Dear Friend,

I'm sorry this email is a little too long - and a little too rough. But the liberal media - the same ones who endorsed and love Barack Obama and Kathleen Sebelius - are once again going after my family.

They want to destroy conservatives like me, and they don't have any shame when doing it. These are not journalists - they are not interested in the truth - they are only interested in promoting their radical, left-wing agenda.

This week, the Hutch News demanded that I publicly release my family's home address. My team explained to them that I have been the target of multiple physical threats while in office and am concerned about protecting the safety of my family.

I know it's a problem for some people to know where we live, because a 'reporter' from their newspaper showed up unannounced at my front door. That's right, two years ago a Hutch News 'reporter' came to my front door and DEMANDED that my wife let her in without an invitation. The 'reporter' then took to the pages of the paper to complain and accuse Angela of being rude by refusing her entry.

But that wasn't the first issue I had with this liberal 'newspaper' violating my family's privacy.

When I sat down to meet with the editorial board of the Hutch News before then, a male 'reporter' said he knew where my daughters went to high school by tracking their Facebook pages. Yes, a male Hutch News 'reporter' proudly admitted he was stalking my teenage daughters on the Internet. And the editor of the newspaper expressed full support of the stalking.

Imagine if your family, if your daughters were subject to the same treatment.

If you think the liberal media treats my opponent the same way, think again. Despite being asked repeatedly about where I live in Kansas, not once has the Hutch News written about the retirement home my opponent owns in California. Yes, he owns a $710,000 home just a couple blocks from the beach in Santa Cruz, along the Pacific Coast Highway. But there has been no mention of it while my two bedroom, one bath house in Fowler has been the subject of 'news' stories.

We can win this campaign against my wealthy hospital CEO opponent and his liberal friends in the media like the Hutch News. I know we can win because I have the support of people like you-of people who actually care about the Truth. You know I have stayed true to the campaign promises I have made to honor our conservative principles -- even when it means standing up to to my own party.

Unfortunately, these Obama-loving media will continue to run biased editorials masqueraded as front-page 'news' stories - instead of talking about my proven conservative record right up till election day. Your contribution of $25, $50, $100 or $250 today will help me run an aggressive campaign to help me go around the media who wants to see me defeated.

Yours in Liberty,
Tim Huelskamp

Why does the media support these Democratic falsehoods so whole-heartedly and not give each side equal support? Because the Democrats have made it profitable for the media to do so. That is why WE must continue to support Honesty, Truth, Love of our GOD and Country, as completely as possible. Rep. Tim Huelskamp IS all of these truths as well as Individual Freedom, Worship as you please, the ability to VOTE for who & what you believe in. We don't always have such people to vote for, therefore, we MUST take advantage each time such a person gives us this opportunity. Tim Huelskamp fills the bill in every way –Support TIM!!! -- VOTE FOR TIM!!

“Look, the average Democrat voter is just plain stupid. They’re easy to manipulate. That’s the easy part.” --- Hillary Clinton, as told to Dick Morris in “Rewriting History”. How many of you Democrats are listening?? Listen!! Heads UP!! Hillary considers YOU STUPID!! Think about it!! Guess she is just being honest, which for Hillary may be a First!! Anyone who believes everything can be free needs to WAKE UP. If everything is free for everyone who is providing the money for “everything”? The money must come from someone, somewhere!! But if everything is free for everyone ---??? Hmmmmmmmmm---! HELLO -- WAKE UP!!!! If you believe everything is free for everyone -- YOU ARE HALLUCANATING!!

The problem is not guns! The problem is: 1. hearts without GOD! 2. Homes without discipline, 3. Schools without prayer and 3. Courts without Justice!! Read & Think!

I Received this from John D’Alola Sunday evening, June 12, 2016.

Friends,

This afternoon, we attended the Pott County Republican Women's Flag Day picnic at Westar's Oregon Trail Park. Many candidates were present and spoke.

Tim Huelskamp's opponent spoke and said that Tim voted against the National Defense Authorization Act, implying that Tim was anti-military. (Tim could not be present, but had a staffer attend.)

When I got home, I checked Thomas to get the straight scoop on the vote.

The bill (HR4909) status is at: <https://www.congress.gov/bill/114th-congress/house-bill/4909> . The House passed the NDAA on 18 May and sent it to the Senate for its action. The recorded vote is at:

<http://clerk.house.gov/evs/2016/roll216.xml>.

Tim voted Aye.

I do not know where Tim's opponent was coming from, unless it was the same twilight zone in which he claimed Tim was not a Kansan.

JDA Here we go again!! Dr. Marshall is starting the lies – guess he was already into them, with the one about Congressman Hueslkamp not being in Kansas. If he wanted to talk the “never comes to Kansas” bit he should have run against Pat Roberts. If they can't find something that actually happened to complain about they just make it up.

Dear Friend,

The facts are not in dispute: Roger Marshall was convicted of attempting to run down his neighbor and injuring him with his truck.

