Illinois & Oklahoma: Two States In The Middle Of America! I thought these two states made for an interesting contrast.

PART 1 - ILLINOIS

"A State with No Republicans"

Some interesting data on the 'state' of the State of Illinois. There are more people on welfare in Illinois than there are people working. Chicago pays the highest wages to teachers than anywhere else in the U.S. Their average pay is $110,000/year. Their pensions average 80 - 90% of their income. Wow, are Illinois and Chicago great or what?

Be sure to read to the end. I've never heard it explained better. Perhaps the U.S. should pull out of Chicago?

Body count: In the last six months, 292 killed (murdered) in Chicago. Conversely, 221 killed in Iraq. Note: Chicago has one of the strictest gun laws in the entire US.

Thank you for the combat zone in Chicago. Of course, they're all blaming each other. Can't blame Republicans; there aren't any!

Here's the Illinois>Chicago chain of command:

Â· President: Barack Hussein Obama.

Â· Senator: Dick Durbin.

Â· House Representative: Jesse Jackson Jr.

Â· Governor: Pat Quinn.

Â· House leader: Mike Madigan.

Â· Atty. Gen. Lisa Madigan (daughter of Mike).

Â· Mayor: Rahm Emanuel.

The "leadership" in Illinois - all Democrats.

Now, let's get ALL the facts while we are at it:

Chicago school system rated one of the worst in the country [yet their teachers are the highest paid!].

Can't blame Republicans; there aren't any!

State pension fund $78 Billion in debt, worst in country [teacher pensions average 80 - 90% of their $110,000 income!]. Can't blame Republicans; there aren't any!

Cook County (Chicago) sales tax 10.25% highest in country. Can't blame Republicans; there aren't any!

This is the political culture that Obama comes from in Illinois. And he is going to 'fix' Washington politics for us?

George Ryan is no longer Governor, he is in prison.

He was replaced by Rob Blagojevich who is, by the way, also in prison.

And Representative Jesse Jackson Jr. resigned and, that's right, he and his wife are both in prison.

The Land of Lincoln, where our Governors and Representatives make our license plates. What?

As long as they keep providing entitlements to the population of Chicago, nothing is going to change, except the state will go bankrupt before the country does.

"Anybody who thinks he can be happy and prosperous by letting the Government take care of him better take a closer look at the American Indian."

Don't forget Detroit, another great example of a democratic empire.

With all that bad news, there is hope, so let's go to:

PART 2 - OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA- may soon have plenty of new residents! THIS IS REALLY INTERESTING, AND TRUE... PLEASE READ IT!

Oklahoma is the only state that Obama did not win even one county in the last election. While everyone is focusing on Arizona's new law, look what Oklahoma has been doing!!!

Oklahoma law passed, 37 to 9, an amendment to place the Ten Commandments on the front entrance to the state capitol. The feds in D.C., along with the ACLU, said it would be a mistake. Hey this is a conservative state, based on Christian values - HB 1330. Guess what?? Oklahoma did it anyway.

Oklahoma recently passed a law in the state to incarcerate all illegal immigrants and ship them back to where they came from unless they want to get a green card and become an American citizen. They all scattered - HB1804. This was against the advice of the Federal Government, and the ACLU, they said it would be a mistake. Guess what?? Oklahoma did it anyway.

Recently Oklahoma passed another law to include DNA samples from any and all illegal's to the Oklahoma database, for criminal investigative purposes. Pelosi said it was unconstitutional - SB1102. Guess what?? Oklahoma did it anyway.

Several weeks ago, Oklahoma passed a law, declaring Oklahoma as a Sovereign state, not under the Federal Government directives - joining, Texas, Montana and Utah as the only states to do so. More states are likely to follow: Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, the Carolinas, Kentucky, Missouri, Arkansas, West Virginia, Mississippi and Florida. Save your confederate money, it appears the South is about to rise up once again - HJR 1003.

The federal Government has made bold steps to take away our guns. Oklahoma, a week ago, passed a law confirming people in this state have the right to bear arms and transport them in their vehicles. I'm sure that was a setback for the criminals. The Liberals didn't like it. But... Guess what? Oklahoma did it anyway.

