TRUMP JUST HANDED MASSIVE BAD NEWS TO EVERY WELFARE LEECH IN AMERICA

by KIMBERLY J SMITHON | AUGUST 31, 2017

The Trump administration moved Wednesday [Aug 30] to bring back work requirements for Americans on welfare, reversing an Obama-era policy that had encouraged states to apply for waivers that would exempt welfare recipients from needing to prove that they were either working or receiving job training.

Requiring work or job training was an integral part of the 1996 welfare reform law signed by former President Bill Clinton, The Washington Times reported.

Ohio was the only state that applied for a waiver, which was neither approved nor denied by the previous administration, according to the Associated Press. On Wednesday, the Trump administration closed the door on even the possibility the waiver would be approved by officially denying Ohio's request, according to AP.

The Office of Family Assistance, under the Department of Human Services, issued a release advising states about the change. "Re-emphasizing the work requirements in the welfare program means once again promoting gainful employment and economic independence as goals for every family," the statement read.

"The waiver option offered by the Obama administration is being replaced today by an expectation that work should always be encouraged as a condition for receiving welfare," the statement continued.

Indeed, work should always be a condition for those receiving government assistance who are able to work. Work is necessary for many reasons but in regard to government assistance, it is especially important because it prevents welfare from becoming a way of life.

And, unfortunately, welfare has become too much of a way of life for some.

Reducing welfare dependency is a step that will help make America great again, and while the left will complain about this measure all day long, the country needs it.

We have all heard stories about how people not only abuse the system but brag about it.

Welfare abuse needs to end, and requiring able-bodied Americans to work is a great first step to make that happen.

Share this story on Facebook and Twitter to spread the word about the Trump administration is going to bring back work requirements for those receiving welfare.

What do you think of Trump's ending Obama's welfare waiver policy?

A HISTORY LESSON FOR THE DAY

It appears the new "political correctness" wishes to destroy everything that it does not agree with, and revising history along the way. Destroying the past indiscriminately means destroying the future too.

Robert E. Lee was married to George Washington's granddaughter. He worked with Grant during the Mexican-American war and became a decorated war hero defending this country. He believed slavery was a great evil and his wife broke the law by teaching slaves to read and write. After the civil war he worked with Andrew Johnson's program of reconstruction. He became very popular with the northern states and the Barracks at West Point were named in his honor in 1962. He was a great man who served this country his entire life in some form or other. His memorial is now being called a blight. No American military veteran should be treated as such. People keep yelling, "You can't change history." Sadly you can. This is no better than book burnings. ISIS tried rewriting history by destroying historical artifacts. Is that really who we want to emulate?

As they tear down this "blight" keep these few historical facts in your mind. No military veteran and highly decorated war hero should ever be treated as such. This is not Iraq and that is not a statue of Saddam.

IN ADDITION: Lee was also very torn about the prospect of the South leaving the Union. His wife's grandfather George Washington was a huge influence on him. He believed that ultimately, states' rights trumped the federal government and chose to lead the Southern army. His estate, Arlington, near Washington D.C. was his home and while away fighting the war, the federal government demanded that Lee himself pay his taxes in person. He sent his wife but the money was not accepted from a woman. When he could not pay the taxes, the government began burying dead Union soldiers on his land. The government is still burying people there today. It is now called Arlington National Cemetery.

IS THAT GOING TO BE TORN UP ALSO??

Don't you think it is about time we stopped giving in to stupidity??? History should NOT BE DESTROYED!!!

London cab driver's answer to a request from a Muslim to turn off the radio!! You just got to love the Brits ~ (... at least this time.)

A devout Arab Muslim entered a black cab in London. He curtly asked the cabbie to turn off the radio because as decreed by his religious teaching, he must not listen to music because in the time of the prophet there was no music, especially Western music, which is the music of the infidel.

The cab driver politely switched off the radio, stopped the cab and opened the door.

The Arab Muslim asked him, "What are you doing?"

The cabbie answered, "In the time of the prophet there were no taxis, so piss off and wait for a camel."

