TRUMP DOES THE UNTHINKABLE | by Liz Crokin

Liz Crokin is an award-winning author, a seasoned journalist and an advocate for sex crime victims. Liz began her journey at the University of Iowa where she received a bachelor's in journalism and political science.

Donald Trump is a racist, bigot, sexist, xenophobe, anti-Semitic and Islamophobe -- did I miss anything? ... Yup! He is also deplorable. The left and the media launch these hideous kinds of attacks at Trump everyday; yet, nothing could be further from the truth about the real estate mogul.

As an entertainment journalist, I've had the opportunity to cover Trump for over a decade, and in all my years covering him I've never heard anything negative about the man until he announced he was running for president. Keep in mind, I got paid a lot of money to dig up dirt on celebrities like Trump for a living so a scandalous story on the famous billionaire could've potentially sold a lot of magazines and would've been a huge feather in my cap.

Instead, I found that he doesn't drink alcohol or do drugs. He's a hardworking businessman.

On top of that, he's one of the most generous celebrities in the world with a heart filled with more gold than his $100 million New York penthouse.

Since the media has failed so miserably at reporting the truth about Trump, I decided to put together some of the acts of kindness he's committed over three decades which has gone virtually unnoticed or fallen on deaf ears.

- In 1986, Trump prevented the foreclosure of Annabell Hill's family farm after her husband committed suicide. Trump personally phoned down to the auction to stop the sale of her home and offered the widow money. Trump decided to take action after he saw Hill's pleas for help in news reports.

- In 1988, a commercial airline refused to fly Andrew Ten, a sick Orthodox Jewish child with a rare illness, across the country to get medical care because he had to travel with an elaborate life-support system. His grief stricken parents contacted Trump for help and he didn't hesitate to send his own plane to take the child from Los Angeles to New York so he could get his treatment.

- In 1991, 200 Marines who served in Operation Desert Storm spent time at Camp Jejune in North Carolina before they were scheduled to return home to their families. However, the Marines were told that a mistake had been made and an aircraft would not be able to take them home on their scheduled departure date. When Trump got wind of this, he sent his plane to make two trips from North Carolina to Miami to safely return the Gulf War Marines to their loved ones.

- In 1995, a motorist stopped to help Trump after the limo he was traveling in got a flat tire. Trump asked the Good Samaritan how he could repay him for his help. All the man asked for was a bouquet of flowers for his wife. A few weeks later Trump sent the flowers with a note that read: We've paid off your mortgage.

- In 1996, Trump filed a lawsuit against the city of Palm Beach, Florida accusing the town of discriminating against his Mar-a-Lago resort club because it allowed Jews and blacks. Abraham Foxman, who was the Anti-Defamation League Director at the time, said Trump put the light on Palm Beach, not on the beauty and the glitter, but on its seamier side of discrimination. Foxman also noted that Trump's charge had a trickle-down effect because other clubs followed his lead and began admitting Jews and blacks.

- In 2000, Maury Povich featured a little girl named Megan who struggled with Brittle Bone Disease on his show and Trump happened to be watching. Trump said the little girl's story and positive attitude touched his heart. So he contacted Maury and gifted the little girl and her family with a very generous check.

- In 2008, after Jennifer Hudson's family members were tragically murdered in Chicago. Trump put the Oscar-winning actress and her family up at his Windy City hotel for free. In addition to that, Trump's security took extra measures to ensure Hudson and her family members were safe during such a difficult time.
- In 2013, New York bus driver Darnell Barton spotted a woman close to the edge of a bridge staring at traffic below as he drove by. He stopped the bus, got out and put his arm around the woman and saved her life by convincing her to not jump. When Trump heard about this story, he sent the hero bus driver a check simply because he believed his good deed deserved to be rewarded.
- In 2014, Trump gave $25,000 to Sgt. Andrew Tamoressi after he spent seven months in a Mexican jail for accidentally crossing the US-Mexico border. President Barack Obama couldn't even be bothered to make one phone call to assist with the United States Marine's release; however, Trump opened his pocketbook to help this serviceman get back on his feet.
- In 2016, Melissa Consin Young attended a Trump rally and tearfully thanked Trump for changing her life. She said she proudly stood on stage with Trump as Miss Wisconsin USA in 2005. However, years later she found herself struggling with an incurable illness and during her darkest days she explained that she received a handwritten letter from Trump telling her "she's the bravest woman I know." She said the opportunities that she got from Trump and his organizations ultimately provided her Mexican-American son with a full-ride to college.
- Lynne Patton, a black female executive for the Trump Organization, released a statement in 2016 defending her boss against accusations that he's a racist and a bigot. She tearfully revealed how she's struggled with substance abuse and addiction for years. Instead of kicking her to the curb, she said the Trump Organization and his entire family loyally stood by her through immensely difficult times.