Over the past few days, you may have seen a television ad exposing Roger Marshall's criminal conviction. Yesterday, both a TV station and newspaper fact-checked the ad. And both found it to be true.

For the past 15 months, Roger Marshall has campaigned around Kansas calling himself a "peacemaker." In virtually every speech he gave on the campaign trail, he claimed it was central to his character.

But here is the reality: Dr. Marshall violently reacted to a dispute with and injured his neighbor. As authenticated by the actual 9-1-1 call and court documents, his violent behavior resulted in two criminal charges against him for Battery and Reckless Driving.

As you can see from the documents, the victim, who was on foot, suffered serious enough injuries from the incident to result in the Battery charge. According to the 9-1-1 call, Marshall fled the scene before law enforcement arrived, leaving his seriously injured neighbor behind.

Months later, Marshall and his attorneys secured a special plea-bargain deal with the local prosecutor: Marshall was convicted of the second charge of Reckless Driving with "wanton disregard for the safety of another person" and the Battery charge was dropped. Under the terms of the plea deal, Marshall was found guilty and received a jail sentence of five days (suspended) and forced to pay a fine. (You can see Marshall's signature admitting to his criminal conviction on page 5 of the court documents.)

When given a chance to comment on the facts of the ad and his criminal conviction, my opponent did not deny the facts. Instead of explaining why he committed such a violent act, Marshall attacked the neighbor he seriously injured.

That's right. Roger Marshall blames his neighbor who was on foot for the injury Marshall caused with his Dodge truck! It's no wonder that Marshall, in the face of a civil trial about this violent behavior, settled out of court.

There is no question his criminal conviction -- and his refusal to take responsibility for his violent act-- raises legitimate questions about who Roger Marshall really is.

How does he reconcile calling himself a peacemaker with this incident? Why as a doctor, did Marshall flee the scene leaving an injured neighbor behind? As a doctor, didn't Roger Marshall have an ethical obligation to provide care or at least call 9-1-1 himself?

It is unfortunate that Dr. Marshall has hid his violent behavior and criminal conviction from all of us. Not once in 15 months of campaigning did Dr. Marshall admit this about himself, nor did the news media ever even report this.

No one, especially a candidate for any public office, should be above the law.

No one, especially a self-proclaimed 'peacemaker,' has the right to injure his neighbor in a dispute.

Instead, everyone has the responsibility to take care of our neighbor, not injure them and flee the scene leaving them behind.

Kansans deserve to know what kind of person is telling them he can go to Washington and represent our values. And as it turns out, Roger Marshall is clearly not the "peacemaker" he says he is.

Yours in Truth,

Tim Huelskamp

P.S. As John Adams said: facts are stubborn things.

Have you seen Rep Huelskamp's ad concerning when Dr. Marshall in anger, ran his neighbor down and just drove off leaving an injured man lying there?!! AND DR. MARSHALL IS A DOCTOR – guess NOT in his heart, but then that goes along with supporting Planned Parenthood as he delivers babies. How can he support abortion at all?? He actually supports murdering unborn babies, cutting them into pieces and profiting from it!! He calls himself a Doctor. Not a Doctor I would want anyone I know having anything to do with.

From GRASSFIRE:

Sen. Ted Cruz is calling President Obama's and the Left's latest gun-grab effort a "political distraction." Thursday, Cruz spoke on the Senate floor, saying:

"I think the American people find it ridiculous that, in response to an ISIS terror attack, ... we've got to restrict the Second Amendment rights of law-abiding Americans. This is not a gun-control issue. This is a terrorism issue."

The Texas Republican later added, "You don't defeat terrorism by taking away guns; you defeat terrorism by using guns." Grassfire agrees 100 percent.

The Orlando nightclub attack was terrorism. Yesterday's initial attempt by the Obama administration to censor the mass murderer's 911 calls pledging allegiance to ISIS won't change that. Our government should be targeting terrorists -- NOT the Second Amendment rights of law-abiding Americans!

Thankfully, none of the four knee-jerk, gun-control measures in the U.S. raying is against the rule. For this great nation under God finds mention of Him very odd. If scripture now the class recites, It violates the Bill of Rights. And anytime my head I bow it becomes a Federal matter now.

Our hair can be purple, orange or green, that's no offense; it's a freedom scene.. The law is specific, the law is precise. Prayers spoken aloud are a serious vice.

For praying in a public hall might offend someone with no faith at all.. In silence alone we must meditate, God's name is prohibited by the State..

We're allowed to cuss and dress like freaks, and pierce our noses, tongues and cheeks... They've outlawed guns, but FIRST the Bible. To quote the Good Book makes me liable.

We can elect a pregnant Senior Queen, and the 'unwed daddy,' our Senior King.

It's 'inappropriate' to teach right from wrong, We're taught that such 'judgments' do not belong..

We can get our condoms and birth controls, study witchcraft, vampires and totem poles...

But the Ten Commandments are not allowed, No word of God must reach this crowd.

It's scary here I must confess, When chaos reigns the school's a mess. So, Lord, this silent plea I make:

Should I be shot; My soul please take!