AN OUTSTANDING POST-ATTACK DEFENSE OF THE SECOND AMENDMENT

Thomas Gallatin · Jun. 15, 2017

Inevitably and almost immediately after crazed leftist James T. Hodgkinson shot and wounded five, including Republican Rep. Steve Scalise, as they practiced for a baseball game, gun control came up. A reporter asked Rep. Mo Brooks (R-AL), who had just survived the harrowing attack, "Congressman, does this change your views on the gun situation in America?" Yep, leftists are once again exploiting an atrocity to trot out the tired, flawed "guns are the problem" anti-Second Amendment narrative. But Brooks didn't take the bait. In fact, he tactfully and expertly exposed the flaw in the argument against the right to bear arms. Brooks responded:

Not with respect to the Second Amendment. The Second Amendment right to bear arms is to ensure that we always have a republic. And as with any constitutional provision in the Bill of Rights, there are adverse aspects to each of those rights that we enjoy as people. And what we just saw here is one of the bad side effects of someone not exercising those rights properly. But we're not going to get rid of freedom of speech because some people say some really ugly things that hurt other people's feelings. We're not going to get rid of Fourth Amendment search and seizure rights because it allows some criminals to go free who should be behind bars. These rights are there to protect Americans, and while each of them has a negative aspect to them, they are fundamental to our being the greatest nation in world history. So no, I'm not changing my position on any of the rights we enjoy as Americans. With respect to this particular shooter, I'd really like to know more about him — whether he was an ex-felon, by way of example, who should not have had possession of a firearm — I'd like to know other things about his background before I pass judgment.

If anything, this latest attack proves to illustrate just how important and essential the Second Amendment is to protecting American Liberty. Imagine if the Capitol Police detail had not been there, the carnage and death toll would have been significant, due to the fact that all the congressmen were unarmed. How many Americans have their own police detail following them around offering protection? The obvious answer also points to the foundational purpose of the Second Amendment. See here where Mark Alexander has written extensively on the Second Amendment.

But statisticians like Virginia Governor Terry McAuliffe seem to care little for protecting Americans' rights and liberties. Rather he takes this latest horror as an opportunity to find fault and blame American Liberty for the crime rather than the crazed individual. Less than an hour after the attack McAuliffe said, "This is not what today is about but there are too many guns on the street. It's not just about politicians, we worry about all of our citizens." Gov. McAuliffe is in need of a history lesson. As Benjamin Franklin stated, "They that can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety." And it was James Madison who wrote, "The ultimate authority... resides in the people alone... The advantage of being armed, which the Americans possess over the people of almost every other nation... forms a barrier against the enterprises of ambition." Thankfully, Rep. Brooks understands and embraces these truths.

"You can't be for big government, big taxes and big bureaucracy and still be for the little guy."
~ Ronald Reagan

Where the Battle for America Must Really Be Won

Nothing fosters division more than the leftist indoctrination happening in our public schools.

by Arnold Ahlert · Sep. 6, 2017

"The day after the election I was texting my mom to pick me up from school and she almost had to!! Every teacher was crying in class, one even told the whole class 'Trump winning is worse than 9/11 and the Columbine shooting.'" —a student describing the scene at Edina High School in Minneapolis last November

America is a divided nation. And nothing fosters that division more than the legions of public school students who have been fed a steady diet of progressive ideology for more than four decades — one that asserts America is a fundamentally flawed nation in need of wholesale change. Aided and abetted by Democrats, teachers and their unions have made it clear that students either conform to the progressive worldview or they will be bullied, harassed and intimidated until they do.

Moreover, progressives are twisting the law, especially with regard to their efforts to force-feed transgenderism to children beginning in kindergarten. "Whether parents will have a right to opt their children out of 'gender identity' lessons depends on the governing provisions of state law," explains columnist Margot Cleveland. "Every state regulates public education, and in most states, parents may opt their children out of 'sex-education' classes. Whether a discussion of gender identity and transgenderism would qualify as 'sex education' depends on the specific statute."

Bottom line? "My initial research indicates that the various statutory definitions of 'sex education' contained in opt-out provisions focus on sexual reproduction and thus would not cover classroom discussions of gender identity," she adds. "Further, some states, such as California, expressly provide that 'gender identity' is not subject to the statutory opt-out provisions available to parents for comprehensive sex education."

Thus, when a kindergarten teacher Rocklin Academy Gateway staged a gender transition ceremony for one of her students, furious parents who had neither been notified in advance, nor given the opportunity to opt out, were told by the principal that the school's non-discrimination policy "protects all students, including on the basis of gender, gender identity, and gender expression."

Parents at a Washington, DC, charter school received the same treatment. When expressing similar concerns they were not given the opportunity to opt out of such classes, the principal was equally obdurate. "I will not exempt any child from classroom discussions or instruction relating to the topics of gender identity, and 'marital norms,'" he wrote in a letter.

