Hillary: "Religious Beliefs... Have to be Changed" to Accommodate Abortion

What's most important to politicians like Hillary Clinton is making sure women and girls have access to doctors who will willingly murder an unwanted, unborn or partially born child. At some point, they'll just erase this arbitrary distinction between partially born and born. I mean, come on. What difference, at this point, does it make whether this mass of tissue is halfway outside the woman's body or completely outside her body? If you can legally murder a half-born fetus, then why not a completely-born fetus? It's not like it has feelings.

If you find these murderous practices abhorrent, then you just need to change your personal convictions, maybe even your outdated religious beliefs, in order to protect and advance a woman's "right" to hire someone to murder her unborn and inconvenient child, according to Hillary Clinton. Of course, it's not "murder," because murder is illegal. Abortion is legal. Therefore, abortion is not murder. At least, that's what a highly educated liberal internet commenter told me.

The Daily Caller reported:

Democratic presidential candidate Hillary Clinton took a feminist tone on Thursday. She told attendees at the sixth annual Women in The World Summit that "deep-seated cultural codes, religious beliefs and structural biases have to be changed" for the sake of giving women access to "reproductive health care and safe childbirth."

"Far too many women are denied access to reproductive health care and safe childbirth, and laws don't count for much if they're not enforced. Rights have to exist in practice — not just on paper," Clinton said.

"Laws have to be backed up with resources and political will," she explained. "And deep-seated cultural codes, religious beliefs and structural biases have to be changed. As I have said and as I believe, the advancement of the full participation of women and girls in every aspect of their societies is the great unfinished business of the 21st century and not just for women but for everyone — and not just in far away countries but right here in the United States."

Clinton also took a shot at Republicans who oppose amnesty legislation, saying, "There are those who offer themselves as leaders who would deport mothers working to give their children a better life, rather than risk the ire of talk radio."

The event took place at the David H. Koch Theater at Lincoln Center. Media CEO Tina Brown welcomed other women to the stage, including Ashley Judd and Helen Mirren, as well as numerous female political activists and businesswomen.

What does someone like Hillary propose we do to change "deep-seated cultural codes, religious beliefs and structural biases?" Do we need to outlaw any religion that considers abortion murder? Outlaw Christianity? Or, they could redefine "human being" to exclude anyone who was a Christian. That way they could kill Christians, and it wouldn't be considered murder. And they could all live in their abortion utopia, which wouldn't last much longer than the Shakers, that religious sect that didn't believe in reproducing.

Religious Beliefs Have To Be Changed? That means changing or doing away with the Bible!! Not really surprising. Are the "Do Nothings" in America going to let this one slide by? Instead of doing away with or changing the Bible why not teach BIRTH CONTROL? GEE, that would be TOO easy!! That would be expecting those who continually reproduce to demonstrate responsibility for their actions. How difficult would it be to teach and even pay for BIRTH CONTROL instead of public funding abortion/murder? In other areas of law enforcement people are penalized/arrested/serve time in jail if they break the law. Can someone/anyone figure out a way to apply those thoughts to unprotected sex? Most law abiding/tax-paying citizens are tired to paying for "fatherless" babies. If they are "fatherless" how were they conceived? There is no such thing as a "fatherless" child; there are only males of the human race who are NOT MAN enough to be responsible for their actions. This must be stopped without murdering unborn babies.

Tear down the Statue of Liberty? -- *Worth reading and pondering!

For some reason, people have difficulty structuring their arguments when arguing against supporting the currently proposed immigration revisions. This lady made the argument pretty simple.

It was NOT printed in the Orange County Register... Newspapers simply won't publish letters-to-the-editor that they either deem politically incorrect (read below) or that disagrees with the philosophy they're pushing on the public. This woman wrote a great letter to the editor that should have been published; but, with your help, it will get published via cyberspace!

From: "David LaBonte"

My wife, Rosemary, wrote a wonderful letter to the editor of the OC Register, which, of course, was not printed. So, I decided to "print" it myself by sending it out on the Internet. Pass it along if you feel so inclined. Written in response to a series of letters to the editor in the Orange County Register:

Dear Editor:

So many letter writers have based their arguments on how this land is made up of immigrants. Ernie Lujan, for one, suggests we should tear down the Statue of Liberty because the people now in question aren't being treated the same as those who passed through Ellis Island and other ports of entry.