Just this month, the state has voted and passed a law that ALL drivers' license exams will be printed in English and only English, no other language. They have been called racist for doing this, but the fact is that ALL of the road signs are in English only. If you want to drive in Oklahoma, you must read and write English. Really simple.

By the way, the Liberals don't like any of this either. Guess what? Who cares? Oklahoma is doing it anyway.

If you like it, pass it on; if you don't, then... pass it on anyway. Guess what: the people I'm sending this to will send it on. Well, at least the ones who love and believe in freedom will send it one.

Thanks!

I found this quite interesting. My only regret of this is that Kansas is NOT a part of it.

I found this on internet and thought it was worth thinking about – think about it!!

I didn't write this, but wish I had.

I am the Democratic-Republican-Liberal-Progressive's Worst Nightmare. I am a White, Conservative, Tax-Paying American, Gun Owning Veteran That's me!

I believe in the freedom of religion, but I don't push it on others.

I believe in American products and buy them whenever I can

I believe the money I make belongs to me and not some liberal governmental functionary, Democrat or Republican, that wants to share it with others who don't work!

I'm in touch with my feelings and I like it that way!

I think owning a gun doesn't make you a killer; it makes you a smart American.

I think being a minority does not make you noble or victimized, and does not entitle you to anything. Get over it!
 I believe that if you are selling me a Big Mac or any other item, you should do it in English.
 I believe there should be no other language option for business.
 I believe everyone has a right to pray to his or her God when and where they want to.
 I don't hate the rich. I don't pity the poor.
 I know wrestling is fake and I don't waste my time watching or arguing about it.
 I've never owned a slave, nor was I a slave. I haven't burned any witches , and neither have you!
 I believe if you don't like the way things are here, go back to where you came from and change your own country!
 This is AMERICA ...We like it the way it is and more so the way it was ...so stop trying to change it to look like Russia or China, or some other socialist country!
 If you were born here and don't like it... you are free to move to any Socialist country that will have you. I believe it is time to really clean house, starting with the White House, the seat of our biggest problems.
 I want to know which church is it, exactly, where the Reverend Jesse Jackson preaches, where he gets his money, and why he is always part of the problem and not the solution? Can I get an AMEN on that one?
 I also think the cops have the right to pull you over if you're breaking the law, regardless of what race or color you are.
 And, no, I don't mind having my face shown on my driver's license, nor the necessity of showing my identification, to conduct normal business or especially to vote . I think those policies are more than prudent....
 I think if you are too stupid to know how a ballot works, I don't want you deciding who should be running the most powerful nation in the world for the next four years.
 I dislike those people standing in the intersections trying to sell me stuff or trying to guilt me into making 'donations' to their cause....Get a job and do your part to support yourself and your family!
 I believe that it doesn't take a village to raise a child, it takes a man and woman ...
 I believe 'illegal' is illegal no matter what the lawyers, or progressive Democrats think!
 I want to return this country to the values it was founded on, and prospered under for over 200 years!
 My Country...I hope this offends all illegal aliens.
 Hypothetically, my great, great, great, great grandfather watched and bled as his friends died in the Revolution and the War of 1812.
 My great, great, great grandfather watched as his friends died in the Mexican American War.
 My great, great grandfather watched as his friends and brothers died in the Civil War.
 My great grandfather watched as his friends died in the Spanish-American War.
 My grandfather watched as his friends died in WW I.
 My father watched as his friends died in WW II and the Korean War.
 I watched as my friends died in Vietnam , Panama and Desert Storm.
 My son watched and bled as his friends died in Afghanistan and Iraq ..
 None of them died for the Mexican Flag.
 Everyone of them died for the American flag, and liberty.
 Texas high school students raised a Mexican flag on a school flag pole, other students took it down. Guess who was expelled...the students who took it down.
 California high school students were sent home on Cinco de Mayo because they wore T-shirts with the American flag printed on them.
 Enough is enough!
 This message needs to be viewed by every American; and every American needs to stand up for America .
 We've bent over to appease the America-haters long enough.
 I'm taking a stand.
 I'm standing up because of the hundreds of thousands who died fighting in wars, preserving liberty and freedom both, here and in other besieged nations, for the American flag, and all she stands for..
 If you agree, stand up with me.
 And shame on anyone who tries to make this a racist message.
 AMERICANS, stop giving away Your RIGHTS! Let me make this clear! THIS IS MY COUNTRY!
 This statement DOES NOT mean I'm against immigration!
 YOU ARE WELCOME HERE, IN MY COUNTRY, welcome to come legally, as did my grandparents:

1. Get a sponsor
2. Learn the LANGUAGE, as immigrants have in the past!
3. Live by OUR rules!

4. Get a job!
5. Pay YOUR Taxes!
6. No Social Security until you have earned it and Paid for it!
7. NOW find a place to lay your head!

If you don't want to forward this for fear of offending someone, then YOU'RE PART OF THE PROBLEM!
 We've gone so far the other way . . . bent over backwards not to offend anyone.
 Only AMERICANS seems to care when American Citizens are being offended!
 WAKE UP America !!!

You may pass this on if you so desire, if not may your fingers cramp!

I MISS MY COUNTRY! God Bless America!

The Danger of the "Black Lives Matter" Movement

Heather Mac Donald

Author, The War on Cops

For almost two years, a protest movement known as "Black Lives Matter" has convulsed the nation. Triggered by the police shooting of Michael Brown in Ferguson, Missouri, in August 2014, the Black Lives Matter movement holds that racist police officers are the greatest threat facing young black men today. This belief has triggered riots, "die-ins," the murder and attempted murder of police officers, a campaign to eliminate traditional grand jury proceedings when police use lethal force, and a presidential task force on policing.

Even though the U.S. Justice Department has resoundingly disproven the lie that a pacific Michael Brown was shot in cold blood while trying to surrender, Brown is still venerated as a martyr. And now police officers are backing off of proactive policing in the face of the relentless venom directed at them on the street and in the media. As a result violent crime is on the rise.

The need is urgent, therefore, to examine the Black Lives Matter movement's central thesis – that police pose the greatest threat to young black men. I propose two counter hypotheses: first, that there is no government agency more dedicated to the idea that black lives matter than the police; and second, that we have been talking obsessively about alleged police racism over the last 20 years in order to avoid talking about a far larger problem – black-on-black crime.

Let's be clear at the outset: police have an infeasible obligation to treat everyone with courtesy and respect, and to act within the confines of the law. Too often, officers develop a hardened, obnoxious attitude. It is also true that being stopped when you are innocent of any wrongdoing is infuriating, humiliating, and sometimes terrifying. And needless to say, every unjustified police shooting of an unarmed civilian is a stomach-churning tragedy.

Give the history of racism in this country and the complicity of the police in that history, police shootings of black men are particularly and understandably fraught. That history informs how many people view the police. But however intolerable and inexcusable every act of police brutality is, and while we need to make sure that the police are properly trained in the Constitution and in courtesy, there is a larger reality behind the issue of policing, crime, and race that remains a taboo topic. The problem of black-on-black crime is an uncomfortable truth, but unless we acknowledge it, we won't get very far in understanding patterns of policing.

Every year, approximately 6,000 blacks are murdered. This is a number greater than white and Hispanic homicide victims combined, even though blacks are only 13 percent of the national population. Blacks are killed at six times the rate of whites and Hispanics combined. In Los Angeles, blacks between the ages of 20 and 24 die at a rate 20 to 30 times the national mean. Who is killing them? Not the police, and not white civilians, but other blacks. The astronomical black death-by-homicide rate is a function of the black crime rate. Black males between the ages of 14 and 17 commit homicide at ten times the rate of white and Hispanic male teens combined. Blacks of all ages commit homicide at eight times the rate of whites and Hispanics combined, and at eleven times the rate of whites alone.

The police could end all lethal use of force tomorrow and it would have at most a trivial effect on the black death-by-homicide rate. The nation's police killed 987 civilians in 2015, according to a database compiled by The Washington Post. Whites were 50 percent – or 493 – of those victims, and blacks were 26 percent – or 258. Most of those victims of police shootings, white and black, were armed or otherwise threatening the officer with potentially lethal force.