The sentiments of a parental majority are apparently irrelevant as well. A couple who insisted their child was gender fluid at the age of two — because he began emulating Beyoncé's dance moves — successfully sued St. Paul, Minnesota's Nova Classical Academy for not including transgender material in kindergarten classes. As a result the school promised to establish a policy that doesn't allow parents to opt out "based on religious or conscience objections." In addition, the school stated it would "not call parents' or guardians' attention to the policy" — meaning they are trying to hide mandatory compliance with the progressive agenda from unsuspecting parents.

Chalkbeat Indiana is taking it one step further, providing LGBT activists with a list of schools that are "anti-LGBT" (read: espouse traditional and/or Christian values) in case "rainbow protesters wanted to show up at a few, or know where to enroll their gender-dysphoric kindergarteners and then sue," warns columnist Joy Pullman.

Transgenderism is the tip of the progressive iceberg. "Not many things shock me, but I confess that I have been shocked by what I have learned about the Edina public school system," writes John Hinderaker. "Indoctrination in left-wing politics begins in elementary school, where children are taught the pernicious doctrine of 'white privilege.'"

In Texas, Katy High School was forced to delete a picture from its social media site depicting National Guard members taking a rest in an empty school hallway following their effort to help people devastated by Hurricane Harvey. At Georgia's River Ridge High School, teacher Lyn Orletsky made students remove "Make America Great Again" T-shirts. Why? "Just like you cannot wear a swastika to school, you cannot wear 'make America great again' like that," Orletsky asserted.

President Trump has been used as a springboard for much of this nonsense, beginning shortly after the election when the National Education Association urged schools to participate in a "National Day of Action" against the new president. But such ideological insidiousness began being implemented before that, casing a wider ideological net in the process. In 2015 at Nathan Hale High School in West Allis, Wisconsin, a teacher asked students to rate a list of political statements ranging from communist to fascist. With regard to the statement, "We should not help the poor, it's a waste of money," any answer that did not identify it as a "Conservative/Republican" position was marked wrong.

Such overt proselytization has also occurred with regard to religion, global warming, history and economics. Students who resist are bullied, suspended or forced to undergo psychological evaluations.

Yet it is far worse than that. As the Daily Caller reveals, "dozens of public school teachers" belong to the antifaligned organization By Any Means Necessary (BAMN). They include Detroit teacher Nicole Conaway, who led students on a 2016 protest resulting in a confrontation with police and her arrest. Militant Berkeley middle school teacher Yvette Felarca, currently faces charges for inciting a riot outside the state capital last year. The district where she works has accused her of and her BAMN of "actively trying to brainwash and manipulate these young people to serve your own selfish interests in not being held accountable to the same rules that apply to everyone else," yet they have been unable or unwilling to fire her. And in 2016, 17 BAMN members ran for elected positions with the Detroit Federation of Teachers and five ran for positions with the NEA in 2017.

What can be done to counter this ongoing progressive onslaught? It's time to use the same court-endorsed strategy that keeps organized religion out of the nation's public school classrooms: make the case that progressive ideology is itself faith-based and its de facto endorsement violates the First Amendment's prohibition thereof. Nothing demonstrates that reality better than its adherents' determination to force the unproven science of transgenderism on children, leaving many of them confused and frightened. "The leftists harping on this topic are essentially demanding a religious litmus test... as a precondition for educating children," Pullman states.

Not essentially. Exactly, and a class-action suit would be the beginning of an effort to hold schools accountable, not just with regard to transgenderism, but every other bit of progressive propaganda being presented as indisputable fact.

In addition, Congress should hold nationally televised hearings on the current state of public school education. No doubt millions of Americans would be fascinated to discover why an anti-Republican, anti-Trump, anti-tradition, pro-global warming, pro-transgender, pro-socialist, pro-sanctuary and pro-revisionist history agenda has become the default position in hundreds of schools around the nation.

"Give me four years to teach the children and the seed I have sown will never be uprooted," stated Vladimir Lenin.

In a nation enduring increasingly regular and leftist-orchestrated assaults on free speech, historical monuments, biological reality, capitalism — and American exceptionalism itself — a sustained and organized counter-attack is an idea whose time has come.

We, YOU & I, have been allowing this to happen in our schools all across out Great USA.

It must stop and be reversed. Check out your local schools – you don't have to have children or grandchildren in school – and see IF it is true there as it is all across our Country. WE have been assuming all was well, but it is NOT well. Everyone is only concerned about themselves and not really caring what is happening to our Children.