Maybe we should turn to our history books and point out to people like Mr. Lujan why today's American is not willing to accept this new kind of immigrant any longer. Back in 1900 when there was a rush from all areas of Europe to come to the United States, people had to get off a ship and stand in a long line in New York and be documented. Some would even get down on their hands and knees and kiss the ground. They made a pledge to uphold the laws and support their new country in good and bad times. They made learning English a primary rule in their new American households and some even changed their names to blend in with their new home.

They had waved good-bye to their birthplace to give their children a new life and did everything in their power to help their children assimilate into one culture. Nothing was handed to them. No free lunches, no welfare, no labor laws to protect them. All they had were the skills and craftsmanship they had brought with them to trade for a future of prosperity.

Most of their children came of age when World War II broke out. My father fought alongside men whose parents had come straight over from Germany, Italy, France and Japan. None of these 1st generation Americans ever gave any thought about what country their parents had come from. They were Americans fighting Hitler, Mussolini and the Emperor of Japan. They were defending the United States of America as one people.

When we liberated France, no one in those villages were looking for the French-American or the German-American or the Irish-American. The people of France saw only Americans. And we carried one flag that represented one country. Not one of those immigrant sons would have thought about picking up another country's flag and waving it to represent who they were. It would have been a disgrace to their parents who had sacrificed so much to be here.

These immigrants truly knew what it meant to be an American. They stirred the melting pot into one red, white and blue bowl.

And here we are with a new kind of immigrant who wants the same rights and privileges. Only they want to achieve it by playing with a different set of rules, one that includes the entitlement card and a guarantee of being faithful to their mother country.

I'm sorry, that's not what being an American is all about. I believe that the immigrants who landed on Ellis Island in the early 1900's deserve better than that for all the toil, hard work and sacrifice in raising future generations to create a land that has become a beacon for those legally searching for a better life.

I think they would be appalled that they are being used as an example by those waving foreign country flags.

And for that suggestion about taking down the Statue of Liberty, it happens to mean a lot to the citizens who are voting on the immigration bill. I wouldn't start talking about dismantling the United States just yet.

Rosemary LaBonte

My understanding of this letter is that in the past when Ellis Inland was being used to bring in immigrants, there was a completely different attitude toward "coming to the USA" and becoming a citizen. Back in the 1900's people came here to improve their lives, to become citizens of the USA and live by the laws in the USA. They wanted to blend in and be law abiding citizens, living within the laws of the United State of America, to become one with the natural born citizens. They did NOT want to be pointed out as immigrants, new comers, different, needing help. They came to be citizens of this great Country, just like those born here, have homes, jobs, send their children to local schools, to speak, live, love, fight, be one with natural born citizens. Those coming in the last 10 to 20 years or more came with the intent of bringing what they liked about their Country with them. They do NOT want to blend in and "be one" with natural born citizens. They want all the advantages of being citizens of the USA, but they want to keep what they deem as "the best of their Country" alive. If they have a problem they expect the United States Government and the citizens to treat them "special", better than, natural born citizens. These "new" immigrants need to decide which Country they want to be citizens of – the one where they were born or the one they have moved to. They can't have it both ways. The decision is theirs; only they can make that decision. If they do NOT want to be law abiding citizens of the USA then they need to go back to their country and not expect special treatment from US citizens and law enforcers. I do NOT believe in special treatment of these people or anyone. We all live under the same laws and should be treated the same; laws should be applied the same to everyone. Perhaps, some schooling and learning of laws needs to be required before citizenship is granted. I don't know what needs to change or how to go about it, but the attitude of incoming immigrants needs to change. Maybe there needs to be a trial-and-error time before citizenship is granted; if they can't live the part they can be sent back where they came from. GOD Bless the USA and those who are true to Her and Her people.

Here is an article proving my point!!