The black violent crime rate would actually predict that more than 26 percent of police victims would be black. Officer use of force will occur where the police interact most often with violent criminals, armed suspects, and those resisting arrest, and that is in black neighborhoods. In America's 75 largest counties in 2009, for example, blacks constituted 62 percent of all robbery defendants, 57 percent of all murder defendants, 45 percent of all assault defendants – but only 15 percent of the population.

Moreover, 40 percent of all cop killers have been black over the last decade. And a larger proportion of white and Hispanic homicide deaths are a result of police killings than black homicide deaths – but don't expect to hear that from the media or from the political enablers of the Black Lives Matter movement. Twelve percent of all white and Hispanic homicide victims are killed by police officers, compared to four percent of all black homicide victims. If we're going to have a "Lives Matter" anti-police movement, it would be more appropriately named "White and Hispanic Lives Matter."

Standard anti-cop ideology, whether emanating from the ACLU or the academy, holds that law enforcement actions are racist if they don't mirror population data. New York City illustrates why that expectation is so misguided. Blacks make up 23 percent of New York City's population, but they commit 75 percent of all shootings, 70 percent of all robberies, and 66 percent of all violent crime, according to victims and witnesses. Add Hispanic shootings and you account for 98 percent of all illegal gunfire in the city. Whites are 33 percent of the city's population, but they commit fewer than two percent of all shootings, four percent of all robberies, and five percent of all violent crime. These disparities mean that virtually every time the police in New York are called out on a gun run – meaning that someone has just been shot – they are being summoned to minority neighborhoods looking for minority suspects.

Officers hope against hope that they will receive descriptions of white shooting suspects, but it almost never happens. This incidence of crime means that innocent black men have a much higher chance than innocent white men of being stopped by the police because they match the description of a suspect. This is not something the police choose. It is a reality forced on them by the facts of crime.

The geographic disparities are also huge. In Brownsville, Brooklyn, the per capita shooting rate is 81 times higher than in nearby Bay Ridge, Brooklyn – the first neighborhood predominantly black, the second neighborhood predominantly white and Asian. As a result, police presence and use of proactive tactics are much higher in Brownsville than in Bay Ridge. Every time there is a shooting, the police will flood the area looking to make stops in order to avert a retaliatory shooting. They are in Brownsville not because of racism, but because they want to provide protection to its many law-abiding resident who deserve safely.

Dear Friend,

Last week I continued the tradition of holding a town hall in every county by visiting 9 more communities here at home. While people remain worried about what Obama and the rest of Washington will do to our rural way of life next, I still come away from each of these listening sessions encouraged by the spirit of Kansans. And I also had the privilege of receiving the endorsement of the National Right to Life Committee for my 100% pro-life voting record and commitment to standing up for the unborn.

Unfortunately, the week ended with my ethically-challenged multi-millionaire CEO opponent launching another negative attack. He blatantly twisted the words of the House Ag Chairman in a desperate attempt to lie about what I have been doing to fight for Kansas values in Washington.

And in his email, the hospital CEO/doctor is so frantic that now he claims to be a fifth-generation farmer.

I wish I could say I was surprised by his tactics.

Maybe my opponent did it to try and change the subject from his ethics problems. For three years in a row, he blatantly ignored the law when filing his mandatory financial disclosure forms after he was appointed by Governor Brownback to a commission in Kansas. He attempted to hide some of the millions he raked in from the health care system as a hospital CEO. After he got caught, he said it was an accident. Seriously, what Kansans accidentally forgets - for three years in a row -- about millions in mutual funds, stocks and even real estate in California?!

With that kind of excuse, I can tell you he'd fit right in with the Washington Insiders.

For the past six years, GOP leadership promised to go to Washington and pass conservative solutions. But for the past six years, they refused to take on Obama, refused to stop Common Core, refused to defund Planned Parenthood, refused to stop Obamacare -- the list could go on and on.

These "campaign conservatives" will say anything to get elected and offer excuses when they refuse to keep their promises. But I can tell you we do not need any more campaign conservatives in Washington.

Will you help me continue to fight to do the things conservatives said we would do? Will you make a contribution of \$25, \$50, \$100 or even \$250 right now?

Watch your newspaper/TV for some of these reports. Do some hunting on line and understand what Rep. Huelskamp is saying. Dr. Marshall is as unethical as they come – NOT a person to vote for!