WAKE UP AND PAY ATTENTION!!
DO SOMETHING TO MAKE IT RIGHT FOR OUR KIDS!!!

I just received this from John D'Aloia...

THE LATEST CHILD-INDOCTRINATION SCHEME: S.E.L.

Exclusive: Linda Harvey takes aim at 'social emotional learning' in government schools

Schools are ground zero for trendy experiments. How many can we name from the past few decades? Whole language, new math, anti-bullying programs, multicultural education, values modification, workforce development, Common Core – the list goes on.

And virtually all of sex education has been a colossal failure, except for the common-sense “abstinence only” approach.

But liberal educators never give up devising new plans to mess with the minds and hearts of children, and another one has emerged as a particular concern.

It's “Social Emotional Learning” (SEL), a plan so personally invasive that schools can gain access to every aspect of a child's life and development – acting as a virtual parent – even without parental consent.

But SEL's popularity and reach is moving so quickly that it is now measured by some standardized tests and mandated by education bureaucrats.

And not surprisingly, sexualizing children and training them to accept propaganda and groupthink are often features of highly subjective SEL training, with many radical activist groups lurking in its shadows.

An important conference will be held next week (Sept. 26) in Bloomington, Minnesota, by the Child Protection League \(CPL\), thoroughly examining social emotional learning. Experts tracking this trend and “safe schools” programs will be making presentations at “Hijacking Their Minds: How ‘safe schools’ and social emotional learning (SEL) indoctrinate our children.”

Julie Quist of CPL said this about the speakers and objectives of this conference:

“Stella Morabito brings an urgent message for our time. Children (and adults) today are being forced to say what they know is not true (‘preferred pronouns’ for gender non-conforming students) and prohibited from speaking what they know is true. The state is seeking to control and regulate our very ability to think and to communicate. Morabito calls it ‘coercive thought reform.’ Dr. Karen Effrem will show how Social Emotional Learning is a vehicle.”

SEL behavior-shaping programs are well underway in many states, among them California, Connecticut, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Missouri, Nevada, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Vermont, West Virginia, and Washington.

Others are tiptoeing into this controversial arena. “Core competencies” like self-management, social awareness and responsible decision-making seek to mold the “whole child.” But experts like Dr. Karen Effrem as well as parents who've seen all this before have concerns. Dr. Effrem even says SEL turns overburdened, untrained teachers into mental health therapists who may label children inappropriately, even using political biases to do so.

Some believe this is essentially mental health counseling with or without parent involvement, and with students scored as to how well or poorly they adopt the desired attitudes.

And when you look at the groups sponsoring some SEL teacher training, there are big red flags. Planned Parenthood is often listed as a reference in SEL materials. And GLSEN (the Gay, Lesbian and Straight Education Network), PFLAG and the Transgender Political Coalition show up as sponsors at an SEL teacher conference next June in Nashville.

Do we really want schools shaping children's emotions or their “ethical decisions”? These are often the same schools that open girls' locker rooms to anatomical males and refuse to call children “boys and girls,” instead instructing teachers to sort students by meaningless designations like “peanut butter and jelly” or “chips and salsa.” Behavioral counseling is being done by these people?

Parents might have something to say about “emotional training” of their children. What standards are being used? Are moral values being taught, and if so, which ones? Who is the ultimate authority – schools? Government? God? Probably not. Are faith traditions even respected at all?

And, are records being kept on my child without my consent? The answer in some cases seems to be, yes.

The question surely on most of your minds: Is this just one more way for far-left social agendas to be embedded in school curricula?

Without a doubt. Among the “core competencies” outlined are “relationship skills” and “self-awareness” which may include “appreciating diversity.” Ethical responsibility and social engagement are also emphasized. Yet by whose definition?

If a student believes (correctly) that homosexual behavior is morally wrong and that humans are never “born in the wrong sex body,” might not that student be privately given black marks for being anti-social or even “bigoted”? Would such records follow a child from school to school, even noted on college entrance recommendations?

And SEL is specifically tied to contraceptive/promiscuity-enabling sex education programs, with “abstinence until marriage” sex education specifically smeared as not a fit with SEL, because it’s... wait for it... “manipulative”.

The irony is laughable.

The job of schools is to teach foundational skills like reading, literature, math and science. Why can’t educators just stick to their own “core competencies,” and do them well? To be fair, there are some purported goals of SEL that could produce positive outcomes, like learning respect, empathy, perseverance, long-term planning and delayed gratification.