Ref: <http://teapartyorg.ning.com/forum/topics/somali-refugees-on-lifetime-welfare-demand-their-free-food-adhere>

Somali "refugees" on lifetime welfare demand their free food adhere to Islamic Law – Whoever said "beggars can't be choosers" never met Somali Muslim refugees in Minnesota!

This is Obama's fault because these folks think they are entitled & the Demo run the state of Minnesota!

These Muslim imports in Minneapolis are now demanding a tax-funded "halal" non-pork food shelf at a free food pantry for the poor.

As if it's not bad enough that nearly all the "American" Muslims who have joined ISIS have been Somalis from Minneapolis, their relatives here are demanding that Americans adhere to the same Sharia Laws the Islamic State fighters are trying to impose throughout the Middle East.

A group of first-generation Somali Americans says they need help in developing a food-shelf that specializes in healthy foods that do not contain pork or pork byproducts. "It's about human rights also, basic human rights to get the proper food and also healthy food," said Imam Hassan Mohamud.

"Human rights"? Seriously? Their arrogance and self-entitlement has to be unprecedented (WELL, maybe Alison Redford) for a group on the public dole.

We have read for several years now how Muslim cab drivers in Minneapolis and several airports have kicked out blind passengers with guide dogs (dogs are "unclean" in Islam), or customers transporting alcohol. They came here, taking advantage of American generosity, and return it by enforcing their own brand of Sharia Law upon us.

Liberals in Minnesota have bent over backwards for them, setting up foot-washing basins in their airport and even at a university, in response to their demands.

But as with most appeasement, these refugees keep making more demands. Now it is for "halal" products (meat slaughtered with Islamic prayers and a ban on pork).

The Imam leading this protest actually claimed that there were beans with pork in it and this was a "literacy" issue that required more government funding and special halal-compliant beans.

But one commenter on the article from Minneapolis wrote:

As someone of Somalia settled in Minneapolis/St. Paul after Bill Clinton, George W. Bush and later Barack Obama imported them and funded massive "refugee" Centers there. Welfare, schools, hospitals and social services have been crushed by the burden of immigrants who lack the most basic skills to live in a modern society.

This is hardly the first demand Somalis have made on the good people of Minneapolis. When the influx of Somali thugs naturally resulted in a massive increase in crime a decade ago, Somalis demanded a $48 million Sharia-compliant "youth center" to keep Somali gangs "out of trouble".

Tens of thousands made use of the food-shelf recently – I can tell you that most of the food doesn't contain pork. I hear what they are saying about a literacy issue, but can't the food-shelf people just point out the cans of pork and beans? Besides, the food-shelf is based on donations!

This is not about Muslims "making do" or getting help on what to eat. The Koran demands that Muslim make any country they live in adapt to them and Sharia Law.

The last thing they plan to do is assimilate.

Each refugee already has access to the following: Temporary assistance for Needy Families, Medicaid, Food Stamps, Supplemental "Security" Income, Social Security Disability Insurance, Administrative Developmental Disabilities (ADD), Child Care and Development Fund, Independent Living Program, Low-Income Housing, Energy Assistance, Post-Secondary Education Grants, Refugee Assistance Program, Title IV, Foster Care, Title XX, Social Services Block Grant Fund, and, from our lovely State Department... $2200/month for every man, woman & child.

My solution is: IF YOU DON'T LIKE IT HERE, WE SUGGEST YOU GO BACK TO THAT PLACE YOU LEFT. SINCE OUR FOOD ISN'T GOOD ENOUGH FOR YOU, THEN LEAVE. NOBODY IS STOPPING YOU. ALSO, YOU LOOK LIKE YOU EAT WAY TOO MUCH ALREADY. These solutions are NOT mine, but I wholeheartedly agree!

IT IS OUR COUNTRY, SO WE SET THE RULES, NOT YOU. YOU NEED TO START ACTING LIKE VISITORS HERE AND DO IT OUR WAY. OTHERWISE, LEAVE. WE WON'T MISS YOUR WHINY ***!!!

