They were on a 15-day meet & greet traveling thru Kansas on a 40-ft campaign bus. It was great to see them all again. It was his son's birthday – we “embarrassed” him by singing “Happy Birthday!” Milton & Karrie's daughter was also along.

*Also attending the event was Pat Robert's Campaign Manager, Leroy Towns. During the presentation, Milton asked Mr. Towns if he would schedule a debate with Pat Roberts, offering “anywhere, anytime, you name it.” But Towns declined in silence. Mr. Towns wouldn't say a word, just stood there with his arms crossed as everyone else watched. Towns' wife was on the other side of the gathering, recording the proceedings with her phone. When Milton's presentation was over, Mr. Towns and his wife turned to walk off, and one of our group approached to invite them to join us for the hot dog & ice cream snacks we were having. They both refused. Then I approached to ask if I could get a few comments from him to put in the Patriot's Truth newsletter. Towns said, "You'll just lie about it anyway." I reassured him, "I'll report the truth if I'm told the truth." At that point they turned their backs and slinked away. All too sad, but hardly surprising.

While we're discussing info from Pat Roberts' campaign, let's consider the newest TV-ad they've put out about Milton Wolf. The sum of it is saying Milton missed voting 28 times in his life that he could or should have. If State and/or Federal elections come up once every 2 years, Milton is 43 years old, and he couldn't vote until he was 18, that leaves 25 years of voting age. Every two years means 12 opportunities to vote, 13 at most. Think about it – Milton and Karrie Wolf are simply NOT OLD ENOUGH to have missed 28 City, State and/or National elections. The Wolf's assure us the times they neglected to vote were for city water bonds, School Board elections, and other secondary issues. Milton was going to medical school (3 years of that in Texas), raising 2 children, and simply didn't vote. They agree this shouldn't have happened, but assure us that City, State & National elections were NOT overlooked. If Pat Roberts' people are checking this issue for the Wolfs, it makes me wonder how many such elections Pat Roberts has missed in Dodge City, where he claims his legal residence/home. I can't imagine absentee ballots were used for those type of voting opportunities and we know Pat Roberts only comes to Kansas, to quote his own words, "every time he has an opponent, uh, I mean the chance!"

I'll vote for Milton Wolf to represent me in our Congressional Senate in Washington. Will you?

America and Kansas NEED Senators that will give deliberate thought to every decision they make once elected to office. Milton Wolf has been working and thinking for all citizens' benefit for YEARS. He has written hundreds of Conservative articles that have been published across the Country for years. Being Conservative is NOT NEW to Milton Wolf, nor is it a periodic "election-year conversion." Let's give him the opportunity to officially help repair our Health Care and our Country by electing him our Senator. We need at least ONE Senator who will stand up to Obama and his cronies!! Kansas needs at least ONE Conservative Senator. Once elected, Milton Wolf will be our ONLY Conservative Senator!!

ELECT DR. MILTON WOLF OUR NEXT KANSAS SENATOR!!!

KRIS KOBACH as SECRETARY OF STATE

by Samantha Poetter

Promises made. Results delivered. Trying to keep up with all that is happening in Kansas politics is not always easy, and with the upcoming election officials have done since they were voted into office. Sec'y Kobach ran on a promise of keeping Kansas elections clean, and he has kept his promise. Below are just a few of Sec'y Kobach's accomplishments since taking office.

- Sec. Kobach drafted and helped pass the most comprehensive election reforms in the country, the Secure And Fair Elections (S.A.F.E.) Act, which: 1. Requires Voter ID at the Polls. 2. Requires Proof of Citizenship for New Voter Registrants. 3. Provides anti-fraud protections for the casting of advanced ballots. The S.A.F.E. act passed with wide bi-partisan votes in both the Kansas House and the Senate. It has also been used as a model for similar legislation in other states.
- No State tax-dollars are used to fund the office of the Secretary of State, we are wholly fee-funded. 1. Kobach held the line on agency spending, and held yearly costs to less than fiscal year 2010. 2. Kobach returned over 20 million dollars to the State General Fund.
- Under Kobach's leadership, the Kansas Secretary of State's Office was one of only nine states to be recognized by Google for improving the efficiency and effectiveness of elections through open data. This was awarded in recognition of Kansas' contribution to the Voting Information Act.
- Kobach led efforts that resulted in Kansas becoming the first state in the nation to partner with private industry to allow accountants filing annual reports for corporations to do so from their desktop computers. This first-of-its-kind endeavor used the XML standard established by the International Association of Commercial Administrators.
- Finally, Kobach has quietly maintained those business practices that have worked, and he has improved other services provided to customers. 1. Kobach kept long-time administrative staff members to run the corporation, administration, publications and elections department. Many of these department leaders have over twenty-five years of experience and have served three and four former secretaries of state. 2. Calls to the Kansas Secretary of State's Office are answered by a "live person," 85% of all calls are handled and resolved in less than five minutes, and 97% of all calls are handled and resolved in ten minutes.