But it all depends on what value system is applied, and these traits can all be developed as the natural byproducts of strong academic initiative. They will inevitably be loaded with psychological assessment if approached in isolation from core subjects.

Most parents would like to manage this at home, thank you very much.

To be fair, certainly there are school districts, particularly in urban areas, where parental involvement with their children is woefully inadequate, and educators are tempted to fill in for dysfunctional parents.

But this is treacherous ground. Government should never try to replace families (can we spell “f-a-s-c-i-s-m”?). Family bonds need to be reinforced for the long-term benefit of children and communities.

There’s another motivation, of course – weird agendas among educators (anti-Christian, “LGBTQ equality” feminism, social justice, etc.). And there are also ambitious educators anxious to be on the cutting edge of innovation, or seem to be. And who cares if children are helped or harmed?

By the time the damage shows up, these people will be long gone and unavailable.

If SEL shows up in your school, fight it. Or even better – remove your children.

I was NOT aware of this new approach to schooling our children. I am so glad my kids are way out of all this – however, my great-grandchildren are in the midst of it. And I am sorry to say their parents are NOT involved. This is sooooo scary. Any suggestions on what we can do?? Home Schooling sounds better all the time. How stupid/ridiculous all of this is. We must DO something, but what??? Are we going to be forced to do away with public schools??? Will neighborhood schools be formed? Who will be the teachers? Is this the way our Country will be destroyed? Help us, LORD!!!

A U.S. Marine enters the Catholic Church confessional booth in Hendersonville, NC.

He tells the priest, "Bless me Father, for I have sinned. Last night, I beat the ever-living crap out of a flag burning LEFT-WING NUT, cop-hating BLM, ILLEGAL ALIEN anti-Trump protester."

The priest says, "My son, I am here to forgive your sins, not to discuss your community service."

HALLELUIAH !!!

This email reflects how many people feel today...

I am now in my 60's.

Recently I received a questionnaire and request for money from the Republican Party and strongly agree with every question, as I have since Obama was elected.

Unfortunately the one question that was missing is: What have the Republicans done for the American people?

We gave you a majority in the House and Senate, and you never listened to us. Now you want our money, my money, more money. You should be more concerned about our votes, not our money.

You are the establishment, which means all you want is to save your jobs and line your pockets.

Well guess what? It's not going to happen.

So far, TRUMP hasn't asked for a dime.

You might think we are fools because you feel Trump is on a self-destruct course, but look beyond Washington and listen to the masses. Nobody has achieved what he has, especially in the state of New York.

Here's why I want Trump. Yes, he's a bit of an ass. Yes, he's an egomaniac. But I don't care.

The country is a mess because politicians suck.

The Republican Party is two-faced and gutless, and illegals are everywhere.

I want it all fixed.

I don't care that Trump is crude.

I don't care that he insults people.

I don't care that he has changed positions.

I don't care that he's been married 3 times.

I don't care that he fights with Megan Kelly and Rosie O'Donnell.

I don't care that he doesn't know the name of some Muslim terrorist.

Our country has become weak, and bankrupt. Our enemies are making fun of us. We are being invaded by illegals. We are becoming a nation of victims where every Tom, Ricardo, and Hassid is a special group with special rights to a point where we don't even recognize the country we were born and raised in, "AND I JUST WANT IT FIXED."

And Trump is the only guy who seems to understand what We The People want and need.

I'm sick of politicians, sick of the Democratic Party, the Republican Party, and sick of illegals.

I just want this thing fixed.

Trump may not be a saint, but he doesn't have lobbyist money controlling him; he doesn't have political correctness restraining him; all you know is that he has been very successful; a good negotiator; he has built a lot of things; and, he's also not a politician.

And, he says he'll fix it. And, I believe him because he is too much of an egotist to be proven wrong or looked at and called a liar.

I don't care if the guy has bad hair.

You are welcome to pass this on, or not.

Thought for the Day: "No country can sustain, in idleness, more than a small percentage of its numbers. The great majority must labor at something productive!"

Don R. "Dick" Ivey, PhD

P.S.: No Borders, No Language, No Culture = No Country. I sure hope this goes to everyone.

It is my guess that at least 75% of USA citizens feel this way & the other 25% are blithering idiots anyway. Things won't change unless we let everyone know how we feel. That means each & every person in a voting position MUST be notified of our feelings & that IF they want your vote in the next election they will start showing you how they can make changes happen!!! Changes that WE THE PEOPLE want and need!