Michelle Obama has almost completed her school lunch takeover. In fact, she's just 15 days away from controlling your kids school lunches and fining schools if they don't meet HER standards. And if you don't act, she will win. That's why I'm asking YOU to contact the Obama Administration and tell them to quit fining your schools.

Michelle wants there to be a bureaucrat looking under every milk carton for an excuse to fine your school. From the classroom to the lunchroom, the Obama Administration wants to control every aspect of a child's education.

Make no mistake about it, this latest regulation isn't about your school's lunches. It's not about making your children healthy. It's about federal control of your schools, and that's why you've got to stop this regulation. Contact the Obama Administration and tell them to quit fining your schools,

I have to give Michelle Obama credit for taking an interest in school lunches. Many school lunches had more carbs than needed. However, Michelle went too far in cutting carbs and calories from the children's lunches. Children are very active, they use lots of calories that need to be replaced to allow the children to learn, play, and be normal active kids throughout a full day. According to the Constitution the Federal Government (and the first family) are NOT to interfere with the schools in the states, cities of America. For the ability of receiving money from the Federal Government our schools have sold out our children. With that being said – we do NOT need the Federal Government to be controlling our schools. Since the Feds have started issuing ultimatums to our schools to "earn" money from the Feds our schools have continually going down hill. We can NOT afford to continue this downhill spiral of our children's learning. Buck up folks – pay your own bills; educate your own children. Our kids don't need fancy buildings, high paid teachers that can't develop the needed curriculum. We need school district employees that can fulfill the terms of their position and that can develop and teach the curriculum our children need to be productive members of our Country as adults. GOD be with our Schools, School Boards & teachers.

Sylda,

Common Core has been a complete and utter failure. It's done irreparable harm to your schools, and Obama doesn't care. All he cares about is power. And that's what Common Core is, a blatant power-grab by a greedy president.

Sylda, FreedomWorks will not stop fighting Common Core until we get this terrible program out of every school in America. But we can't do it without you. If you're still committed to making 2015 Common Core's last year let us know by signing our petition today.

Teachers, parents, and students hate Common Core. They've all personally felt the damage this terrible program has done to our education system. And that's why we've got to end Common Core in 2016! Confirm your commitment to ending Common Core by signing our petition today.

Let's get freedom working in our schools again.

For Freedom
Adam Brandon

President & CEO, FreedomWorks

I don't sign anything on line!! That signature can be taken and put wherever THEY want it to be. I am very against Common Core. I will do whatever I can to get our school children OUT of Common Core. Please, help all that are working toward that goal. Talk to your school and those working to STOP COMMON CORE!!

NOW SHE IS A TEACHER!!!

In September of 2005, on the first day of school, Martha Cothren, a History teacher at Robinson High School in Little Rock, did something... not to be forgotten. On the first day of school, with the permission of the school superintendent, the principal and the building supervisor, she removed all of the desks in her classroom. When the first period kids entered the room they discovered that there were no desks.

'Ms. Cothren, where are our desks?'

She replied, 'You can't have a desk until you tell me how you earn the right to sit at a desk.' They thought, 'Well, maybe it's our grades.' 'No,' she said. 'Maybe it's our behavior.' She told them, 'No, it's not even your behavior.'

And so, they came and went, the first period, second period, third period. Still, no desks were in the classroom. Kids called their parents to tell them what was happening and by early afternoon television news crews had started gathering at the school to report about this crazy teacher who had taken all the desks out of her classroom.

The final period of the day came and as the puzzled students found seats on the floor of the desk-less classroom. Martha Cothren said, 'Throughout the day no one has been able to tell me just what he or she has done to earn the right to sit at the desks that are ordinarily found in this classroom. Now I am going to tell you.'

At this point, Martha Cothren went over to the door of her classroom and opened it. Twenty-seven (27) U.S. Armed Services Veterans, all in uniform, walked into that classroom, each one carrying a school desk.

The Vets began placing the school desks in rows, and then they would walk over and stand alongside the wall. By the time the last soldier had set the final desk in place those kids started to understand, perhaps for the first time in their lives, just how the right to sit at those desks had been earned.