Donald Trump's kindness knows no bounds and his generosity has and continues to touch the lives of people from every sex, race and religion. When Trump sees someone in need, he wants to help.

Two decades ago, Oprah asked Trump in a TV interview if he'd run for president. He said: If it got so bad, I would never want to rule it out totally, because I really am tired of seeing what's happening with this country.

That day has come.

Trump sees that America is in need and he wants to help.

How unthinkable!

On the other hand, have you ever heard of Hillary or Obama ever doing such things with their own resources?

Now that's really unthinkable!

YES, I know this is outdated. However, I thought it would be good to print some of the nice things a politician does even when he is NOT a politician. Donald Trump was a good man BEFORE he became President. Living in the middle of DC could reverse anyone's kind thoughts. Somehow Donald Trump has remained a good man thru what he has had to endure from citizens. That just adds to his incredibly kind, nice personality and generous acts.

Here is another out dated article, but it states truth and values that it would be good for ALL Americans to read.

Andy Rooney was one in a million. At the end of '60 Minutes' he usually had his own 10-minute segment that, unbelievably, was never censored by CBS. He's probably the only one who could have gotten away with this. May he rest in peace.

Andy Rooney once said...

"I don't think being a minority makes you a victim of anything except numbers. The only things I can think of that are truly discriminatory are things like the United Negro College Fund, Jet Magazine, Black Entertainment Television, and Miss Black America.

Try to have things like the United Caucasian College Fund, Cloud Magazine, White Entertainment Television, or Miss White America; and see what happens... Jesse Jackson will be knocking down your door.

Guns do not make you a killer. I think killing makes you a killer. You can kill someone with a baseball bat or a car, but no one is trying to ban you from driving to the ball game.

I believe they are called the Boy Scouts for a reason, which is why there are no girls allowed. Girls belong in the Girl Scouts!

I think that if you feel homosexuality is wrong, it is not a phobia, it is an opinion.

I have the right 'NOT' to be tolerant of others because they are different, weird, or tick me off.

When 70% of the people who get arrested are black, in cities where 70% of the population is black, that is not racial profiling. It is the Law of Probability.

I believe that if you are selling me a milkshake, a pack of cigarettes, a newspaper or a hotel room, you must do it in English! As a matter of fact, if you want to be an American citizen, you should have to speak English!

Our forefathers didn't die in vain so you can leave the countries you were born in to come over and disrespect ours.

I think the police should have every right to shoot you if you threaten them after they tell you to stop. If you can't understand the word 'freeze' or 'stop' in English, see above.

I don't think just because you were not born in this country, you are qualified for any special loan programs, government sponsored bank loans or tax breaks, etc., so you can open a hotel, coffee shop, trinket store, or any other business.

We did not go to the aid of certain foreign countries and risk our lives in wars to defend their freedoms, so that decades later they could come over here and tell us our constitution is a living document; and open to their interpretations.

I don't hate the rich; I don't pity the poor. I know pro wrestling is fake, but so are movies and television. That doesn't stop you from watching them.

I think Bill Gates has every right to keep every penny he made and continue to make more. If it ticks you off, go and invent the next operating system that's better, and put your name on the building.