A quote from Kris Kobach: "It has been my honor to serve the people of Kansas as Secretary of State. I have delivered on the promises that I made to Kansans in 2010. Kansas now has the most secure elections in the country. And I have taken multiple steps to make Kansas the most business-friendly state in the nation.

We have simplified and streamlined our business forms, made business documents available online, and are developing a one-stop for all business filings in the state.”

The Republican opponent running against Kris Kobach has stated that he will reverse/do away with the Voting Law now in place in Kansas. His reason for doing this is because “it is NOT needed, we don’t have illegal voting in Kansas.” Are we to wait until we are overrun with illegal voting, as many other states are? I don’t think so – Kris Kobach is intelligent enough to put the law in effect BEFORE illegal voting is a problem!! Scott Morgan must be a plant by the Democrats, I pray I’m correct in saying that “only a Democrat would WANT Kansas to be overwhelmed with fraudulent voting, then consider correcting it.” Isn’t it better to take shots for an illness before you’re ill, so you DON’T become ill? HELLO!! The argument that proof of citizenship and photo ID is difficult to get is NOT VALID. How many other times & places do you need photo ID? Isn’t protecting our right to vote and where we vote important enough to be able to prove that right? WAKE UP? If you don’t have a birth certificate – talk to Kris Kobach’s office. He’ll help you!

KEEP KRIS KOBACH AS KANSAS SECRETARY OF STATE!!!!

The two enemies of the people are criminals and government, so let’s tie the second down with the chains of the Constitution so the second will not become the legalized version of the first.” ~ Thomas Jefferson

I don’t believe Mr. Jefferson would support having a Constitutional Convention (or “Convention of the States”) either. We should listen to Thomas Jefferson and the Founding Fathers. They gave us instructions in the Constitution for how to govern and build this great Country. It worked fine until we allowed the Federal Government far too much control over everything and everyone. It happened a little at a time. We, the people, must regain control!!

We received the following info on Tim Huelskamp’s opponent. We hope it helps decide who deserves your vote!

July 25, 2014

Dear Friends,

I get asked one question over and over - who is Huelskamp’s primary opponent? No one seems to know much about Alan LaPolice. The newspapers haven’t done any research, and our opponent hides much about his past. That’s unfortunate.

So, to help you out, here’s a short background on him. Feel free to share it.

Ten Things You Might Not Know about Alan LaPolice, candidate for Kansas 1st District

1. According to records at the Kansas Secretary of State, he has never voted in Kansas.
2. In fact, he registered to vote in Kansas only 9 months ago.
3. Before registering to vote in Kansas, he was a registered Independent in California.
4. LaPolice moved from California only 9 months ago.
5. In February 2014, LaPolice re-certified his California Teachers License (plans on returning to CA?)
6. As of March, LaPolice was still being paid by a California school district.
7. LaPolice is a long-time member of the liberal teacher’s union in California.
8. He receives income from the California Teacher’s Retirement System.
9. In addition to being a career Californian, LaPolice has an acting career in San Francisco, New York and perhaps even Ireland.
10. LaPolice’ nascent Hollywood career included a part in the pro-homosexual movie, The Art of Being Straight, which won top honors at the San Francisco LGBT Film Festival and the Philadelphia Gay & Lesbian Festival. Yours in Liberty,

Travis Couture-Lovelady

Proud, lifelong Kansan and Campaign Manager for Kansans for Huelskamp

P.S. Please call us at 620-242-1125 if you’d like some yard signs or bumper stickers. And if you can help us out with a contribution, please click here.