Amen

Senate passed yesterday. But that won't stop Democrats. The Left will continue their campaign of misdirection & obfuscation, blaming guns & not the terrorists who use them. If you support the right of law-abiding Americans to keep & bear arms, your voice needs to be heard in this crucial debate.

Reminds me of a Church Message Sign I read a few months ago,

"If you want God to Bless America, quit making SIN Legal"

Lord's Prayer By a 15-year-old school kid who got an A+ for this entry (TOTALLY AWESOME)!

The Lord's Prayer is not allowed in most U.S. Public schools any more.

A kid in Minnesota, wrote the following: Now I sit me down in school where pPlease pass this on.. Jesus said, 'If you are ashamed of me, I will be ashamed of you before my Father.'

We The People

My Grandfather watched as his friends died in WWI ...

My Father watched as his friends died in WWII and Korea

I watched (1st hand) as my friends fought and died in Vietnam ... I watched as our friends and children fought and died in Desert Storm... I watched and waited while our friends and children fought and died in Iraq... None of them fought for or died for the Mexican Flag or any other foreign flag... Everyone fought for and died for the U.S. Flag!

In Texas, a student raised a Mexican flag on a school flag pole; another student took it down.

Guess who was expelled...

The kid who took it down!!!

Kids in high school in California were sent home this year on Cinco de Mayo because they wore T-shirts with the American flag printed on them.

Enough is enough.

The e-mail message below needs to be viewed by every American; And every American needs to stand up for America.

We've bent over to appease the America-haters long enough...I'm taking a stand...

I'm standing up because the hundreds of thousands who died fighting in wars for this country, and for the U.S. flag can't stand up... And shame on anyone who tries to make this a racist message...

Let me make this perfectly clear!

THIS IS MY COUNTRY!

And, my making this statement DOES NOT Mean

I'm against immigration!! YOU ARE

WELCOME HERE IN OUR

COUNTRY! Welcome! To come through legally:

1. Get a sponsor! 2. Get a place to lay your head! 3. Get a job! 4. Live By OUR Rules!

5. Pay YOUR Taxes And 6. Learn the LANGUAGE like immigrants have in the past!! 7. Please don't demand that we hand over our lifetime Savings of Social Security

Funds to you. If you don't want to forward this for fear of offending someone, then YOU'RE PART OF THE PROBLEM!

When will AMERICANS STOP giving away THEIR RIGHTS ???

We've gone so far the other way...We've bent over backwards not to offend anyone...

If You don't agree, Just Delete It – and Why are YOU reading this paper anyway?

But it seems no one cares about the AMERICAN CITIZEN being offended!

WAKE UP AMERICA!!!

If You agree – pass this on...

Dear Friend,

You read about it this week. Hillary Clinton spared from an indictment by her political cronies in the Obama administration.

The Democrat nominee for president received a free pass on criminal behavior that would get the rest of us jail time. This double standard for the powerful, wealthy and well-connected is another example of what's wrong with Washington. It's the type of Washington Insider behavior I have taken on again and again.

Friday morning I learned that a secretive Super PAC funded by DC insiders that also SUPPORTED HILLARY CLINTON began running a blatantly false radio ad against me.

That's right. The lie-spreading Super PAC is pro-Clinton and pro-Roger Marshall. And it only makes sense that the Super PAC is using the same deceitful tactics of my opponent. Dr. Marshall has already had his own personal ads called out as "misleading" and "fabrications" by multiple media outlets. And that's something coming from newspapers who have bashed our conservative principles and me for years.

How's that old saying go, birds of a feather stick together? Washington insiders and Roger Marshall and Hillary Clinton. But unlike Roger Marshall, Hillary has not been charged or indicted.

I responded to the lie immediately by demanding station managers follow the law and refuse to run the ad. And one of them has already stopped airing it!!

But I can't count on my opponent, other liberal media outlets or these Super PAC to do the right thing. I am going to need to raise an extra $25,000 to combat the false accusations. Will you give \$250, \$100, \$50, \$25 or whatever you can afford right now?

Why do the Washington Insiders LOVE my opponent? Because Roger Marshall has made it clear. He's going to Washington to make deals with the special interests and make peace with Hillary Clinton, Obama, Pelosi -- all the Washington cronies.

Friend, I didn't go to Washington to make deals. I went to make a difference. And that's exactly what I've done. I have a proven conservative record and the backing of every conservative organization you can think of.

Too many politicians who say one thing at home and do something different in Washington. That's not me. In fact, I've done everything I can to expose the hypocrisy of both Obama and Boehner. And Washington special interests can't stand it.

How do I know? Yesterday afternoon a second Washington-based Super PAC announced its support for Marshall. Another $20,000. And it's unlikely to stop.

Please make a contribution right now and help me fight back. Every single dollar you can give will make a difference these final 25 days.

Yours in Liberty,
Tim Huelskamp

P.S. We have to stop both Hillary and Roger Marshall. The same Super-PAC helping both! Whether it's \$100, \$50 or even \$25, I need your help right now to stop the Washington corruption.