It doesn't take a whole village to raise a child right, but it does take a parent to stand up to the kid; and smack their little behinds when necessary, and say 'NO!'

I think tattoos and piercings are fine if you want them, but please don't pretend they are a political statement. And, please, stay home until that new lip ring heals. I don't want to look at your ugly infected mouth as you serve me French fries!

I am sick of 'Political Correctness.' I know a lot of black people, and not a single one of them was born in Africa; so how can they be 'African-Americans'? Besides, Africa is a continent. I don't go around saying I am a European-American because my great, great, great, great, great, great grandfather was from Europe. I am proud to be from America and nowhere else, and if you don't like my point of view, tough..."

I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG, OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, AND TO THE REPUBLIC, FOR WHICH IT STANDS, ONE NATION, UNDER GOD, INDIVISIBLE, WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL!

I was asked to send this on if I agree or delete if I don't. It is said that 86% of Americans believe in God. Therefore, I have a very hard time understanding why there is such a problem in having 'In God We Trust' on our money and having 'God' in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Why don't we just tell the 14% to BE QUIET!!!! ... and please, PULL UP YOUR PANTS!!!!!!

THE PRODIGAL ROAD

MY JOURNEY UP THE MOUNTAIN

The Prodigal Road is the personal story of the rescue of an exuberant young man who became entrapped in the deceitful clutches of evil. Dr. Richard Miller — the author and subject of the book — interweaves the antics, joy, and pain of a preacher’s kid exploring the hills of Appalachia and imagining the thrill of exploring faraway places.

However, due to a poor relationship with his father and his own stubborn will, he drifted into a life of rebellion punctuated by a near-fatal bout with alcohol poisoning. While he pursued a successful military and corporate career, an invisible war raged in the background of his life, tormenting him with fear of punishment from an angry God for not becoming a preacher. At age 35, Richard found himself in Siam, where the Shepherd was waiting, not to punish him, but to forgive him and saturate him with the exhilarating joy of unequivocal love! From this beginning, he learned to ingest God’s word, which released its dynamic power in his life as the permanent remedy for fear, anxiety, and stress. This book will help you acquire that same peace.

Take the journey with Richard as he moves from the dark swamp of rebellion — where he was hammered by the king of the swamp — and climbs the mountain of redemption where he is captured in the majestic light of the Redeemer. The hero of the story is the Redeemer who forgives and then provides dynamic lessons of God’s words that will permeate one’s heart, soul, and mind to create congruence among all aspects of life.

About the Author

Dr. Richard Miller’s parents instilled in him a passionate love of country and adoration of the beauty of God’s universe. As a boy he became an avid adventurer and passionate learner, and dreamed of serving his beloved America as a soldier and seeing the world. The US Army facilitated both dreams. His 23-year career as a Field Artillery officer saw him traveling to Korea, Japan, Germany, Austria, France, Vietnam, and Siam.

Richard’s insatiable desire for learning led to a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering, a Master of Science in Bio Environmental Engineering, and a Doctorate of Strategic Leadership. He was thrilled to engage in exploratory research pushing the state-of-the-art in radar and remote vehicle control for the US Army. His passion for helping young people reach their highest potential was instrumental in the successful expansion of a corporate firm tenfold by mentoring new employees in the philosophy of excellence. He is now retired and living in Goldsboro, North Carolina, with Jenny, his wife of 56 years. They have three children and five grandchildren.

My Fellow Americans,

This week I signed the National Defense Authorization Act — a historic step forward to rebuild our military.

Now, it is critical for Congress to pass the Clean Government Appropriations Bill that fully funds our military needs. We must not play politics with our troops — we should pass a clean funding bill and leave the politics aside.

We must protect our nation.

I’d also like to take a moment today to discuss our immigration system, and how we can reform it to make it work for everyday Americans.

Our current immigration system helps special interests, but hurts American workers, taxpayers and national security.

For decades now, U.S. immigration rules have been based on an outdated system known as Chain Migration.