"The Government is merely a servant — merely a temporary servant; it cannot be its prerogative to determine what is right and what is wrong, and decide who is a patriot and who isn't. Its function is to obey orders, not originate them." — Mark Twain (1835-1910)

29 April 1945 - Liberation day at Dachau

"Several hundred yards inside the main gate, we encountered the concentration enclosure, itself. There before us, behind an electrically charged, barbed wire fence, stood a mass of cheering, half-mad men, women and children, waving and shouting with happiness - their liberators had come! The noise was beyond comprehension! Every individual (over 32,000) who could utter a sound was cheering. Our hearts wept as we saw the tears of happiness fall from their cheeks." ~ Lt. Col. Walter Fellenz, 42nd Infantry Division of the US Seventh Army.

The infamous Nazi concentration camp at Dachau was liberated on Sunday, April 29, 1945, just one week before the end of World War II in Europe. Two divisions of the US 7th Army, the 42nd Rainbow Division and the 45th Thunderbird Division, participated in the liberation, while the 20th Armored Division provided support. Dachau consisted of a main camp just outside the town of Dachau and 123 sub-camps and factories in the vicinity of the town. The next day, on 30 April 1945, at around 9 o'clock in the morning, one of the major Dachau sub-camps at Allach was liberated by the 42nd Division.

On the day before the liberation of the main camp, the acting Commandant, Martin Gottfried Weiss, had turned everything over to a group of prisoners called the International Committee of Dachau and had then fled along with most of the regular guards that night. According to Arthur Haulot, a member of the International Committee, German and Hungarian Waffen-SS soldiers were then brought to the camp in order to surrender the prisoners to the U.S. Army.

Both the 45th Thunderbird Division and the 42nd Rainbow Division were advancing on April 29, 1945 toward Munich with the 20th Armored Division between them. Dachau was directly in their path, about 10 miles north of Munich.

The 101st Tank Battalion was attached to the 45th Thunderbird Division. According to this source the 101st arrived in the town of Dachau at 9:30 a.m. on April 29th.

According to Lt. Col. Felix Sparks, the commander of the 157th Infantry Regiment of the 45th Thunderbird Division, he received orders at 10:15a.m. to liberate the Dachau camp, and the soldiers of I Company were the first to arrive at the camp around 11a.m. that day.

April 29, 1945 – a GRAND day to celebrate!! There is no doubt of the thankfulness of this day. It was before I was old enough to understand the wonder of it at the time. Since then I have met so many that were in the Armed Forces of the USA and thank them for their service. American Citizens have much to be thankful for along with those set free on this day and those that gave them that freedom. Thank you, GOD for those fighting men!!

White Lives Matter

By Lloyd Marcus

May 3, 2015

A picture online showed a white Baltimore business owner with friends standing guard in front of his establishment, protecting his livelihood from looters. The men were armed with ax handles and a big dog. The image gave me a queasy feeling.

Don't get me wrong – I sympathize with the business owner.

Baltimore's wacko liberal mayor ordered police to “let them loot, it's only property.”

Therefore, the business owner has every right and even a responsibility as a man to protect his property. Yes, despite our wimpified country, I believe that testosterone managed responsibly is a good thing.

My concern is how the left's attitude that white lives don't matter is affecting national race relations.

Blacks, whites, and national race relations are merely pawns in the left's chess game to nationalize (government control) America's supposed evil racist police departments.

Whites have been on the left's hit list for decades. Disguising their assault on whites, the left portray themselves as champions of black empowerment. They claim that blacks are victims of racist America, despite elephant-in-the-living-room evidence proving otherwise. Meanwhile, the left is engaged in a shock-and-awe attack on whites, with public schools teaching kids to feel guilty for being white (white privilege). Lord, help us.

Hardcore leftists are a minority. Nevertheless, portraying various groups as abused victims has been an extremely effective strategy for cramming their socialist/progressive agenda down the throats of the majority.

Here's another example:

Most Americans drank the left's Kool-Aid of deception, believing them when they said all homosexuals are asking for is tolerance. Suddenly, out of nowhere, Americans are petrified to disagree with same-sex marriage. Americans have witnessed the slaughter of enough Christians, fed to the lions in the Coliseum of public opinion, to be silenced and quake in their boots.

Decades of leftist indoctrination have caused a generation of young people to believe that white Americans, particularly heterosexual white males, are the greatest source of evil in the world.