If I'm not mistaken this is the same group that prevented the election of Dr. Milton Wolf. We must do better this time and not allow them to take TIM HUELSKAMP away from us. We must fight with every fiber of our beings to defeat Dr. Roger Marshall!!! Dr. Marshall used his community influence to get a lighter sentence to running a man down with his truck, leaving him injured, and not calling for help for the man HE INJURED!! Does that tell you exactly how corrupt Dr. Marshall actually is? DOES THAT TELL YOU EXACTLY HOW CORRUPT THIS SUPER PAC COMMITTEE ACTUALLY IS??? They seem determined to take away honest, law abiding congressman and desire to replace them with abusive law breaking persons. Support Rep. Huelskamp in every way you can!! He has supported our needs and desires in every way he can – now it is our turn to support Congressman Tim Huelskamp!! Support him today and every day with contributions of money & work of mouth!!

OBAMA: IF YOU CARE ABOUT POLICE OFFICERS, FORFEIT YOUR 2ND AMENDMENT RIGHT

JULY 10, 2016

Here's the line: "If you care about the safety of our police officers, then you can't set aside the gun issue and pretend that that's irrelevant."

Nothing more needs to be said really. If we care about the safety of police officers then we must willingly forfeit our 2nd amendment rights.

That's the ultimate goal isn't it? – To have citizens in a weak, subservient (vulnerable) position...for our own protection, of course.

The Washington Examiner reports – Legal ownership of weapons is creating tensions between police officers and communities, President Obama said to buttress his call for tighter gun laws.

"Part of what's creating tensions between communities and the police is the fact that police are having a really difficult time in communities where they know guns are everywhere," Obama said during a NATO press conference in Warsaw, Poland. "They have a right to come home, and now they have very little margin for error in terms of making decisions. So if you care about the safety of our police officers, then you can't set aside the gun issue and pretend that that's irrelevant."

Legal ownership of weapons is creating tensions between police officers and communities, President Obama said to buttress his call for tighter gun laws.

"Part of what's creating tensions between communities and the police is the fact that police are having a really difficult time in communities where they know guns are everywhere," Obama said during a NATO press conference in Warsaw, Poland. "They have a right to come home, and now they have very little margin for error in terms of making decisions. So if you care about the safety of our police officers, then you can't set aside the gun issue and pretend that that's irrelevant."

Obama introduced that idea after mentioning "routine" violence in Chicago, Ill., a city with tight gun restrictions, but he made clear that legally-owned guns also pose a problem for law enforcement by citing the violence of the last week.

"At the protest in Dallas, one of the challenges for the Dallas Police Department as they're being shot at is because this is an open-carry state there are a bunch of people who are participating in a protest who have weapons on them," he said. "In Minneapolis, we don't know yet what happened, but we do know that there was a gun in the car that apparently was licensed, but it caused in some fashion those tragic events. So, no, we can't just ignore that and pretend that's somehow political or the president pushing his policy agenda."

The Dallas Police Department tweeted out a photo of an armed man carrying a rifle during the attack, wrongly dubbing him a suspect in the shooting. In Minnesota, a police officer shot a man during a traffic stop who had a gun but who might have been reaching for his wallet. "It is a contributing factor, not the sole factor but a contributing factor to the broader tensions that arise between police and the communities where they serve," Obama said.

Is this the way Obama has decided to render American Citizens unarmed and defenseless so he can take charge entirely? Hang in there – we have barely 6 months to go – hold him at bay – hang onto your guns. Keep guns for lawful citizens legal!! Don't let Obama take us at this late date!!

July 12, 2016

Dear Friend,

Today I learned that a wealthy out-of-state Super PAC that backed Hillary Clinton earlier this year has decided to spend $133,210 in the next week alone to try and defeat me.

Yes, you read that right. The Super PAC backed Hillary and now they're backing my opponent.

These DC Insiders are eager to defeat me because I actually keep my conservative campaign promises. They know my proven conservative record makes it hard for politicians like John Boehner who don't follow through on their campaign promises.

I need your help to fight back against these big money attacks from DC insiders right now. Will you make an immediate contribution of $25, $50, $100, $250, $500 or even $1000?

I have been endorsed by Ted Cruz, Kansans for Life, the NRA, Club for Growth Family Research Council and James Dobson. But Liberals in both parties cannot stand the conservative values we share.

Will you make your most generous contribution right now to keep a conservative fighter in Congress?

There are just 21 days left in this election. Every vote is going to count. And every dollar you can give is going to count.

Yours in Liberty,
Tim Huelskamp

P.S. Two years ago a shadowy Super PAC attacked me with just three weeks before that election - spending $250,000 on dishonest attacks. We won then and can win again with your help. Please make a contribution of $25 or more right now.