Under chain migration, foreign nationals can come to the United States and bring in unlimited numbers of foreign relatives. A single immigrant can begin a chain that could ultimately bring in dozens of increasingly distant relations.

Because these individuals are admitted solely on the basis of family ties — not skill or not merit — most of this immigration is lower-skilled, putting great strain on federal welfare.

And because there is no real selection criteria, the current system is totally incompatible with national security.

This week, a terrorist exploded a pipe bomb on a busy subway passage during rush hour in New York City, injuring innocent Americans. This individual arrived through chain migration.

In October, another terrorist drove a truck into pedestrians and cyclists in New York City, killing 8 people and wounding many others. That individual came through a visa lottery.

It is time to create a merit-based immigration system that makes sense for a modern economy – selecting new arrivals based on their ability to support themselves financially and to make positive contributions to U.S. society. Base it on love of our country. We want people that come in, that can love our country.

This process begins with Congress passing a bill to end chain migration and also end the visa lottery.

I have called on Congress to do exactly that.

Ending chain migration and also ending the visa lottery will allow us to have commonsense immigration rules that promote assimilation and wage growth. It also promotes, most importantly, safety. It'll help Americans both old and new to thrive, flourish and prosper.

Thank you, and God Bless America.

CNN ADMITS THEY LIED TO VIEWERS ABOUT TRUMP - 12/17/17 (AGAIN!?)

BY WALTER W. MURRAY, REPORTER

This is getting to be a habit for CNN!

The Clinton News Network just admitted – again – to flat-out lying in its endless, breathless reports about the so-called Russia scandal. This is getting to be a habit for CNN!

Earlier this year, the network claimed Attorney General Jeff Sessions lied about his meetings with Russian Ambassador Sergey Kislyak in 2016.

But... WHOOPS!... turns out CNN was writing fiction and calling it news. Again.

Sure, Sessions met with Ambassador Kislyak.

However, The Horn News first reported this spring he didn't "lie" about it like the mainstream media claimed. Now, CNN has admitted The Horn News and Sessions was right all along.

As a sitting U.S. Senator at the time with a role on key committees involved in foreign policy – including the Armed Services Committee – meetings with foreign ambassadors aren't unusual.

They're routine.

As a result, new documents show that the FBI specifically instructed Sessions to leave out the meetings since they did NOT involve discussions about campaign politics.

CNN said the Sessions team actually reached out to confirm whether these run-of-the-mill meetings would need to be disclosed.

An agent told them "he was not required to list foreign government contacts while in official government business unless he developed personal relationships from such contacts."

Now, CNN has issued a petulant report that they refuse to even call a correction.

They've dashed off just 235 words, none of which note that the network was incorrect in its original report, which ran an eye-glazing 1,200 words.

It's a tale of two headlines.

Here's the first one, which was accompanied by endless coverage from the network's yammering talking heads:

"First on CNN: AG Sessions did not disclose Russia meetings in security clearance form, DOJ says"

Here's the new report, which is practically being kept hidden away in a dusty corner of the Internet:

"FBI email: Sessions wasn't required to disclose foreign contacts for security clearance"

Even the tone of the two stories is entirely different.

The first report claimed the supposed revelation was "the latest example of Sessions failing to disclose contacts he had with Russian officials" as if he had done something wrong... when, as the new report shows, he did exactly what was required and specifically requested.

What's more, the report at the time said Sessions was facing "withering criticism from Democrats" over the "revelations."

It's time for CNN to face its own "withering criticism," this time for viewers sick to death of the network's biased and one-sided coverage and endless attempts to paint anything the administration does as a scandal.

Just last week, they were caught lying about a nonexistent link between the family of President Donald Trump and WikiLeaks. And over the summer, three CNN workers were forced to leave after a botched hit-job on Trump.

The network had reported on supposed financial ties between a Russian investment fund and Trump officials that turned out not to exist.

Trump himself refuses to watch the network, which is no surprise given the constant bogus attacks... and as their sagging ratings prove, the rest of America is following his lead.

October's cable ratings show the network was defeated by Fox News, ESPN, MSNBC and two different cartoon channels in total daily viewers.