White cops' killing a black person is extremely rare (1%). Blacks routinely kill blacks, over 90% of the time. Stats confirm that the left has created a climate in which it is open season on whites, sparking violent assaults on whites across America.

So tell me, folks: how long can you poke innocent people (whites) in the eye with a stick, expecting them not to push back?

Despite what evil lowlifes on the left say, we have come a long way, baby, in regards to national race relations. American white voters (blacks being too small a percentage to make it happen) elected a black man to be leader of the free world two times.

My concern is that the left's relentless abuse may be causing Battered White American Syndrome, creating a new era of racial resentment.

I am hearing from more and more frustrated, angry whites. These folks are not Aryan Nation white supremacist nutcases. They are decent average white Americans who are tired of being used and abused, solely to further the left's anti-God, anti-American, government-controlling-everyone-and-everything agenda.

I wish I could end with a great solution. All I know to do is continue praying for my country, speaking out, and standing up against evil. I pray you will do the same.

A Balanced Budget For A Stronger America:

This week, the House passed the FY2016 Budget Conference Report. The budget represents a positive vision for our future to grow our economy and create jobs.

Not only does this budget achieve balance, but it ensures a strong national defense, allows for expanded American energy, and cuts waste. Passing a budget that balances demonstrates our commitment to the American people to make responsible decisions and help hardworking families get ahead.

I spoke this week at the Republican Leadership Press Conference on what balancing our budget means for hardworking Americans. To watch my remarks click here.

Senate Mark-up of 529 Legislation:

On Wednesday, the Senate Finance Committee passed S.335 unanimously out of committee. S.335 was introduced by Senator Chuck Grassley (R-IA) and is the companion legislation to my bill to expand [the] 529 college savings plan. This comes after my bill passed in the House with a remarkable 401 votes.

This vote means we are now one step closer to better helping hardworking families save and plan ahead for the costs of attending higher education. After the American people overwhelmingly rejected the President's plan to tax 529 college savings accounts, Congress has come together and moved legislation that would help folks around the country struggling to send their children to college.

The bipartisan backing of this proposal demonstrates the depth and sincerity of the sentiment over the value of expanding 529 college savings plans. This is only the third tax markup that the Senate Finance Committee has held this session which signifies just how important this legislation is to the American people, and I believe there is a real chance this legislation becomes law providing real aid to families struggling with spiraling tuition costs.

Expanding Access To Rural Anesthesiology Care:

This week, along with Congressman Emanuel Cleaver II (D-MO), I introduced the Medicare Access to Rural Anesthesiology Act of 2015, which would expand access to rural anesthesiology care.

This bill would help ensure folks living in these communities have a system that functions efficiently and cost-effectively, and encourages physicians to practice there.

I'm proud of this bipartisan legislation that would increase access to anesthesiology professionals for our rural hospitals and start tackling the growing shortage of anesthesiologists in rural communities.

Hillary Says "Every Life Matters" But Supports Murdering Unborn Babies

Recently, we reported about Hillary's statement on people needing to change their religious beliefs to make way for abortion rights. She has quite a record when it comes to supporting abortion. According to LifeNews.com:

Most recently, Hillary Clinton pushed abortion at a fundraising event in March. One year to the date after she received an award from the radical pro-abortion group Emily's List, presidential candidate Hillary Clinton gave the keynote address last night at a fundraiser for the organization.

Clinton's speech came at the Emily's List 30th Anniversary Conference and Gala in Washington, D.C. and she applauded the work of the abortion activists, who strongly support taxpayer funding of abortions and strongly oppose banning late-term abortions.

"When I look at this room, I see leaders," Clinton said, encouraging the pro-abortion activists gathered to redouble their efforts.

Last year, Clinton said that to be pro-woman is to be pro-abortion. Clinton, at a pro-Braley rally, told voters in Iowa, "It's not enough to be a woman, you have to be committed to expand rights and opportunities for all women." Because Joni Ernst (who defeated Braley) thinks unborn babies should be protected, she isn't committed to expanding rights and opportunities for women?