Tim has been true and faithful to us in every way in Washington and in Kansas. Now it is our turn to stand by him. If at all possible send him all you can –We NEED, MUST HAVE Tim in Washington. Tim's opponent is a lying, law breaking, thug who cares for no one but himself; he says one thing and does another. You can't be a good law abiding citizen and be prosecuted for hit and run. What "good" Doctor would run down another human and just drive off leaving him there to suffer and possibly die? Is this the type of person you want to represent Kansans in Congress? Tim Huelskamp is the man that we must have so we must support him financially, verbally and in the voting booth. Tim has NOT let us down – NOW IT IS OUR TURN TO SUPPORT HIM!!! Not voting or voting against Tim Huelskamp is like voting against yourself!!!

Well worth your time to read...

Ask any person, not your child, between the ages of 18 and 25 if they ever heard of the Nuremberg Trials.

1 in 13 might say they have but will not be able to tell you "what" was on trial (not who). Those same people will not be able to tell you the name of the Vice President. 84% of those who receive this will not read it completely, or at all. 10% will but will also chose not to forward it. The remaining 6% will forward it.

Stupid is as stupid does...

The war started in the 7th century and lasted through the 17th century. I would contend it never stopped but historically the facts below are correct.

This is why I choke when I hear someone say we will defeat or contain these Islamic terrorists in a few years or even 30 years as recently stated by Leon Panetta.

If the latest batch of murders, beheadings, and killing of innocent Christians has shocked you, maybe you should read this compilation of historical facts about the hatred of Muslims.

WE, THE STUPID

This is factually (and historically) correct - and verifiable:

In 732 A.D. The Muslim Army, which was moving on Paris, was defeated and turned back at Tours, France, by Charles Martell.

In 1571 A.D. The Muslim Army/Navy was defeated by the Italians and Austrians as they tried to cross the Mediterranean to attack southern Europe in the Battle of Lepanto.

In 1683 A.D. The Turkish Muslim Army, attacking Eastern Europe, was finally defeated in the Battle of Vienna by German and Polish Christian Armies.

This crap has been going on for 1,400 years and half of the politicians don't even know it.

If these battles had not been won, we might be speaking Arabic and Christianity could be non-existent; Judaism certainly would not exist.

Reflecting: A lot of Americans have become so insulated from reality that they imagine that America can suffer defeat without any inconvenience to themselves. Pause a moment and reflect back.

These events are actual events from history. They really happened! Do you remember?

48 years since 1968 and this just keeps going on and on.

1. In 1968, Bobby Kennedy was shot and killed by a Muslim male.

2. In 1972, at the Munich Olympics, Israeli athletes were kidnapped and massacred by Muslim males.

3. In 1972, a Pan Am 747 was hijacked and eventually diverted to Cairo where a fuse was lit on final approach. Shortly after landing it was blown up by Muslim males.
4. In 1973, a Pan Am 707 was destroyed in Rome, with 33 people killed, when it was attacked with grenades by Muslim males.
5. In 1979, the US embassy in Iran was taken over by Muslim males.
6. During the 1980's a number of Americans were kidnapped in Lebanon by Muslim males.
7. In 1983, the US Marine barracks in Beirut was blown up by Muslim males.
8. In 1985, the cruise ship Achille Lauro was hijacked and a 70-year old American passenger was murdered and thrown overboard in his wheelchair by Muslim males.
9. In 1985, TWA flight 847 was hijacked at Athens, and a US Navy diver trying to rescue passengers was murdered by Muslim males.
10. In 1988, Pan Am Flight 103 was bombed by Muslim males.
11. In 1993, the World Trade Center was bombed the first time by Muslim males.
12. In 1998, the US embassies in Kenya and Tanzania were bombed by Muslim males.
13. On 9/11/01, four airliners were hijacked; two were used as missiles to take down the World Trade Centers and of the remaining two, one crashed into the US Pentagon and the other was diverted and crashed by the passengers. Thousands of people were killed by Muslim males.
14. In 2002, the United States fought a war in Afghanistan against Muslim males.
15. In 2002, reporter Daniel Pearl was kidnapped and beheaded by - you guessed it - a Muslim male. (Plus two other American journalists who were just recently beheaded).
16. In 2013, the Boston Marathon Bombing resulted in 4 Innocent people, (including a child) being killed and 264 people injured by Muslim males.

No Obama, I really don't see a pattern here to justify profiling, do you? So, to ensure we Americans never offend anyone, particularly fanatics intent on killing us, airport security screeners will no longer be allowed to profile certain people.

So, ask yourself "Just how stupid are we???"

Absolutely No Profiling! They must conduct random searches of 80-year-old women, little kids, airline pilots with proper identification, secret agents who are members of the Obama's security detail, 85-year-old Congressmen with metal hips, and Medal of Honor winner and former Governor Joe Foss, BUT.....leave Muslim Males alone lest we be guilty of profiling.

Ask yourself, "Just how stupid are we?" Have the American people completely lost their minds or just their Power of Reason???

Let 's send this to as many people as we can so that the Gloria Alred's and other stupid attorneys, along with Federal Justices, that want to thwart common sense, feel ashamed of themselves -- if they have any such sense.