P.S.S. Don't be fooled. Some people will say and do anything to get elected. Please be sure to get out to the polls on August 5th. And when you do, please vote for our Congressman, Tim Huelskamp Regardless, of the info we receive on Tim Huelskamp's opponent, Rep. Huelskamp is the man we need to represent us in the U.S. House of Representatives. He has continued to represent us precisely in the way he promised when he was first elected. Tim is a Conservative – all the way!! He was taken off the Agriculture Committee because he would NOT knuckle under to House Speaker Boehner; Rep. Huelskamp did NOTHING wrong. HE HAS KEPT HIS PROMISES TO US, HIS CONSTITUENTS! Too few can honestly say that! It is House Speaker Boehner who needs to retire. If we want Conservative results coming out of the House of Representatives, we must have a Conservative Speaker leading them!! Kansas 1st District has terrific Conservative representation in Washington!! We MUST keep him!!
Vote for TIM HUELSKAMP for 1st District Representative on August 5th!

The Corporate Takeover of Kansas Education?

Now is the time for the voters of the 65th district to demand candidates (and others) to put a stop to the use of our children's education for political gain.

House Bill 2506, passed last session, helps underprivileged children of Title I schools and their parents. It enables eligible students to partner with Corporations to secure improved, parent-guided education. This opportunity is implemented in the form of scholarships to improve and further a child's education.

"The bill creates the Tax Credit for Low Income Students Scholarship Program Act, to provide eligible students with scholarships to pay all or a portion of tuition to attend a qualified school in Kansas."

Corporations will only get a 70% tax break, but the benefits obtained for the child's education are 100%. A win/win for all. In no way does HB 2506 provide for a corporate takeover of education as implied by candidate Lonnie Clark.

It is up to the voters of the 65th district to make an informed choice for their State Representative. The accuracy of the candidates' statements at election time is key. Representative Allan Rothlisberg has worked diligently for the past 2 years, for Kansas and his constituents. ~ Larry Tawney

Vote for Allan Rothlisberg, now, in advance voting, or on August 5th.

This issue is of special interest to Allan Rothlisberg's opponent, Lonnie G. Clark. However, it affects all of Kansas. Ask this question of YOUR favorite candidate. Be sure you & they are on the side of Kansas children.

VOTE FOR ALLAN ROTH LISBERG FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE!!

Why elect DAVID POWELL? Let Me Count the Reasons!!

I ask David Powell what I should put here for him. This is what He sent me!!

- I am David Powell. I am running for Kansas Insurance Commissioner because I care about you and I care about Kansas. Kansas is my priority.
- This election is about you, and what I can do for you
- I am Pro-life, a Life Member of the NRA, a Veteran who volunteered and proudly served-receiving my honorable discharge from the United States Air Force. I have been a Red Cross volunteer for 35 years, helping flood and tornado victims rebuild their lives!
- I HAVE EXPERIENCE, KNOWLEDGE AND A PASSION TO HELP YOU AND KANSAS. EXPERIENCE IS IMPORTANT TO YOU.
- I will put my 37 years who has worked face-to-face in all major lines of insurance as an Independent Insurance Agent to work for you and your neighbors. I haven't just sat behind a desk as an insurance executive to claim that as 30 years of experience. It is not the same as working with people face-to-face solving the problems of their daily lives. And I am NOT as a career politician. Finally, I am NOT misleading you with a CLAIM of working to repeal and replace ObamaCare when COMMON SENSE tells us that can't happen for 2 years because Obama will veto those attempts! What will the person making this claim do until then?? She doesn't know insurance, so how can she help YOU or KANSAS??