Donald Trump's powerful 9/11 speech

SEPTEMBER 11, 2017

Leading his first commemoration of the solemn 9/11 anniversary, President Donald Trump said Monday that “the living, breathing soul of America wept with grief” for each of the nearly 3,000 lives that were lost on that day 16 years ago.

Addressing an audience at the Pentagon, one of three sites attacked on Sept. 11, 2001, Trump used the anniversary to warn terrorists that “America cannot be intimidated.” He said those who try are destined to join “the long list of vanquished enemies who dared to test our mettle.”

Trump and first lady Melania Trump observed a moment of silence at the White House on Monday at the exact moment that a hijacked airplane was slammed into the World Trade Center. The Trumps bowed their heads and placed their hands over their hearts as “Taps” rang out across the South Lawn. They were surrounded by White House aides and other administration officials in what has become an annual day of remembrance.

Nearly 3,000 people were killed when radical Islamic terrorists flew commercial airplanes into New York's World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and a field near Shanksville, Pennsylvania.

Trump, a native New Yorker who was in the city on 9/11, said the attack was worse than the Japanese assault on Pearl Harbor during World War II because it targeted civilians, “innocent men, women, and children whose lives were taken so needlessly.” He vowed that such an attack would never be repeated.

Sponsored: [Trump was right about China \[Proof Inside\]](#)

“The terrorists who attacked us thought they could incite fear and weaken our spirit,” Trump said later at the Pentagon, where he was joined at a 9/11 observance by Defense Secretary Jim Mattis and Gen. Joseph Dunford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. “But America cannot be intimidated, and those who try will join a long list of vanquished enemies who dared test our mettle.”

He said that when America is united “no force on earth can break us apart.”

Trump also offered words of comfort to the many whose loved ones perished in the attacks.

“For the families with us on this anniversary, we know that not a single day goes by when you don't think about the loved one stolen from your life. Today, our entire nation grieves with you,” Trump said. Later, he said “the living, breathing soul of America wept with grief for every life taken” on 9/11.

Vice President Mike Pence told an audience gathered at a 9/11 memorial in Shanksville that the passengers aboard the plane that crashed there may have saved his life. He recalled being in Congress and learning that the Capitol was a possible target of the hijacked plane, which was 12 minutes out.

Passengers aboard the flight — it left a New Jersey airport with San Francisco as its final destination — rose up against the Islamic terrorist hijackers, who were overwhelmed and forced to crash the plane in the field. Pence said “it was the longest 12 minutes of my life.”

“I will always believe that I, and many others in our nation's capital, were able to go home that day to hug our families because of the courage and selflessness of the heroes of Flight 93,” Pence said.

Yes, I have sent "like" messages before. Think about it!! If you are one that agrees with those doing the creating or if you are one that has been created -- give it some thought. We have a President that is doing & working to accomplish "GOOD" for us all. WE must work to get Congress off their duff & to accomplish what will make our WONDERFUL USA more wonderful than ever. Our NEW President is working wonders -- we MUST get CONGRESS working as we elected them to do. OK, so Congress did not get the President they wanted either -- they wanted one of them to be President. The Citizens of the USA realized that "this new & different man" has accomplished much in the Private World & will continue "accomplishing" in the Political World. WE elected him -- now WE MUST prod Congress to support (& work with) him to accomplish the things that will reward all USA citizens. IT IS TIME FOR CONGRESS TO STOP POUTTING AND GET TO WORK. Why are we paying them to do NOTHING?? They must understand that if they are going to do nothing we will/can elect others that are willing to improve the USA. Hello, Congress, YOU have been warned.

"US" by Paul Genova

(Mr. Paul Genova has been President and Chief Operating Officer of Wireless Telecom Group Inc. since June 30, 2016.)

I haven't said too much about this election since the start... but this is how I feel...

I'm noticing that a lot of people aren't graciously accepting the fact that their candidate lost.

In fact you seem to be posting even more hateful things about those who voted for Trump.

Some are apparently "triggered" because they are posting how "sick" you feel about the results.

How did this happen you ask? Well here is how it happened!

You created "us" when you attacked our freedom of speech. You created "us" when you attacked our right to bear arms. You created "us" when you attacked our TRUE BIBLICAL Christian beliefs. You created "us" when you constantly referred to us as racists. You created "us" when you constantly called us xenophobic. You created "us" when you told us to get on board or get out of the way. You created "us" when you attacked our flag. You created "us" when you took God out of our schools. You created "us" when you confused women's rights with feminism. You created "us" when you began to emasculate men. You created "us" when you decided to make our children soft. You created "us" when you decided to vote for progressive ideals. You created "us" when you attacked our way of life. You created "us" when you decided to let our government get out of control. You created "us" the silent majority. You created "us" when you began murdering innocent law enforcement officers. You created "us" when you lied and said we could keep our insurance plans and our doctors. You created "us" when you allowed our jobs to continue to leave our country. You created "us" when you took a knee, or stayed seated or didn't remove your hat during our National Anthem. You created "us" when you forced us to buy health care and then financially penalized us for not participating.