Meanwhile, Clinton launched a new partnership with the Gates Foundation that supports abortion. The Gates Foundation operated by Bill and Melinda Gates supports abortion and the Planned Parenthood abortion business.

Clinton says she admires Margaret Sanger, the racist founder of the Planned Parenthood abortion business.

In her role as Secretary of State Clinton pressed for abortion on an international scale. As recently as June 2012, she was upset the document the United Nations adopted at its Rio+20 conference did not promote abortion by inserting terms like "reproductive rights" into the language of the text.

But recently she was quoted as saying that "everything we are seeing in Baltimore, when parents fear for their children, when smoke fills the skies above our cities, when police officers are assaulted, even then, especially then, let's remember the aspirations and values that unite us all, that every person should have the opportunity to succeed, that no one is disposable, that every life matters," said Clinton, who is pro-life matters" in a speech she gave at Columbia University. The context was the need for the criminal justice system to change, CNS News reported

In her speech at Columbia on Wednesday, Clinton said, "We need to start understanding how important it is to care for every single child as though that child were our own."

Clinton concluded her speech by asking the audience to pray for Freddy Gray's family and other men who lost their lives "unnecessarily."

"Please join me in saying a prayer for the families of Freddy Gray and all the men whose names we know and those we don't, who have lost their lives unnecessarily and tragically, and in particular today, include in that prayer the people of Baltimore and our beloved country," she said.

Every life? Or just some? Obviously, some people are more equal than others. Otherwise, Hillary would be standing up for the most innocent and defenseless of all, those who are not yet born.

But see, in the same way that our culture and public officials have redefined marriage, they've also redefined "person" to exclude anyone who hasn't been born yet. If you haven't been born yet, you're not a person. You're not human, and as such, you have no protection under the law. You're just a mass of tissue. So, if someone decides to kill you, it's not murder, because you're not a person. You become a person only when you've been completely born. Even if you're partially born, you're not a person yet.

But this is also where things get a little foggy. If someone were to kill a pregnant woman and the child she's carrying, the murderer is charged with two counts of homicide. An OB doctor could be sued for malpractice if something were to happen to his patient's unborn child. Obviously, there's still a part of the law that views this unborn "meat bag" as a person.

At some point, they'll have to reconcile these contradictory aspects of the law. More than likely, they'll move in the direction that allows more people to be murdered under the guise of human rights.

Want to know something scary? She may be the next president if we don't forward this to everyone we know.

So many things about Hillary Clinton are simply horrifying. While she was Secretary of State she demonstrated exactly how she would be as a President. Hillary would NOT hesitate an instant to be the cause of anyone's death. Well, maybe she would protect some of her family members – MAYBE. Can YOU tell me how many deaths she has had a part in already? Hillary Clinton is the one who sold the Russians a share of whatever uranium is mined in the USA. What? Yes, you heard me – she SOLD a percentage of uranium mined in the USA. Now for the crowning touch – how much money did the United States of America get for this sale? NOT ONE RED CENT!!! THE MONEY WENT TO THE CLINTON FOUNDATION!!! Honestly, I am NOT lying – the USA received no money for the sale of Uranium to be mined in the USA – it ALL went to the Clinton Foundation Fund. Hillary Clinton has NOT ONLY contributed greatly to the deaths of 5 great Americans, but sold a percentage of the uranium to be mined in the USA for a monetary profit to herself and family. After all of that she maintained an illegal private computer server for her personal use for Governmental issues with no backups and then when it looked as thou she could be caught with it she destroyed it – or said she did. With all of this in mind how many of you are going to vote for Hillary Clinton? I pray I can count on that being a big 0. Stop and think about some of the things she has done over the years to bring harm and death to America and Americans. We DO NOT want this murderer and criminal in the controlling seat of America and the World. LET US PRAY!!!

Dear Friend,

Today is the National Day of Prayer. All across our great country, millions of Americans will take time out of their days to pray for our nation and its leaders. My staff and I are taking part in ceremonies across the First District.

Our nation has always recognized prayer as integral for its people. George Washington, as General of the Continental Army, ensured that his troops observed May 6, 1779 as a day of a day of "fasting, humiliation and prayer" in accordance with the proclamation by the Continental Congress.