Looks like fake news doesn't pay. ~ Walter W. Murray is a reporter for America's Final War

UNQUESTIONABLY ONE OF THE MOST INCREDIBLE FANTASIES OF OUR TIME...
THAT AMERICANS AND THE USA ARE BETTER OFF NOW THAN BEFORE PRESIDENT OBAMA TOOK OFFICE!!

Wishful thinking on the ex-President's part. However, the Truth is well known!! In my opinion, perhaps the most damage this ex-President did is to our racial relations and respect of authority and each other. We were much closer in interracial relationships BEFORE we had a black President – NOT BECAUSE HE WAS BLACK, BUT BECAUSE HE WAS AND IS THE MAN HE IS!!! He worked hard to destroy our Country as a unified citizenship, under GOD, but fell short. Now we must work even harder to become one people – USA Citizens – ONE people because of being citizens of this Great Country – the USA – we ARE NOT white, black, yellow, brown – we are Citizens of the United States of America – the Greatest Country the World has ever seen. We must NOT ALLOW anyone, any race, any anything separate us, we are ONE – USA Citizens!! We must work hard to be ONE, regardless of our family origin, the color of our skin or hair, or what we do to earn our living. The United States of America is for people of all origins, all colors of skin, all types of workers from leaders to followers – no one better than the next. We must be one, under GOD, to show the world how great that is and can be forever. It has not been easy and will not get easier, but we must never stop trying. Never stop believing in “IN GOD WE TRUST”. The United States of America is the greatest, best, and most will continue to be IF WE CONTINUE TO FIGHT FOR IT TO BE!! WE MUST NOT LET OUR GUARD DOWN, WE MUST NOT GIVE UP OR GIVE IN. We now have a President who believes in GOD and what GOD can help us do for the world – STAND UP FOR HIM AND FOR EACH OTHER AND FOR OURSELVES!!! LET US PRAY!!! GOD BLESS AMERICA AND AMERICAN CITIZENS NOW AND ALWAYS!!

THE HIGHLY-ANTICIPATED 2017 FAKE NEWS AWARDS

Team GOP Media – Jan 17, 2018

2017 was a year of unrelenting bias, unfair news coverage, and even downright fake news. Studies have shown that over 90% of the media’s coverage of President Trump is negative.

Below are the winners of the 2017 Fake News Awards.

1. The New York Times’ Paul Krugman claimed on the day of President Trump’s historic, landslide victory that the economy would never recover.

Paul Krugman Says Markets Will ‘Never’ Recover From Trump; Dow Hits Record High

2. ABC News' Brian Ross CHOKES and sends markets in a downward spiral with false report.

ABC DEMOTES BRIAN ROSS AFTER DUNGLED REPORT ON TRUMP, RUSSIA

3. CNN FALSELY reported that candidate Donald Trump and his son Donald J. Trump, Jr. had access to hacked documents from WikiLeaks:

CNN botches dates, inaccurately reports Trump campaign had WikiLeaks sneak peek

(via Fox News)

4. TIME FALSELY reported that President Trump removed a bust of Martin Luther King, Jr. from the Oval Office. =>

5. Washington Post FALSELY reported the President's massive sold-out rally in Pensacola, Florida was empty. Dishonest reporter showed picture of empty arena HOURS before crowd started pouring in.

6. CNN FALSELY edited a video to make it appear President Trump defiantly overfed fish during a visit with the Japanese prime minister. Japanese prime minister actually led the way with the feeding.

7. CNN FALSELY reported about Anthony Scaramucci's meeting with a Russian, but retracted it due to a "significant breakdown in process."

8. Newsweek FALSELY reported that Polish First Lady Agata Kornhouser-Duda did not shake President Trump's hand. =>

9. CNN FALSELY reported that former FBI Director James Comey would dispute President Trump's claim that he is not under investigation.