And we became fed up and we pushed back and spoke up.

And we did it with ballots, not bullets. With ballots, not riots. With ballots, not looting. With ballots, not blocking traffic. MUSLIMS DEMAND INFIDEL OWNER REMOVE 'PERFECT MAN' SIGN -HE HAS BRILLIANT COUNTER-OFFER

After Muslims demanded the removal of a billboard criticizing the Islamic prophet Muhammad, owner Don Woodsmall (right) had a brilliant response.

Just days ago, leftists and Muslim groups across the U.S. loudly condemned a billboard along Interstate 465 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

The sign contains a simple message which reads, "The Perfect Man," with check-marked bullet points including "Rapist," "13 wives, 11 at one time," and "Tortured & killed unbelievers". Instantly, Muslims knew the billboard was calling out their prophet.

When Muslims noticed a billboard calling their prophet Muhammad a "rapist" who "married a 6-year-old" and "beheaded Jews," they immediately demanded the removal of the "racist and Islamophobic" message. However, the uproar forced the billboard's owner to come forward — and he has just one thing to say to them.

Although Islam was never mentioned, instantly, Muslims knew the billboard was calling out their prophet Muhammad, prompting them to demand the sign's removal in accordance with Sharia blasphemy laws. This national outcry has already prompted the sign's owner to relinquish his personal safety by coming forward to not only take credit for the billboard's construction but issue yet another daring message to "truthophobes" who deny its credibility.

WTHR reports that Don Woodsmall, who is a Duke law school graduate, has proudly taken responsibility for the billboard, but says that while he is unafraid to show his face to the dangerous Muslim community, he'll protect his clients' identities. Woodsmall came forward to local media to slam free speech objectors, confidently declaring that he would gladly remove the sign himself — all they have to do is prove the statement wrong.

In his statement, Woodsmall says, "It is interesting to note... the Muslim community knew exactly who it was referring to. The truth is a powerful weapon."

Woodsmall explained that he only agreed to erect the sign after thoroughly researching each claim and finding proof directly in the passages of the Quran and Hadith. In addition, he spoke to at least half a dozen Islamic scholars who confirmed the scriptures in question.

"I was convinced that each point listed on the billboard was historically and factually true. I would encourage others to do their own research to verify the veracity of each and every point," Woodsmall wrote. He also noted that he would remove the billboards if the statements are proven to be false.

Despite Muslims demanding that Woodsmall name his clients, undoubtedly for nefarious purposes, the billboard owner refuses to endanger their lives. The unwavering owner slammed the sign's critics, reminding them that it is the very definition of free speech to question and tear apart lies and toxic ideologies.

"My clients want this national conversation to happen if we are ever to overcome the violence that plagues Islam," he wrote to 13 Investigates. "This is not only pro-American, but beneficial to Muslims who came to America to escape the Sharia."

Disturbingly, designated terrorist group CAIR and lying Muslims are declaring the message "racist" and "Islamophobic," although none can provide any scripture or historical text to back up their claims. On the other hand, each one of the bullet points has a direct correlation to the Quran and Hadith.

§ "Married 6 year old" — Sahih Muslim (8:3309), Sahih Bukhari (58:234, 3896, 5158, and 3311)

§ "Beheaded 600 Jews in one day" — Quran (33:26), Ibn Ishaq/Hisham (674), Abu Dawud (4390)

§ "Slave owner & dealer" — Sahih Muslim (3901), Sahih Bukhari (47:743), Quran (4:24, 33:52)

§ "13 wives, 11 at one time" — Sahih Bukhari (62:6), Sahih Bukhari (5:268)

§ "Rapist" — Abu Dawud (2150), Sahih Muslim (3433), Quran (4:24, 33:50), Sahih Bukhari (34:432), Sahih Muslim (3371)

§ "Tortured & killed unbelievers" — Quran (8:67), Sahih Muslim (4322), Sahih Bukhari (52:256, 11:626), (Ibn Ishaq/Hisham 819, Ibn Kathir v.3 p.403), 109 verses of violence

If the Muslim critics were honest, they'd point out that the only flaw in Woodsmall's message is that Muhammad didn't necessarily behead 600 Jews in one day — historical records suggest it a number between 500 and 900 Jews and likely over a period of several days.