Today, I encourage you to consider the words found in Philippians 4:6:

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God."

If you have attended any of my Town Halls, you know that I close each one asking for your prayers for our nation, for my family and for wisdom in the decisions I make. Angela and I are grateful for your prayers, and we urge you to continue praying that our nation will be safe, prosperous, free and pleasing to Him.

Sincerely,

Congressman Tim Huelskamp

The Clintons are “the kind of people that can find a loophole in a stop sign.” ~ George Will

I’d like every Democrat presidential candidate to be asked if they believe Americans have the right to draw Mohammad.

“Colored people are like human weeds and need to be exterminated.” ~ Margaret Sanger, and:
“I admire Margaret Sanger enormously, her courage, her tenacity, her VISION...” ~ Hillary Clinton

Since I didn’t know who Margaret Sanger was, I thought I should identify her. Please note, she did all of these things supporting Birth Control...

Info on Margaret Sanger, Activist

- Margaret Higgins Sanger was an American birth control activist, sex educator, and nurse. Sanger popularized the term birth control, opened the first birth control clinic in the United States...
from Wikipedia
- Born: September 14, 1879, Corning, NY
- Died: September 6, 1966, Tucson, AZ
- Organizations founded: Planned Parenthood, American Birth Control League, International Planned Parenthood Federation
- Movies: Birth Control
- Children: Grant Sanger, Stuart Sanger

How about that – Ms Sanger and I have the same Birthday, Sept 14. We both believe in Birth Control. Right there our similarities stop. I believe in birth control — as in preventing conception. Ms Sanger takes it a bit further as in ending the life of the infant. If it isn’t desirable, just get rid of it (“It” being the infant). In the info I found about Margaret Sanger, she never mentioned “abortion”, however she continually spoke of ending babies lives. Let me quote: “Plan for Peace” from Birth Control Review (April 1932, pp. 107-108):

Article 1. The purpose of the American Baby Code shall be to provide for a better distribution of babies... and to protect society against the propagation and increase of the unfit.

Article 4. No woman shall have the legal right to bear a child, and no man shall have the right to become a father, without a permit...

Article 6. No permit for parenthood shall be valid for more than one birth. — Remember the Chinese did this for a time. “America Needs a Code for Babies,” 27 Mar 1934

Give dysgenic groups [people with “bad genes”] in our population their choice of segregation or [compulsory] sterilization. This is the belief of the woman Hillary Clinton “admires enormously”. Those Ms Sanger considered having “bad genes” were people of color and the “working” class. Can you see Agenda 21 here? Is that what YOU WANT for the USA?

Sanger consistently promoted racist ideals with a contemptuous attitude. “Birth control MUST lead ultimately to a cleaner race. “ Taken from April 1932 Birth Control Review, pg 108. This is the woman Hillary Clinton “admires enormously, her courage, her tenacity, her VISION...” Hillary Clinton is NOT the woman I want for President? I can’t speak for YOU, but I don’t want anyone who admires a person willing to kill babies as a birth control measure to hold ANY office in the USA, let alone President!! GO AWAY HILLARY!

The following is probably the best e-mail I've seen in a long, long time. It has been attributed to Lewis Napper, a Jackson, Mississippi computer programmer. He didn't expect his essay — a tart, 10-point list of "rights" Americans don't have — to become an Internet legend:

We the sensible people of the United States, in an attempt to help everyone get along, restore some semblance of justice, avoid more riots, keep our nation safe, promote positive behavior, and secure the blessings of debt-free liberty to ourselves and our great-great-great-grandchildren, hereby try one more time to ordain and establish some common sense guidelines for the terminally whiny, guilt ridden, delusional. We hold these truths to be self evident: that a whole lot of people are confused by the Bill of Rights and are so dim they require a Bill of NON-Rights.

ARTICLE I: You do not have the right to a new car, big screen TV, or any other form of wealth. More power to you if you can legally acquire them, but no one is guaranteeing anything.

ARTICLE II: You do not have the right to never be offended. This country is based on freedom, and that means freedom for everyone — not just you! You may leave the room, turn the channel, express a different opinion, etc.; but the world is full of dummies, and probably always will be.