- TODAY – NOT 2 YEARS FROM NOW – I AM:
 - WORKING ON REDUCING COSTS of auto, home & health.
 - WORKING WITH OUR SHERIFFS TO REMOVE UNINSURED MOTORISTS FROM KANSAS ROADS!
 - WORKING TO BRING NEW INSURANCE COMPANIES TO KANSAS – with their NEW INSURANCE PRODUCTS – to compete for your business!
- I wrote the Mandate Lite law, passed & signed last year by Governor Brownback, so I know how to work with the legislators from Day One.
- I have run a large business, so the Insurance Commissioner's office will not be a challenge.
- I am healthy, despite the lies my opponents are telling. Two weeks ago I walked door to door with representatives in 104-degree temps for 4 hours. You can't do that if you are not healthy!
- I have read all of ObamaCare & written a book to share the loopholes in it, to use the law against itself today, not two years from now, when & IF we get a new President.
- I KNOW insurance, I have EXPERIENCE in insurance and I have a PASSION to help YOU and Kansas.
- This is not just a job – IT'S MY PASSION.
- Kansas needs the most qualified candidate in all lines of insurance for our new Commissioner. Not just an insurance company executive claiming experience, who has never held a license or worked face-to-face with you and your neighbors on your daily needs and concerns. Not just an agent with one focus, who doesn't have a clue when auto, home or commercial needs or concerns must be addressed. And certainly not a career politician! We've had 20 years of that, and what's that gotten us? A big mess! I will straighten out the mess.

Since the next Insurance Commissioner will affect the lives and livelihood of every individual, family and business in this state, isn't it time Kansas elected an Insurance Commissioner who knows ALL insurance?

My name is David Powell & I'm asking for your vote!

ELECT DAVID POWELL STATE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER!!!

Glen Hawkins is the True Conservative running for 64th District Kansas Representative!! He is running for this office on less than a shoestring. Glen didn't have a lot of money of his own, and didn't want to spend a lot of his friends' money for a campaign. So with the help of friends (Larry Tawney in particular), they walked every town in the 64th District. Today he is driving the back roads knocking on the doors of all the rural residents. Glen didn't buy signs because he figured if he talked to everyone he didn't need signs. I've previously published how he intends to help us in the State Legislature. He won't speak against his opponents, because that has nothing to do with what Glen will do when he is elected. Glen unequivocally opposes Common Core, and believes school control should be local. He believes our education moneys should be spent on the students, and on teacher salaries. Glen is in favor of the right to keep and bear arms, as well as low taxes, minimal Federal regulation, and little more from the State. He believes in the sanctity of life, and personal responsibility of citizens to provide and care for themselves. Glen believes our faith in God is essential to the moral fiber of our communities, our state and our nation. He is faithful to the 10th Amendment. Personally, I wish we had a whole State House full of men like Glen Hawkins. Maybe we can start a trend by electing this highly principled man to represent us in Topeka. I'm anxious to have him represent our District 64.

He had me in his corner when he stated: "Any time spent with a horse is never wasted time!"

VOTE FOR GLEN HAWKINS FOR 64th DIST. STATE REPRESENTATIVE!!!

From the website of Kansas 61st District Representative Ron Highland:

WELCOME

I'M RUNNING BECAUSE I BELIEVE THAT THE GOVERNMENT NEEDS TO BE MORE ACCOUNTABLE TO THE CITIZENS OF KANSAS. BUSINESSES HAVE HAD TO BECOME MORE EFFICIENT, WHILE OUR GOVERNMENT IS GROWING FURTHER OUT OF CONTROL.

I BELIEVE THAT WE MUST PROTECT OUR INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS:

- ☆ THE RIGHT TO LIFE & LIBERTY
- ☆ THE RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS
- ☆ THE RIGHT TO CHOOSE OUR OWN HEALTH CARE
- ☆ THE RIGHT TO RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

I ASK FOR YOUR VOTE NOVEMBER 6TH
- RON HIGHLAND

(Note that Rep. Highland is unopposed in the August 5th GOP primary election...)

And for Riley County Commissioner, we are recommending Ben Wilson of Ogden...

Ben's statement on Principled Leadership:

"Our community needs principled leaders that are willing to take a stand to keep local government fair, effective, and accountable. We need county commissioners that carefully consider issues and spending and make good decisions that enable a better future for our families and businesses."

[See more at Ben's website: <http://benwilsonks.com/>]

The 2014 election is so very important, the results can seal the destruction of the USA, or be the beginning of our salvation. Cheating, threatening, bullying, conniving and lying are the only ways we can be beaten – we must stand up, face them and fight back!! Historically, we come from fighting men & women – we must show the world what REAL Americans are like!!

Our very best chance is to stand and fight as one!!

Give us a chance to save our Country!

Vote conservative!!