Each opportunity that you have to send this to a friend or media outlet... Do It! OR JUST SIT BACK, KEEP GRIPING, AND DO NOTHING. As OBAMA SAID IN HIS BOOK NOTHING SOUNDS SO BEAUTIFUL AS THE MUSLIM EVENING PRAYERS FROM THE TOWER.

WAKE UP AMERICA!!!--and anyone else reading this!!!

THE PATRIOT POST – Voice of Essential Liberty --Alexander's Column

In the Democrats' political playbook, fomenting disunity to rally constituencies is goal#1 --- dead police are just collateral damage. Black LIES Matter!!! --- By Mark Alexander July 13, 2016

Barack Obama and his Leftist cadres have been waging a war on cops since his first day in office — part of their politics of disparity playbook strategy to divide and conquer America one constituency group at the time.

Beginning with the 2009 arrest of his friend Henry Louis Gates, when Obama declared the Cambridge police "acted stupidly" — saying this before he had any of the facts — he has co-opted numerous altercations between law enforcement and black citizens to use as "race bait" for his political agenda. He has continuously fomented racial discord in order to maintain the Left's stranglehold on the black vote.

This has been particularly evident in his second term, when he politicized the chokehold death of career criminal Eric Garner in New York, the utterly justifiable shooting of violent hoodlum Michael Brown in Ferguson, Missouri, and the death of drug dealer Freddie Gray in Baltimore.

Of course, it is the false "hands up, don't shoot" narrative from the Brown case that gave rise to the so-called "Black Lives Matter" hate group leading the charge against police nationwide and providing inspiration for the Dallas attack.

(Note: When there was a shortage of high-profile police-involved deaths to further Obama's racial division agenda, Obama resorted to other incidents like the case of "White-Hispanic" George Zimmerman, who was exonerated in the shooting death of a black assailant in Florida.)

It is no small irony that Obama has occupationally profiled cops the way he says cops have racially profiled blacks.

There has been a heavy price to pay, both in terms of injured and murdered police officers and the "Ferguson Effect," in which cops reduce their enforcement efforts to protect against racially trumped-up charges — resulting in significant increases of black-on-black violent crime.

So it was business as usual seven days ago, July 7, when Obama interrupted his press conference at a foreign NATO summit to advance his racially divisive agenda with two recent police shootings:

"All Americans should be deeply troubled by the fatal shootings of Alton Sterling in Baton Rouge, Louisiana and Philando Castile in Falcon Heights, Minnesota. We've seen such tragedies far too many times. ... What's clear is that these fatal shootings are not isolated incidents. They are symptomatic of the broader challenges within our criminal justice system, the racial disparities that appear across the system year after year, and the resulting lack of trust that exists between law enforcement and too many of the communities they serve. ... All Americans should recognize the anger, frustration and grief that so many Americans are feeling... Michelle and I share those feelings."

A few hours later, BO addressed the five racially motivated murders of Dallas police officers Lorne Ahrens, Michael Krol, Michael Smith, Brent Thompson and Patrick Zamarripa. Six other officers and two civilians were wounded. The assailant was a black racist named Micah X. Johnson.

Changing from his earlier tone of disunity to unity, Obama said, "I believe that I speak for every single American when I say that we are horrified over these events, and that we stand united with the people and the police department in Dallas."

He then declared, "I think it's very hard to untangle the motives of this shooter." Huh?

It wasn't so hard for Dallas Police Chief David Brown to "untangle the motives" of this mass murderer. "He seemed lucid during negotiations," Brown said. "He expressed anger for Black Lives Matter. The suspect said he was upset at white people. He said he wanted to kill white people, especially white police officers."

Obviously, the Dallas assassin did not believe Blue Lives Matter.

Of course, BO had to throw in more race bait: "[We should be] concerned, as all Americans, about racial disparities in our criminal justice system..."

Then, predictably, he pivoted to gun control: "We also know that when people are armed with powerful weapons, unfortunately it makes attacks like these more deadly and more tragic. And in the days ahead, we're going to have to consider those realities as well."

The heir-apparent to Obama's legacy of hate, Hillary Clinton, insisted that white people "have to start listening to the legitimate cries that are coming from our African-American fellow citizens."

BO's attorney general, Loretta Lynch, took a page from his former AG, Eric Holder, insisting, "We must continue working to guarantee every person in this country equal justice under the law. We must take a hard look at the ease with which wrongdoers can get their hands on deadly weapons and the frequency with which they use them."

On Sunday, he issued a challenge to police departments to stop being racist: "I would hope that, uh, police organizations, uh, are respectful of the frustrations that people in these communities feel."

That earned him a quick rebuke from William Johnson, executive director of the National Association of Police Organizations: "This president and his administration absolutely do not have our back and make our jobs more dangerous."

Recall that in February of this year, Obama convened a room full of leftist race agitators, including reps of Black Lives Matter, and praised them for being "much better organizers" than he was. He also noted that he was "confident that they are going to take America to new heights" because of their "degree of focus and seriousness and constructiveness."