If the left considers it "hate speech" to summarize these violent and bigoted Islamic passages, it's time for them to admit that the Quran and Hadith are hate speech. It's not racist to denounce Muhammad's ownership of dozens of black slaves as racist. In fact, it's racist of Muslims and leftist to defend Muhammad's slave ownership and attempt to censor it.

The truth is that the prophet Muhammad boasted of his own racist slave ownership, sex slavery, marriage to a child, and mass slaughter of unbelieving men, women, and children.

These are not fear-mongering allegations but direct quotations from the prophet, his closest companions, and even his favorite child bride, Aisha

It is inexcusable for Muslims to demand we shut up or apologize for pointing out the sadistic behavior of their prophet. Instead, they are the ones who should be apologizing for calling a slave-owning, murdering, pedophile rapist the “perfect man” and denounce his actions immediately.

Why should the Muslims object to the truth being put on a billboard IF it is so wonderful???

Hmmm!!!!

I received this from FREEDOM WORKS on May 19, 2017...

Sylda,

The battle against high taxes never ends. Right now, RINOs and Democrats in the Kansas Senate are trying to ram through a $1.4BILLION tax hike. Rather than tackle the state's spending problems, these liberal loonies want to tax their way out of an $887 million deficit.

Kansas' low taxes aren't just keeping more of your money in your pocket. They attract jobs and allow farms and small businesses to grow. This tax hike will kill jobs and even cause food prices to skyrocket.

Don't let the liberals take even more of your hard-earned money! Contact Kansas Senate Republicans right now. Demand that they stop this $1.4 billion tax hike today.

Sylda, these RINOS should shrink the government and keep taxes low. Instead, they're keeping the government huge and raising taxes to pay for it. That's NOT what you voted for.

Remind Kansas Senate Republicans of their promises. Demand they stop this insane tax hike right now! For Freedom,

Adam Brandon

A few weeks ago our Representative, Susie Swanson, met with us in Leonardville. She told us that whenever they, State Reps, met with various State Agency people they were given a "song and dance" (my words) about how there was just "no way" they could cut their budget. Therefore, Kansas Legislators are intending to increase the States budget. If the State Agency's can't figure a way to cut their budgets how do they expect Kansas taxpayers to cut their personal household or business budgets? Our expenses go up – utilities, medical, transportation, raising our families. One place the State could cut is to stop financing any & all abortions – no Planned Parenthood funding. After all Kansas Legislators did pass the "no abortions" law themselves, why not enforce it? What are your thoughts & desires?? Wonder what other laws are not being enforced & costing the state money.

This is an interesting "Farewell to England" list of Islamic accomplishments in that country that I thought might give you a better understanding of the insidiousness of Hijrah; that's the takeover of a nation without going to war. Don't think for a moment that America is not a target or that there are no American cities where Islamic and Sharia victories and takeovers have already occurred. It's time for border control, or start planning for a very big goodbye America party!

Here's what has already happened to England within a few years of opening their borders without entry control; how the British have passively succumbed to the Muslim invasion:

Mayor of [City of] London ... MUSLIM
 Mayor of Birmingham ... MUSLIM
 Mayor of Leeds ... MUSLIM
 Mayor of Blackburn ... MUSLIM
 Mayor of Sheffield ... MUSLIM

Mayor of Oxford ... MUSLIM
 Mayor of Luton ... MUSLIM
 Mayor of Oldham ... MUSLIM
 Mayor of Rochdale ... MUSLIM

All the following achieved by just 4 million Muslims out of the 66 million population:

Over 3,000 Muslim Mosques
 Over 130 Muslim Sharia Courts
 Over 50 Muslim Sharia Councils
 Muslims Only No-Go Areas Across The UK
 Muslim Women... 78% don't work and are on FREE benefits/housing
 Muslim Men... 63% don't work and are on FREE benefits/housing
 Muslim Families... 6-8 children planning to go on FREE benefits/housing and now all UK schools are ONLY serving HALAL MEAT!

... and we (the USA) can't decide on an immigration policy???

One of the ways to combat this is to keep circulating such information around our United States to inform the uninformed. I did not see this in the US media... have you?

Hello, America, are YOU awake??? Is this America in 20-50 years???
It will happen in the USA if WE ALLOW IT!!!