Martha said, 'You didn't earn the right to sit at these desks. These heroes did it for you. They placed the desks here for you. They went halfway around the world, giving up their education and interrupting their careers and families so you could have the freedoms you have. Now, it's up to you to sit in them. It is your responsibility to learn, to be good students, and to be good citizens. They paid the price so that you could have the freedom to get an education. Don't ever forget it.'

By the way, this is a true story. And this teacher was awarded the Veterans of Foreign Wars Teacher of the Year for the State of Arkansas in 2006. She is the daughter of a WWII POW.

Do you think this email is worth passing along so others won't forget either, that the freedoms we have in this great country were earned by our U.S. Veterans? I did.

Let us always remember the men and women of our military and the rights they have won for us.

This Lady is a REAL Teacher!!! It seems most public school teachers don't even know how to develop curriculum when they are ask to. Our school Board tells us they have ask our 7th and 8th grade teachers to develop classes that will help our students develop the skills to prepare for "life" if they are not going to attend college or to be prepared for college IF they are. NOTHING has happened. What do you do when you come up against this situation?? GOD be with all students.

Dear Friend,

My opponent purchased air time on TV and radio this week. He is tapping into the millions he made as a hospital CEO in a vain attempt to buy a congressional seat. And as expected, he's trying to convince voters that he's a conservative.

But what should voters know about Roger Marshall?

On the issue of life: Roger Marshall wrote a personal check to a pro-abortion Washington PAC that works to elect pro-abortion Democrat candidates. This is the same organization where he served as a distinguished "fellow" at the same time the group was backing Planned Parenthood and fighting our pro-life laws in Kansas.

On the issue of Obamacare: Roger Marshall has said on numerous occasions he would not commit to repeal Obamacare and that he even believed some parts were working and should be kept or possibly even expanded.

You know my proven conservative record. You know I have stood up for life when even members of my own party were afraid to do so. You know I have voted over 50 times to repeal part or all of Obamacare and would never vote to expand it. I knew it was a bad law before it was implemented.

But the simple fact is, I need your financial support right now so I can go toe to toe with my multi-millionaire opponent on the airwaves. Would you contribute \$25, \$50, \$100 or \$250 right now to help me fight back?

Yours in Liberty,

Tim Huelskamp

We don't want anyone replacing Rep. Tim Huelskamp, but under NO circumstances we do want him replaced by someone who personally helps finance ABORTION as Roger Marshall does!! When Kansas was struggling to Defund Planned Parenthood in our State, Roger Marshall, the person opposing Rep. Huelskamp, was writing personal checks TO FUND the same organization!! Spread the word – Roger Marshall is a liar, a fraud, and supports ABORTION!! Help Congressman Tim Huelskamp as much and often as you can. Keep Rep. Huelskamp in office!!!

This quote from Daniel Webster could not be rediscovered at a better time!!

“I apprehend no danger to our country from a foreign foe. Our destruction, should it come at all, will be from another quarter. From the inattention of the people to the concerns of their government, from their carelessness and negligence, I must confess that I do apprehend some danger. I fear that they may place some danger. I fear that they may place too implicit a confidence in their public servants, and fail properly to scrutinize their conduct; that in this way they may be made the dupes of designing men, and become the instruments of their own undoing. Make them intelligent, and they will be vigilant; give them the means of detecting the wrong, and they will apply the remedy.”

DEFENDING THE UNION FROM THREATS FOREIGN & DOMESTIC

Democrats yell “Shame!” on the Floor of the House after this religious Liberty Bill was Passed

By Tad Cronn, May 20, 2016

Democrats on the floor of the House of Representatives yelled, “Shame! Shame! Shame!” after Republicans narrowly defeated the latest effort to force LGBTQ “rights” on the nation.

On Thursday, the vote was held on a legislative amendment, proposed by openly homosexual Rep. Sean Maloney, to strip away religious freedom protections included in a defense authorization bill passed the day before.

The authorization passed Wednesday included a provision that religious corporations, associations and institutions that receive federal contracts can’t be discriminated against on the basis of religion.