ARTICLE III: You do not have the right to be free from harm. If you stick a screwdriver in your eye, learn to be more careful; do not expect the tool manufacturer to make you and all your relatives independently wealthy.

ARTICLE IV: You do not have the right to free food and housing. Americans are the most charitable people to be found, and will gladly help anyone in need, but we are quickly growing weary of subsidizing generation after generation of professional couch potatoes who achieve nothing more than the creation of another generation of professional couch potatoes.

ARTICLE V: You do not have the right to free health care. That would be nice, but from the looks of public housing, we're just not interested in public health care.

ARTICLE VI: You do not have the right to physically harm other people. If you kidnap, rape, intentionally maim, or kill someone, don't be surprised if the rest of us want to see you get the blue juice.

ARTICLE VII: You do not have the right to the possessions of others. If you rob, cheat, or coerce away the goods or services of other citizens, don't be surprised if the rest of us get together and lock you away in a place where you still won't have the right to a big screen color TV or a life of leisure.

ARTICLE VIII: You do not have the right to a job. All of us sure want you to have a job, and will gladly help you along in hard times, but we expect you to take advantage of the opportunities of education and vocational training laid before you to make yourself useful.

ARTICLE IX: You do not have the right to happiness. Being an American means that you have the right to PURSUE happiness, which by the way, is a lot easier if you are unencumbered by an overabundance of idiotic laws created by those of you who were confused by the Bill of Rights.

ARTICLE X: This is an English speaking country. We don't care where you came from; English is our language. Learn it!

Lastly,

ARTICLE XI: You do not have the right to change our country's history or heritage. This country was founded on the belief in one true God. And yet, you are given the freedom to believe in any religion, any faith, or no faith at all; with no fear of persecution. The phrase IN GOD WE TRUST is part of our heritage and history, sorry if you are uncomfortable with it.

Dear Friend,

Earlier this year, I became the Chairman of the Tea Party Caucus in the House.

I regularly bring Members of Congress together with individuals in Washington who represent grassroots conservatives from all across America. My goal as Chairman is to keep a regular line of communication open for elected officials to hear the concerns of millions of conservative Americans who cannot afford to hire high-powered lobbyists.

At my invitation, radio host Mark Levin joined us for our meeting yesterday.

For those of you who are not familiar Mark Levin's background, he served in the Reagan Administration, including a stint as Chief of Staff to Attorney General Ed Meese. He is the President of Landmark Legal Foundation and has a daily talk radio show with eight million listeners.

Levin challenged the Members of Congress in attendance to understand the frustration of millions of Americans who do not know why Washington continually fails them. Levin called on conservatives to continue to stand up against forces in both parties who want to protect big government at the expense of ordinary Americans. And, Levin reminded us that when conservatives do the right thing in Congress, millions of Americans are behind us.

The alternative to standing on principle, he reminded us, is to accept President Obama's ongoing effort to destroy America.

Levin called on us to start by reclaiming the Congressional power of the purse to reign in the administration and stop amnesty, ObamaCare and the massive $18.2 trillion debt we are leaving behind to our children.

I came away from that meeting encouraged and energized to continue to fight for what is right in Washington even when members of my own party make it difficult. Like Mark Levin, I believe that you, my fellow grassroots conservative, want Washington to stop adding to our debt and to hold President Obama accountable to the Constitution.

Will you join me and Mark Levin in this fight by making your most generous contribution today? Every \$250, \$100 or \$25 will help ensure my campaign is well funded to withstand an attack by the deep-pocketed special interests who want to protect the status quo in Washington.

Yours in Liberty,
Congressman Tim Huelskamp

I was NOT aware that Congressman Huelskamp was Chairman of the TEA Party Caucus in the House – sounds good to me. He has served us well, as this letter confirms. We need to let our Congressional members that we are backing both of these Conservative men as they represent us in Congress. STAND UP AND BE COUNTED!! As sad as it may be – It takes money to make these efforts. Please contribute when possible. They are standing up for us – the least we can do is to support them as they support us!!!