10. The NYT FALSELY claimed on the front page that the Trump administration had hidden a climate report: (via WashingtonPost.com)

New York Times guilty of large screw-up on climate-change story

11. And last, but not least: "RUSSIA COLLUSION!" Russian collusion is perhaps the greatest hoax perpetrated on the American people. THERE IS NO COLLUSION! (... at least, none outside the DNC & the Clinton Foundation)

Meanwhile, as the media spent over 90% of its time focused on negative coverage or fake news, the President has been getting results:

1. The economy has created nearly 2 million jobs and gained over $8 trillion in wealth since the President's inauguration.
2. African Americans and Hispanics are enjoying the lowest unemployment rate in recorded history.
3. The President signed historic tax cuts and relief for hardworking Americans not seen since President Reagan.
4. President Trump's plan to cut regulations has exceeded "2 out for every 1 in" mandate, issuing 22 deregulatory actions for every one new regulatory action.
5. The President has unleashed an American energy boom by ending Obama-era regulations, approving the Keystone pipeline, auctioning off millions of new acres for energy exploration, and opening up ANWR.
6. ISIS is in retreat, having been crushed in Iraq and Syria.
7. President Trump followed through on his promise to recognize Jerusalem as the capital of the State of Israel and instructed the State Department to begin to relocate the Embassy.
8. With President Trump's encouragement, more member nations are paying their fair share for the common defense in the NATO alliance.
9. Signed the Veterans Accountability and Whistleblower Protection Act to allow senior officials in the VA to fire failing employees and establish safeguards to protect whistleblowers.
10. President Trump kept his promise to appoint Associate Justice Neil Gorsuch to the U.S. Supreme Court.

LOW INCOME STUDENTS ARE DOING BETTER IN KANSAS PRIVATE SCHOOLS

- SCHOOL CHOICE WEEK | by David Dorsey — January 22, 2018

With the eighth annual National School Choice Week upon us, it is an appropriate time to once again show how a large portion of private schools in Kansas outperform their public school counterparts in preparing low income students for college and career readiness. Results from the 2017 Kansas state assessments disclose, that a much higher percentage of low-income students attending parochial schools in urban areas of Kansas are on track for success after high school. In short, low-income students are doing better in Kansas' private schools than in Kansas public schools.

The table below compares outcomes in both math and English language arts (ELA) of private and public schools in Wichita, Kansas City, Topeka, Dodge City and Salina. The differences are staggering. Not only do all the private schools outperform their local public peers, but each far exceeds state averages in both math and ELA.

Putting the private school performance in a larger context, they fare quite favorably compared to all public school districts in Kansas.

It's important to keep in mind that this is data on low-income students, not the full student body. Private school assessment results are often dismissed under the false premise that private schools cherry-pick middle and upper-middle class students.

Of course, the concept of school choice is much broader than just the large Catholic dioceses or other parochial schools, but the dearth of school choice in Kansas precludes any other meaningful comparisons.

And it's high time that changes.

As state lawmakers deal with how to pay the Gannon ransom demanded by the Supreme Court, it provides a golden opportunity to expand school choice in Kansas. A student-focused response to free the Legislature from the Court's edicts should be designated for ESAs. Allowing families to receive education money directly from the state and choose how to spend it is not only the morally right thing to do. As this data confirms, it will permit those most at-risk of not being prepared for the demands after high school escape the clutches of failing schools and choose an educational path with a greater chance of success. There MUST be a way to make the schools QUALIFY for the monies they receive. Buildings need to meet certain standards, but WHAT is taught, must have some qualifications also. Our children must be taught what and how our Country is meant to be. Our children MUST be taught life learning lessons; they must be able to earn a living. Not everyone is College bound and they do NOT need to be. There are 1000s of jobs out there that do NOT require a college education. Our youth must have basic knowledge – how can we require our schools to teach this knowledge as well as prepare those who will go to college to be prepared for college?

He probably said, 'Go ahead, punk, make my day.'