As former ABC chief White House correspondent Brit Hume observed, "[Obama] has consistently chosen to see things through the eyes of an aggrieved black activist rather than of a president of all the people. He's not failed to speak out whenever a black is killed by a white police officer, but has said next to nothing about the continued slaughters of blacks by other blacks in the streets of Chicago, Baltimore, and other cities. He has made his sympathy for the Black Lives Matter movement obvious."

Indeed, as political analyst Jason Riley, himself a black man, noted in The Wall Street Journal, "Obama has denounced what happened in Dallas, but he has also been winking at a Black Lives Matter movement that has spent the past two years holding rallies that call for (and sometimes feature) violence against cops. [He] has made a habit of minimizing or ignoring the high black crime rates that obviously underlie tensions between poor minority communities and cops."

Three hours before the Dallas attack, BO declared, "Right now the big concern is the fact that the data shows black folks are more vulnerable to these kinds of incidents."

But that's one of Obama's rhetorical lies.

There is no evidence that the "racist cop" claims of Obama and others are borne out in police shooting data, and as researcher John Lott notes, Obama's claim that "African Americans are arrested at twice the rate of whites" does not take into account that "blacks commit murder at almost six times the rate whites do."

Further, according to Lott, "The assault rate for the general public in the United States is 229 per 100,000 people. But the rate police were assaulted that year was 9,300 per 100,000 officers — a rate 41 times higher. ... This data also suggests that police are not actively looking for excuses to fire their weapons. The number of justifiable killings by police equals less than one percent of the assaults on police. Thus even when assaulted, police rarely resort to killing their attackers."

In a new Harvard study, "Empirical Analysis of Racial Differences in Police Use of Force," the lead researcher, professor Roland Fryer Jr., noted, "On the most extreme use of force — officer-involved shootings — we find no racial differences in either the raw data or when contextual factors are taken into account." Fryer, who is black, added that the findings were "the most surprising result of my career."

As for police who do kill their assailants, according to Bureau of Justice Statistics, the rate of black officers who kill black offenders is 32 per 100,000 black officers, which is more than twice the rate of white officers who kill black offenders — 14 per 100,000 white officers.

Let me share a little secret.

Having spent years as a street cop early in my career, I can tell you that when 95% of murder victims in urban centers are "people of color," and 95% of perpetrators are "people of color," cops of any color are going to be more cautious with "people of color." This isn't "racism," this is reality, driven by a desire to make the community safe and to return home at the end of that day's tour.

Manhattan Institute scholar Heather Mac Donald, author of "The War on Cops," recently responded to BO's repeated assertions about "racist cops," declaring, "Obama embraced the Black Lives Matter myth that there is a racist war by white officers against black civilians in this country. ... In fact, there's no government agency more dedicated to the proposition that black lives matter than the police. Proactive policing has saved tens of thousands of minority lives since the mid-1990s."

That notwithstanding, in the days following the Dallas attack, there were attempts to murder police in Georgia, Missouri, Tennessee, Baton Rouge and Washington, DC. Additionally, San Antonio's police headquarters was fired on multiple times, but thankfully there were no injuries.

Perhaps Obama/Clinton constituents should pause to consider what would happen if police officers in urban centers across the nation came down with a weeks-long case of "blue flu" and didn't show up for work. Those cities would turn into bloodbaths. Of course, some of their constituents are advocating just that. Black agitator and Obama/Clinton supporter Jessica Disu insists, "We need to abolish the police. Period." When asked who would provide protection, Disu insisted, "We need to come up with community solutions."

In Dallas on Tuesday, there was an interfaith memorial for the slain officers. Police Chief David Brown spoke for three minutes. Former President George W. Bush spoke for seven minutes. Barack Obama spoke for 40 minutes, referencing himself 45 times.

Obama offered fitting references to the slain officers, references to Scripture and then resorted to more race-bait rhetoric. I have posted excerpts from their remarks here.

Disgracefully, in the first sentence of Obama's memorial remarks, he made a joke — "I'm so glad I met Michelle first because she loves Stevie Wonder." This was a reference to Dallas Police Chief David Brown's recitation of lyrics from a song. Obama left a long pause for laughter.

Equally offensive were Obama's thematic race-bait assertions.

Allow me to respond to one: "We know that centuries of racial discrimination, of slavery, and subjugation, and Jim Crow; they didn't simply vanish with the law against segregation. ... America, we know that bias remains."

The fact is, Obama and his ilk, who are the purveyors of "black privilege," have ensured that racial bias has endured for generations. BO's black father had no roots in America, so he has no generational "black experience." But allow me to offer a few words from those whose roots run deep.

At the conclusion of the War Between the States, famous abolitionist Frederick Douglass wrote, "Everybody has asked the question, and they learned to ask it early of the abolitionists, 'What shall we do with the negro?' I have had but one answer from the beginning. Do nothing with us! Your doing with us has already played the mischief with us. ... [If] the Negro cannot stand on his own legs, let him fall. ... All I ask is, give him a chance to stand on his own legs! Let him alone!"

Booker T. Washington, founder of Tuskegee University, was among the last generation of black people born into institutional slavery prior to emancipation. Washington became a leading advocate for the rights of blacks — and of all people.