What seems reasonable to people who still believe in the Bill of Rights is totally unacceptable to the Left, so Maloney submitted an amendment that would prohibit funds to any contractor that doesn’t march in lockstep with President Obama’s unconstitutional executive order banning federal contractors from discriminating against homosexual and cross-dressing workers.

What really got the LGBTQers worked up, though, was that they thought they had this one in the bag, only to lose it by the slimmest margin at the last second.

When the voting period was closed, Maloney’s unconstitutional amendment upholding President Obama’s unconstitutional executive order appeared to have won, 217-206 in favor.

House rules, however, allow members to change their vote between the time the voting is supposedly closed and the time a bill’s passage or failure is declared, and that’s just what happened.

At least six Republicans changed their votes, while Democrats as usual voted like a synchronized swimming team. The final total was 213-212 against, defeating Maloney’s amendment by one vote. Somehow, in addition to changing votes, both parties picked up a vote before the result was declared. The Republicans added seven to the “nay” total, but only lost six from the “yea” column. Democrats added a single “yea.”

Most mainstream media outlets, such as Reuters, are reporting this as “Republicans defeat LGBT civil rights,” but the real story here is different.

“This is one of the ugliest episodes I’ve experienced in my three-plus years as a member of this House,” Maloney said when he submitted his amendment. This was before the Thursday vote, and he was referring to the language in the defense bill passed Wednesday that overturned Obama’s unconstitutional executive order and prevented contractors from being discriminated against on the basis of religion.

The LGBTQ crowd don’t want you to think about it, but theirs is a religious viewpoint — a worldview in which either the merely material nature of the universe or the morally malleable character of a supreme being means there is no prohibition against a man behaving like a woman or vice versa. And its a religious viewpoint that they’ve been able to persuade enough people to adopt that they now feel confident that they can make it the law of the land.

But two things stand in the way of that achievement — anyone (mostly Christians) whose own religious views run counter to LGBTQ nihilism, and that pesky legal concept of religious liberty, in which no single religion can dominate others or be turned into the official state religion (which is really what LGBTQers want).

So despite the protestations of Democrats like Nancy Pelosi, and the left-wing media, that homosexual rights are being violated, the truth is that Thursday’s vote, however it was achieved, was a vote that narrowly preserved those religious liberties that never should have been put to a vote in the first place.

Black Pastors Call Out Obama For Insulting African-Americans With This Statement

The Coalition of African-American Pastors (CAAP) is challenging Obama on his illegal transgender mandate. They recently issued a statement, asserting: “the Obama administration’s assertion that single-sex bathrooms are discriminating against gender-confused individuals in much the same way that blacks experienced discrimination in the United States is a ‘gross insult’ to all who fought for equality for African-Americans.”

Rev. Bill Owens, president of CAAP, said,

“There is simply no relation between the struggles that Black Americans have faced and the desire of a tiny minority group to violate the dignity and privacy of women and girls. To suggest some sort of equivalence is a gross insult to all of those who marched with Dr. King and faced fire hoses and hatred in the name of equality.”

Further, Owens says Obama and Loretta Lynch’s illegal mandate is “an affront to the Black Community and a theft of Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.’s legacy.” And, “Black Pastors will not allow the homosexual and transgender communities to rob Black Americans of their battle for civil rights!”

Referencing the struggles of Martin Luther King Jr., Owens claims, “If the Rev. Martin Luther King were alive to see this today, he would be angered in the same way that Jesus was angered when he turned over the tables of the money changers.”

To “hijack the civil rights movement” for sodomites and mentally ill transgender people, Owens argues that Obama’s political and social engineering agenda is “theft and outright extortion and usurpation of the Civil Rights Movement.”

Owens issued a “Call to Action” for all Black Americans and all Americans in general, to oppose the latest mandate issued by Obama. He says: “We call all black Americans to stand up and fight for the sanctity of Martin Luther King’s accomplishments for our race. There is simply no relation between the struggles that Black Americans have faced and the desire of a tiny minority group to violate the dignity and privacy of women and girls.”

“Transgendered persons are not asking for equal right – they are asking for special right that violate the privacy of women and simple common sense. CAAP calls on all those who oppose this unwarranted expansion fo the Civil Rights Act to contact their representatives in Congress today and let them know how you feel about this bill.”