Clint Eastwood's new movie, "The 15:17 to Paris", is based on true events, where three American heroes stopped a terrorist on a Paris train in 2015, and it is causing the Hollywood crowd to go nuts. They just tried to put the kibosh on certain scenes that didn't fit their liberal agenda, and boy, that made Eastwood mad. So, the famous actor and director who voted for President Donald Trump just slapped the leftists hard with a brutal surprise. You're going to love it.

Clint Eastwood is an American icon and is probably the most famous conservative actor and director in Hollywood. Eastwood's legendary work affords him the ability to pick and chose what type of movies he'll make, and he loves making patriotic American movies.

His current film, "The 15:17 to Paris," is in the final edits, but the Hollywood crowd hates it, and they tried to stop certain people from seeing it. The reason is the pro-American message it sends, described in this synopsis on Google: "In the early evening of August 21, 2015, the world watched in stunned silence as the media reported a thwarted terrorist attack on Thalys train #9364 bound for Paris — an attempt prevented by three courageous young Americans traveling through Europe."

The summary adds, "Throughout the harrowing ordeal, their friendship never wavers, making it their greatest weapon and allowing them to save the lives of the more than 500 passengers on board. The heroic trio is comprised of Anthony Sadler, Oregon National Guardsman Alek Skarlatos, and U.S. Air Force Airman First Class Spencer Stone, who play themselves in the film."

The movie stirs real patriotic emotion and honors the three American heroes who have military backgrounds. It shows an Islamic terrorist, who gains entry into France as a migrant, attempting to slaughter 500 people, with three Americans stopping him. This just isn't the type of movie the Hollywood crowd makes, and they tried to screw Eastwood by giving it an "R" rating.

The reason they gave for the "R" rating was it showed "violence," and this pissed off Clint Eastwood, who is making this film so teens could also see a movie with real American values. It was a cheap shot by the liberal Hollywood idiots, and Eastwood decided that wasn't going to happen. The legendary star shocked the Hollywood crowd by taking on the rating board himself, something that never happens. And, not only did he take them on, he blew them away.

"Clint Eastwood has won an appeal to overturn the R rating originally assigned to his upcoming film, The 15:17 to Paris. Instead, it will be rated PG-13. According to a source, the R rating was given for the train attack scene at the center of the film, which the Classification and Rating Administration described as 'a sequence of violence and bloody images,' " reported Hollywood Reporter.

They added, "The Classification and Rating Appeals Board says it reviews 800 to 900 films each year, with fewer than 12 ratings a year appealed. Eastwood represented his own film on behalf of Warner Bros., which opened the film in theaters on Feb. 9."

Clint doesn't just play a "tough guy" in his movies. He showed those Hollywood snakes that he really is a tough guy who won't be pushed around. He'll make any darn movie he wants to make, and they won't stop him from making sure as many Americans as possible can see it.

Here's the highly awaited trailer for "The 15:17 to Paris" that just came out:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IC_Inyn2R2Q

In case you're wondering how much the Hollywood crowd detests this movie for its pro-American military theme along with its anti-Islam, anti-migrant message, here's how one Hollywood critic describes it:

"But in the hands of someone like Eastwood, this [movie] reads like a recruitment ad for the military. Nothing diminishes the heroism of these three men, but in Eastwood's hands, it looks like he's coasting on their achievements to tell a story that will make some people think that they too can be heroes if they just head down to their local recruitment office." Source: [Collider]

Well, let the haters hate. They loathe patriotism and they despise middle-class working Americans who love this country. They can't stand Clint Eastwood who said that former President Barack Obama is "the greatest hoax ever perpetrated on the American people."

Lastly, what in the hell is wrong with sending the message to teens that they too can be heroes? What is wrong with giving some kids the idea that joining the military is a heroic thing to do? This is exactly the kind of movie our young people need to see in today's world that is filled with idiot celebrities pushing anti-American messages. If this movie inspires just one young American to join the military and make their life worthwhile, then Clint Eastwood's film will be a resounding success.

Morning prayer — Lord, we know the truth is hidden from us, as there are among the mighty those who call evil good and good evil. We know that you will bring about a day when the truth will be revealed and the mighty will be humbled. Give us the strength to withstand until that day.