In his 1911 work, "My Larger Education," he wrote, "There is a class of coloured people who make a business of keeping the troubles, the wrongs, and the hardships of the Negro race before the public. Having learned that they are able to make a living out of their troubles, they have grown into the settled habit of advertising their wrongs — partly because they want sympathy and partly because it pays. Some of these people do not want the Negro to lose his grievances, because they do not want to lose their jobs. ... There is a certain class of race-problem solvers who don't want the patient to get well, because as long as the disease holds out they have an easy medium through which to make themselves prominent before the public."

In the footsteps of Booker Washington followed Carter G. Woodson (1875-1950), an esteemed historian, author, journalist and the founder of the Association for the Study of African American Life and History. Woodson is most often cited as "the father of black history," and this passage from his seminal work, "The Mis-Education of the Negro," is representative of his thinking: "If the Negro in the ghetto must eternally be fed by the hand that pushes him into the ghetto, he will never become strong enough to get out of the ghetto."

"There is a certain class of race-problem solvers who don't want the patient to get well, because as long as the disease holds out they have an easy medium through which to make themselves prominent before the public."

----- Booker T. Washington

Fact is, Democrats have masterfully maintained the black ghetto welfare plantation through policies that ensure they will "never become strong enough to get out of the ghetto."

Carrying on the legacy of Washington and Woodson today is Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas, who notes: "Government cannot make us equal; it can only recognize, respect, and protect us as equal before the law. That [affirmative action] programs may have been motivated, in part, by good intentions cannot provide refuge from the principle that under our Constitution, the government may not make distinctions on the basis of race."

Thomas speaks precisely to those concerns expressed 150 years ago by Frederick Douglass.

Today, the truth is that if black lives really mattered to those charged with advancing the Democrat political agenda, Obama, Clinton and their leftist cadres of race hustlers would stop the institutional enslavement of black people on the urban poverty plantations created by their failed "Great Society" experiments. For Obama and Clinton, it's more aptly stated, "Black LIES Matter."

And a final observation from President Ronald Reagan: "We must reject the idea that every time a law is broken, society is guilty rather than the lawbreaker. It is time to restore the American precept that each individual is accountable for his actions."

Disclaimer: This column is not written from the armchair perspective of inbred Beltway journalists and commentators. It is written, as always, from the grassroots perspective. Notably, it is also written from the vantage point of having graduated from a state police academy at age 19, having served through my college years as a uniformed police officer in three states, and having maintained close ties with the men and women in blue ever since. During those years, and in other capacities since, I have been in many situations that required split-second life-or-death decisions. If you haven't been in the shoes of officers involved in pressure-packed and highly volatile altercations, you simply can't understand the context of those incidents based on edited videos. Police officers are human, and they occasionally make mistakes — sometimes deadly ones. BUT THOSE ARE RARE EXCEPTIONS. To that end, watch the transformation of a protestor who steps into the role of a police officer. And to better understand how fast a traffic stop can go wrong, click here.

Dear Friend,

I often am amazed that a farm kid from the small town of Fowler can make a difference in Washington by standing up for our conservative values.

And this election proves just how much of a difference one person can make. According to the Federal Election Commission, Washington-Insider Super PACs have already committed $552,000 to defeat me.

And it looks like they are just getting started.

One of shadowy Super PACs running over $200,000 in negative ads against me backed Hillary Clinton for President. And ironically its name is "Ending Spending."

Of course no one has a better record of voting to end spending than I do. Every conservative organization that rates votes on spending puts me at or near the top of the list.

The Washington Insiders who oppose me want to maintain the status quo policies that have put us nearly $20

Trillion in debt. And this deep-pocketed Hillary-backing Super PAC knows my opponent is ready to help the Insiders continue their tax and spend plans.

Roger Marshall has criticized me for voting against a massive $1 trillion spending bill. He has criticized me for voting against a bill that funded Obama's illegal amnesty. And Roger Marshall even refuses to sign a pledge not to raise your taxes so Washington can waste even more of your money.

In other words, the candidate in this race that is for increasing spending is Roger Marshall. The candidate that is for balancing the budget is me, and I have the record to prove it.

But these shadowy Super PACs with names like "Ending Spending" like to deceive voters. Their first radio ad flat out lied about me and was yanked from radio stations. Now their TV ad is actually criticizing me for standing up to Washington Insiders.

Isn't that what we need? Someone who is willing to hold Republicans accountable for their conservative campaign promises.

Friend, one person can make a difference in Washington. But I cannot do it without your ongoing support and prayers. And your financial support.

If you agree that it's time to stop these Washington Insiders who want to bankrupt this great country, then please help me by making a contribution of \$25 or more right now.

Yours in Liberty,
Tim Huelskamp

P.S. The election is just 18 days away and there is a proven conservative outsider who is committed to ending spending in this race. Please make a contribution of \$500, \$250, \$100, \$50 or \$25 right now to make sure I keep up the fight for you in Congress.