Additionally, he mentions that the CAAP Women’s Ministry launched a petition for women of the race or faith to urge Congress to “protect the dignity and privacy of women and girls and ensure that they (and only they) should be permitted in women’s locker rooms, showers, and bathrooms.”

“Liberal whites are the greatest enemy of African Americans.” By James Meredith

James Meredith is a Republican, an author, and most notably the first black student admitted to the University of Mississippi. This gentleman understands LIBERALS have done TOO MUCH & NOT VERY Wisely!!!

The White Side of the Story of Negroes

This is the reason CNN has dropped Buchanan. It's like Newt G. Said, "you're not supposed to bring up uncomfortable Facts." (verified on Buchanan's website)

Finally, It is Said Publicly. I have never seen the white side explained better!

Pat Buchanan had the guts to say it. It is about time!

BUCHANAN TO OBAMA

By Patrick J. Buchanan

You say we need to have a conversation about race in America. Fair enough. But this time, it has to be a two-way conversation. White America needs to be heard from, not just lectured to. This time, the Silent Majority needs to have its convictions, grievances and demands heard. And among them are these:

First, America has been the best country on earth for black folks. It was here that 600,000 black people, brought from Africa in slave ships, grew into a community of 40 million, were introduced to Christian salvation, and reached the greatest levels of freedom and prosperity blacks have ever known. Jeremiah Wright ought to go down on his knees and thank God he is an American.

Second, no people anywhere has done more to lift up blacks than white Americans. Untold trillions have been spent since the '60s on welfare, food stamps, rent supplements, Section 8 housing, Pell grants, student loans, legal services, Medicaid, Earned Income Tax Credits and poverty programs designed to bring the African-American community into the mainstream. Governments, businesses and colleges have engaged in discrimination against white folks -- with affirmative action, contract set-asides and quotas -- to advance black applicants over white applicants. Churches, foundations, civic groups, schools and individuals all over America have donated their time and money to support soup kitchens, adult education, day care, retirement and nursing homes for blacks.

We hear the grievances. Where is the gratitude?

What more opportunity is it that the White people need to give to help the Blacks?

If the poor white got this much opportunity there would be no poor white or lower class of white trash people!!

The main problem why black people are not progressing is the, "They owe me factor"!! Get it in your head! No Body Owes You Any Thing!

Obama talks about new 'ladders of opportunity' for blacks. Let him go to Altoona? And Johnstown, and ask the white kids in Catholic schools how many were visited lately by Ivy League recruiters handing out scholarships for 'deserving' white kids?

Is white America really responsible for the fact that the crime and incarceration rates for African-Americans are seven times those of white America?

Is it really white America's fault that illegitimacy in the African-American community has hit 70 percent and the black dropout rate from high schools in some cities has reached 50 percent?

Is that the fault of white America or, first and foremost, a failure of the black community itself?

As for racism, its ugliest manifestation is in interracial crime, and especially interracial crimes of violence. Is Barack Obama aware that while white criminals choose black victims 3 percent of the time, black criminals choose white victims 45 percent of the time? Is Obama aware that black-on-white rapes are 100 times more common than the reverse, that black-on-white robberies were 139 times as common in the first three years of this decade as the reverse?

We have all heard ad nauseam from the Rev. Al about Tawana Brawley, the Duke rape case and Jena. And all turned out to be hoaxes. But about the epidemic of black assaults on whites that are real, we hear nothing.

Sorry, Barack, some of us have heard it all before, about 40 years and 40 trillion tax dollars ago.

This needs to be passed around because, this is a message everyone needs to hear!

OK, will you pass it on?

YES. I did but will you? I passed it on because I'm for a better America. I am Not racist, Not violent, Just not silent anymore. Many Black people are beginning to understand that America IS their friend, but President Obama is NOT!

To Those who Gave the Last Full Measure of Devotion

On this Memorial Day weekend, our thoughts and prayers are with all of those who are grieving. May we, as Abraham Lincoln said, "highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

I don't believe this is what our Fore Fathers did.

And I don't believe this is what WE should do!!

Can WE do what they did??

or will we just stand for the slaughter??

It is OUR choice as it was theirs!!
